

JUDITH HAMILTON of Wroxeter and Earl Bentley of Milton were married at Streetsville United Church on September 24 in a double-ring ceremony. The reception was held at the Masonic Hall, Streetsville, when dinner was served to many guests from this district.

Streetsville Ceremony Unites Judith Hamilton, Earl Bentley

White and mauve glads were placed in Streetsville United church on Saturday afternoon, September 24, for the double-ring ceremony which united Judith Hazella Hamilton and Earl Lockwood Bentley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hamilton of R. R. 1, Wroxeter, Ontario. The groom is the son of Mr. Charles A. L. Bentley, R. R. 1, Milton.

The Rev. Paul Field of Streetsville officiated with Mrs. Lillie Coates of Streetsville playing the organ. The soloist was Miss Margaret Davidson of Acton who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Perfect Love."

Carried Roles
The bride was given in marriage by her father, and chose a gown of white silk organza over taffeta and net, featuring a bouffant skirt, its scalloped neckline embroidered with seed pearls and sequins, with lily-point sleeves. Her embroidered fingertip length veil was held by a tiara of sequins and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of red and white roses and baby mums.

The maid of honor was Miss June Rennick, R. R. 4, Acton, while the bridesmaids were Gini and Lynda Hamilton of Wroxeter, sisters of the bride. Miss Lisa Hamilton, a younger sister, was flower girl.

The maid of honor wore olive green nylon chiffon, while the bridesmaids wore mauve. They wore white feather caps, white gloves and shoes, and carried white mums. The flower girl, in mauve nylon, carried white mums.

Bruce Barber, Acton, was groomsmen; ushers were Keith McKenzie, Milton and Jim Lister, Hornby.

SEPTEMBER 17 WEDDING at Holy Rosary Rectory, Milton, saw Jane McCarthy of 98 Lydia Ave., Milton, become the bride of George Jackson, R.R. 1, Milton. Father Gallagher performed the double ring ceremony.

Jane McCarthy George Jackson Exchange Vows

On September 17 in Holy Rosary rectory, Rev. Father Gallagher heard the wedding vows of Elizabeth Jane McCarthy and George William Jackson. The bride, a bookkeeper at Milton Lumber and Coal Co. Ltd., is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCarthy of R.R. 1, Markdale. The groom, who lives at R.R. 1, Milton and is a Halton Co-Operative Supplies employee, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson of R.R. 1, Hillsburgh.

The bride wore a street length gown of white silk organza with a fitted bodice, the full skirt worn over a crinoline. Her shoulder length veil of embroidered net was held in place by a seed pearl coronet. She carried a white prayer book with a cascade of red roses.

Sister Attendant
Her sister, Miss Bernadette McCarthy, was maid of honor wearing a street length gown of turquoise blue silk organza with white accessories. Her flowers were white rosebuds.

Bruce McCarthy of Markdale, the bride's brother, was groomsmen.

A reception was held at Hawthorne Lodge. The couple left on a trip to Eastern Ontario, and for travelling the bride wore a two-piece beige suite with chocolate brown accessories and a corsage of Talisman rose buds. They are making their home at 310 Main St., Milton.

Mr., Mrs. Charles R. DeLong To Make Home in Rochester

A double-ring ceremony at Christ's Church, Clarkson, united in marriage Shirley Anne Brown and Charles Richard DeLong. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harry Brown, 1548 Southdown Road, Clarkson, formerly of Milton. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeLong, 7 Creekside Lane, Rochester, New York.

White glads and white chrysanthemums formed the setting as the Rev. Robert Oliver, Clarkson, heard the vows on Saturday afternoon, September 24.

Mrs. E. Bates, Port Credit, played the organ and accompanied Miss Milree Wilson, Milton, who sang "The Wedding Hymn" and "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden."

Frosted Eden
The bride's simple style waltz-length gown was of frosted white brocade, the V-neckline encrusted with seed pearls, and three-quarter length sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of tulle illusion was caught by a crown of seed pearls. On her white Bible she carried white orchids and Stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Marlene Chapman of Burlington who wore a waltz-length gown of wood-violet taffeta with an orchid sash, matching violet headpiece and shoes. She carried yellow shasta mums.

The bridesmaid, Miss Rachel DeLong, Rochester, sister of the groom, wore a similar waltz-length gown in orchid taffeta with sash in wood violet, matching orchid headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was composed of yellow shasta mums with white button mums.

Brother is Page
The bride's brother, William Arthur Brown, acted as page. The ushers were William Childs, Hamilton, and Peter Campbell, Toronto.

Guests were present from Hamilton, Toronto, Rochester, Milton, Wingham and Ottawa, and they extended their best wishes at the reception in the Merigold Room at Christ's Church. For the occasion, the bride's mother wore a lavender peau de soie gown with wood violet hat and gloves, with an orchid corsage in matching tones. The groom's mother chose for the occasion a gown of mauve silk with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

After a reception at Algonquin Park, the couple will make their home in Rochester, New York.

A Christmas tree will not flare up if kept standing in water.

Apple, Cherry Blooms Disprove Mom Nature
Mother Nature has gummed up the works again!

This time it's apple blossom time in the fall and to prove it, Harry Prudham, R.R. 3, Campbellville brought the Champion staff a few branches with new Snow apples together with new blossoms, Tuesday. Someone had better nudge Nature because in the past few weeks this newspaper has printed a variety in odd-ball agriculture. Sorry, the apples are not on display, mainly because they were eaten—very tasty too.

It was reported that Clarence

Houston of Mill St. picked two pints of raspberries on Monday and another official taster reported they were "very good".

The bride's mother received wearing a beige and brown silk matte jersey dress with a corsage of bronze mums. Receiving for the groom, Mrs. Annie Bush wore pale blue brocade accented with lace and white accessories. The bride's going-away costume was in mauve arnel with white feather cap, white accessories and flowers.

Mrs. Campbell Wilson and Mrs. W. J. Kerr were hostesses for a miscellaneous shower for the bride on September 1.

Women Discuss Bazaar Project

The Good-Will group of St. Paul's W.A. of the United church held their opening Fall meeting at the home of Mrs. A. G. MacNab with an encouraging attendance. Miss Myrtle Field gave a fitting devotion, followed by the secretary's report and business.

The project of selling hastinotes with the beautiful picture of the church on them was discussed as well as the forthcoming bazaar and other coming events of interest to the group. Games and dainty refreshments closed an enjoyable meeting.
