

RIGHT AROUND HOME

by Shirley

Last weekend we enjoyed a trip to the Pioneer Village and Museum north of Toronto in the Black Creek Conservation Area.

The Pioneer village consists of early homes, a grain barn, smoke house, blacksmith shop, general store, cider mill and several other buildings. Each one of these buildings is furnished as they would have been in the 1880s with many original pieces.

A pioneer school is in the process of being constructed and we understand a church and printing shop will also be part of the village.

During the week people dressed in authentic costumes are on hand to demonstrate some of the various equipment.

The blinds for all of the houses are woven on a loom in the museum. The flax for these blinds is grown on the grounds, where it is harvested, then taken to the museum where it is processed, spun into yarn, dried and finally woven.

A herb garden has over 30 species of herbs that were grown around 1867. We noticed one plant like we have in our rock garden, but couldn't find out its name or use.

For the convenience of the visitors picnic areas are provided both at the museum and the village where there is fresh spring water and stoves for cooking. (You take your own charcoal). There is also a CNIB refreshment booth on the grounds.

If you're looking for a place to go for an afternoon's outing this is an excellent spot which is not too far away and provides recreation as well as education.

Raspberries Here
Fresh raspberries have made their annual appearance on the market, and due to the abundance of rain they should be bigger, better and plentiful.

Raspberries are delicious plain, or they can be served in a variety of desserts, used for salads, sauce, jam or jelly.

For a salad try this recipe using fresh raspberries and ginger ale which gives the ginger flavor.

Frozen Ginger-Fruit Salad

- 1 tsp. unflavored gelatin
- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 2 tsp. lemon juice
- 1/4 cup liquid honey
- 1 cup ginger ale
- 1 cup fresh raspberries
- 1/2 cup diced canned pears, well drained
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 1 cup whipping cream

Soak gelatin in orange juice, then set in hot water and heat until dissolves. Mix gelatin, lemon juice, honey and ginger ale, stirring until well blended. Chill till slightly thickened.

Stir in fruit, mayonnaise and cream which has been whipped stiff. Pour into a 9 x 5 x 3 inch loaf pan and freeze until mixture holds its shape. Unmold, cut in slices and serve on lettuce leaf with sweet dressing and for dessert try this one. It's rich but delicious.

Raspberry Cream Pie

- 1 baked pie shell or graham cracker shell
 - 3 1/2 cups raspberries
 - 1 pkg. raspberry jello
 - 1 cup hot water
 - 1 cup heavy cream whipped
 - 3 tablespoons icing sugar
- Dissolve raspberry jello in one cup hot water. Chill jello until partially set. Beat it with wire whisk or rotary beater until fluffy.
- Whip the cream until it is stiff, fold in the icing sugar.
- Fold the cream into the gelatin. Fold in the raspberries which have been washed and drained. Pour into the pie shell. Chill thoroughly. Garnish with whipped cream and whole berries.

Glads, Hydrangea, Lilies Decorate Knox for Vows

Bouquets of pink glads, blue hydrangea and lilies decorated Knox Presbyterian church, Acton, for the marriage of Laurie Douglas Ritchie and David Alexander Johnson at 3.30 on Saturday afternoon, July 23. The Rev. Andrew H. McKenzie heard the vows, while Ted Hansen played the wedding music.

bride, and Kenneth Johnson, Milton, a brother of the groom.

POET'S CORNER

MY MOMENT WITH GOD

Dear God, help me to teach my children to pray with their lives, not just with their lips.

Show me the way to shield them from the temptation of the world, and to instruct them not to wander from your teachings.

Stay near me, I implore you, so I shall not falter in my efforts, knowing you are constantly with me.

I will not be afraid. Help me to give my children spiritual food fitting to their needs and nature.

And when they have grown as straight and tall as trees, I will know my efforts have been successful — but only because your hand was in mine all the way. Amen.
