- You get spot news and feature pictures that put you at the scene of hundreds of local events every year.
- You are assured of accurate news reports from the communities of Campbellville, Hornby, Kilbride, Lowville, Omagh, Milton Heights, Speyside, Haltonville, Scotch Block, Moffat, Ashgrove, Drumquin, Ash and other district centres.
- You can keep in touch with the dozens of special items local advertisers offer in their week-after-week advertising.
- You won't miss the hundreds of items offered each month in Champion classified advertisements--the major market place of the district.
- You can read specially prepared features that are offered each week. Columns like Sugar and Spice, The Turning Point, Jim's Jottings, 20 and 50 years ago, Sports Ramblings, Right Around Home, Farm News and others are all keyed to the local scene -- the area you're most interested in.
- You can keep abreast of the activities of municipal groups like council, planning board, committee of adjustment, the parking authority, the recreation committee, the public school board, the district high school board, the arena committee, the North Halton Urban Board.
- You read Halton County's oldest newspaper, a paper that in May will have completed 100 years of service to Milton and district.
- You read a paper that is vitally interested in its own community, a newspaper that is keeping pace with the growth and progress of its area.
- You read the one paper that cares about the future and development of Milton as an autonomous community.
