HALTON MANOR

Barbershop Singers Take Manor by Storm

A group of 20 friendly and talented gentlemen took the Manor by storm on Tuesday evening, April 12, when 20 members of the Burlington Chapter of the Barbershop Society came to the Manor to entertain the residents with their delightful singing. All the arrangements had been made by the president, Douglas Brunton, who was among those who came. Mel Johnson, the founder of the Burlington Chapter was also present. The concern was of particular interest because that current week was Barber-Shop Harmony week, the parent Society having been founded on April 11, 1939.

All the gentlemen were dressed alike in white shirts, black trousers and black string ties and looked very smart and trim. Led by their competent music director, Dave Daniels, the singers launched into their opening number, The Old Songs and then followed this up with I Want a Girl. After these two opening songs, Mr. Brunton extended greetings to the residents from the members of the Chapter and introduced the individual members. Two more songs from among the choristers Down Our Way and Side by Side followed the introductions. A quartette from among the choristers took over to sing The Halls of Ivy and A Son of the Sea.

Residents Join In

Led by Mr. Daniels, the visitors and residents joined voices in the singing of a number of old-time ballads. A second quartette who called themselves a quartette of kibitzers then sang When You Were Sweet Sixteen and Tell Me Why. Another group of choral numbers, which included Sweet Roses of Morn and Heart of My Heart, as well as the rollicking song Oh, How I Miss Her concluded this varied and tuneful program. Every number had been sung in excellent fashion and the whole atmosphere had been one of friendliness and humor.

Hugh Denison, speaking on behalf of the residents, thanked the visitors and coffee and cookies were served. The members of the Chapter and the residents thus had a chance to become better acquainted with one another and many invitations were extended.

to the visitors to come again soon. Easter Service
On Easter Sunday afternoon, April 17, a service that was very appropriate for this joyous and significant day was conducted by Rev. D. A. Powell, rector of Grace Anglican Church in Milton. Mr. Powell read two portions of scripture, Psalm 57 and Chapter 20 of St. John's Gospel. He then delivered an inspiring sermon on St. Paul's words in Corinthians, "Glory be to God Who gave us the Victory, through Jesus Christ our Lord."

After stressing the glory of the true meaning of Easter, Mr. Powell described the victory referred to by St. Paul as a triple victory, victory over death, victory over sin and victory over the world, but emphasized the fact that these victories are possible only when we have absolute faith in God.

Attractive Dinner
At noon on Easter Day the residents enjoyed a delicious and attractive Easter dinner that featured roast turkey and pumpkin pie. Their places at the dining-room tables were made very attractive by the use of pink and yellow favors, in the shape of tulip blossoms and green leaves, filled with candy. These were the Easter gifts of the November Group of St. Christopher's Anglican Church Women's Church Year, Burlington.

Chief Warns

Don't Let Fire Hide in Home

Fire Chief A. E. Clement today advised, "Don't let fire hide in your home—Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Plant-Up, Fix-Up and check for hidden fire hazards."

"That old box of cast-off clothing, the pile of newspapers in the basement, the oily mop in the closet, and the storeroom's flammable liquids are all hideaways for fire's threat," the Fire Chief explained. "And unpainted wood is ready fuel for fire," Chief Clement continued.

Get Rid of Junk
"For the protection of your family and home, get rid of old clothing, magazines, mattresses, and papers. Protect wood surfaces with paint. Dispose of oily rags and rags and all flammable items. Get rid of dried grass and leaves, especially those near the house foundation. Check your wiring to be certain it is adequate to meet present-day electrical requirements."

"The season now at hand is excellent for getting your house safe and making it spic-and-span at the same time. Fight fire before it starts by getting rid of its hiding places," Chief Clement requested.
