Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority
Bar boredom from your itinerary and you will discover car travel with your children can really be child's play. Best way to divert youngsters' interests and keep them amused is through taking along suitable toys for touring.
Aware of the importance of keeping children amused en route, manufacturers have come up with a whole group of travel toys designed to keep youngsters happily quiet in a limited space. For the tot three - seven years of age, picture books, blocks, paper and crayons are always welcome diversions. Industrious little girls in this age group will enjoy wooden weaving looms and dolls with travel wardrobes in small suitcases. Sure to be a favorite is a doctor or nurse kit. Boys of the same age will be delighted with tiny rubber or plastic cars. Either boys or girls will find kaleidoscopes, playing or picture cards and hand puppets an endless source of amusement. Tinier tots, two - four, love to cuddle and play with small dolls and woolly animals.

Older children from eight to 12 years of age are easier to keep entertained and retain their interest in a particular toy or game longer than younger fry. Keep their interests up throughout the trip with activity books, coloring books, drawing pads and puzzles. Children this age are old enough to enjoy automobile and number games which you can make up as you go along.
Remember not to select toys which might distract the driver, such as yo-yos, balloons and balls. Above all, don't forget that a little fun and nonsense can save the day when travelling with children.

The BIBLE Today

The Rev. Maynard Booth, Bible Society secretary in the Rhodesias and Nyasaland, recently wrote, "Bemba is one of the many languages of Northern Rhodesia and not long ago, the translation of the whole Bible was completed. It was with great joy, therefore, that I anticipated announcing the early arrival of this Bible."
"Early one morning I was invited to speak to a group of evangelists gathered for a refreshment course. It was still so dark that I could not distinguish the faces of those before me. With a flourish, I announced that very soon the complete Bible would be in their hands."
Reverential Silence
"Instead of the spontaneous burst of loud acclaim which I had expected, there was a great silence which I could not understand. I had expected this great news to be received with loud exclamations of joy and much clapping of hands. I learned, however, that there are certain things which can only be received with reverential silence."
"After the meeting, the evangelists came to me, saying, 'We never thought we would live to see the day when we would have the complete word of God in our own language. Now we can go to our people, completely equipped to tell the story of His wondrous love.'"
"This was no light moment in the lives of these people. As the light grew in that little school-room, I could see the tears of joy in their eyes."

Bible Readings
Sunday, Mark 12: 1-31; Monday, John 3: 1-21; Tuesday, John 11: 1-27; Wednesday, John 20: 1-31; Thursday, Romans 5: 1-21; Friday, Isaiah 61: 1-11; Saturday, Luke 7: 18-30; Matt. 11: 25-30.

RIGHT AROUND HOME
by Shirley

With holidays over and children back to school, now is a good time to start thinking about spring housecleaning. Chores like cleaning cupboards, drawers and some closets can be done so that when the warmer spring weather comes, the rest can be finished in shorter time, leaving you free to enjoy the warm spring days.

Each January we decide to do this but don't usually follow through, consequently two or three drawers and a closet usually get done quite late. This year we are trying something different, listing all the jobs and posting it on the kitchen cupboard where it is easily seen each day. This list can be added to and checked off as the jobs are done.

It sounds like a good idea, if it works. We'll know better in a couple of months.

During the winter months when children are out sleighing, tobogganing and skating they usually come in cold and hungry.

Hot soup is a good nourishing dish for lunch or a snack. Home-made tomato soup is easy to make and delicious.

Cream of Tomato Soup
Brown 1 teaspoon finely chopped onion in 2 tablespoons butter in a saucepan. Stir in 3 tablespoons pastry flour, 2 teaspoons sugar, 1 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Cook until smooth and bubbly, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Gradually stir in two cups tomato juice or canned tomatoes. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly and boil for 1 minute. Then add 2 cups cold whole milk, all at once. (Combining the ingredients in this way prevents curdling.) Heat rapidly to serving temperature, stirring constantly. Serve at once.

Children will love it served in mugs and topped with popcorn. Other garnishes might include grated cheddar cheese, chopped parsley or croutons.

As a finishing touch to a delicious hot soup, dress up the individual servings with effective garnishes. Curry or paprika croutons are attractive garnishes which can be prepared from simple ingredients.

To make croutons, remove crusts from slices of day-old bread. Spread both sides with a mixture of soft butter combined with curry powder or paprika. Cut into 1/3 or 1/2-inch cubes. Place on a baking sheet and toast 6 to 8 inches below a pre-heated broiler until a golden brown. Turn to ensure even browning. Only a few minutes are required. A few croutons floating on any cream soup are as good tasting as they are good looking.

Bread sticks made with various seasonings are also good with hot soup. Here are two recipes you might like to try.

Caraway seed bread sticks: Trim crusts from slices of white bread, and brush sticks with melted butter. Cut each slice into one-inch wide strips, and roll each strip in caraway seeds. Toast on a baking sheet in a moderate oven, 350 deg. until golden brown and crisp.
Waffled Bread Sticks: Remove crusts from slices of white bread. Spread both sides of each slice
