

Pupils Enjoy Concert, Many Holiday Visitors

By Mrs. Geo. Pelletterio

The Sunday school pupils of St. Luke's Anglican church held their Christmas concert Wednesday night. They put on the Nativity Play and sang carols. Santa and a clown arrived to distribute the gifts, candy and oranges to the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Wardley left Wednesday by plane to spend Christmas with their parents and relatives in England.

Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tansley Barnes were Mr. and Mrs. Nip Gervais and daughter Corrine of Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bawden and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Patterson and Harold and Beverley spent Saturday evening with Miss Megan Davies of Hamilton.

10 Visitors

Guests on Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. A. Patterson were Mr. and Mrs. John Whyte and sons and Harold Adams, all of Ottawa; Doug Secord and Gordon and Zoe Anne of Oakville; Miss Diane Hiscock of Cedar Springs and Mrs. Wm. Davies and Megan.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Reichert and family and Albert Stephenson of Peru, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cargo and family of Burlington spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meredith and girls.

The Meredith girls entertained the Young People's group of Palermo United church on Saturday evening at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Pelletterio and Donna of Downsview and Brian Pelletterio of Oakville spent Friday evening with the Pelletterios.

Christmas Here

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hill and family of Newmarket spent Christmas with the Pelletterios.

Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gowland and family were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fleetom of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. John Malcolm and sons of Clarkson, and Mr. and Mrs. Russel Gowland and Lorne.

Mr. and Mrs. Brock Howard and Sharon of Campbellville, Dr. and Mrs. Doug Ford and Rhonda of King City and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McFadden spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McFadden.

Harry Crozier and Miss Eva Crozier of Milton spent Sunday evening with the McFaddens.

Mr. and Mrs. William McFadden and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McFadden spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Brock Howard of Campbellville.

Resident Dies

Our sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Wm. Marshall who passed away Thursday morning. She will be sadly missed in this district.

Keith and Rosemary De Mois of Toronto are spending a few days with the Pelletterios, and Frankie De Mois is visiting with the Oates.

- BRIEFS -

—North Halton O.P.P. reported just one Christmas Day accident, with an estimated $250 damage. Drivers involved in the collision were Keith Job of R.R. 1, Acton and Donald Gates of Hamilton.

—Town streets were very quiet Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Hardly any stores or offices were open Tuesday after the Christmas holiday.

Junior Team

Halton Enters Second Round In Provincial Competition

The Halton Junior Farmer inter-county debating team will take part in the second round of the provincial competition by debating with the team from Ontario county.

The debate will take place in York county at the Vellore Hall on Wednesday, January 11. The subject of the debate is, "Resolved that current unemployment is detrimental to Canadian agriculture."

Halton Representatives

Jean Moffat, Rockwood R. R. 2, and Jock Robertson, Milton R. R. 5, will debate the affirmative side; and Marie Marshall, Milton R. R. 1, and Ed. Segsworth, Burlington R. R. 2, will debate the negative side, for Halton county.

The Halton county team is being coached by George E. Elliott, Q.C., and Douglas E. Jackson, assistant agricultural representative.
