Horticulturalists Meet

Award Green-thumber Prizes After Essays, Flower Trials

The September meeting of the Milton and District Horticultural Society was held in the Milton High School on Thursday, September 15.

The prize winners of the O.H.A. Essay Contest were announced and prizes were given out. First, Korrie Sue Learmont of Hornby (prize donated by the Toronto Star), second: Anne Bradley of Hornby, third: Jane McEachern of Milton, fourth: Cheryl Brighton of Sunningdale, fifth, Rosemary Robertson of Hornby, sixth: Linda Bailey of Hornby.

Mrs. Dalgleish of Hornby favored those present with two solos.

Panel Discussion
The remainder of the meeting was people acting on the panel:

Moderator Don Hancock of the Woodland Nurseries, Hornby, E. B. Clements, E. Byrner, Mrs. Chisholm and S. Turner.

A monthly flower show was held and the following people won prizes. Class 1—first, Mrs. Downs; second, Mrs. McMillan. Class 2—Mrs. Clements won first and Miss Tremayne won second prize.

In the period 1953-58, certificates of Canadian citizenship were granted 326,304 new Canadians. But one look at Canada's sparsely settled areas and the economic smallness of the home market indicates the great need for more of these people.

HORNBY SOUTH 4-H CLUB exhibited the grand championship entry in the junior exhibits hall at the weekend fair, winning out over dozens of entries. Above, Marie Curtis and Caroline Hoey of the club show the championship ribbon on their project, Cottons May Be Smart. Club leaders who organized the display were Mrs. Tom Bousfield and her assistant, Mrs. C. Patterson. The Junior Farmer and 4-H Clubs exhibited their project work, while several of the clubs showed their achievement day projects in the hall.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES from Halton County displayed their project, "Baby Shower" in the first building at the fair grounds over the weekend. Limehouse W.I. was judged best display, and director Mrs. E. E. Yates is shown placing the sign on the exhibit. There were 16 entries in the class.
