Cards of Thanks

I wish to thank Doctors MacEachern and Hill and nurses and staff who attended me while a patient in Milton District Hospital, also friends, neighbors and relatives for the nice flowers, gifts and cards I received while here and at home.

Our recent fire leaves us with grateful hearts towards our neighbors who helped us in so many ways supplying coffee and sandwiches at this time, the Milton firemen for their untiring efforts at the Campbellville Boy Scouts for directing the traffic. Sincere thanks to everyone.

In the midst of our sorrow, we wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our many relatives, friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown to us in the passing of a beloved mother and grandmother, Louisa Victoria Michie. We especially wish to thank Rev. Cole and Rev. Kenneth Campbell, both of Milton, for their comforting message, also for floral offerings, cards and message of sympathy, the pallbearers and the McKersie funeral home. A special thank you to the ladies of the community of Milton Heights for their great help and comfort after the funeral. Thank you, everyone.

Mrs. Joan Fretz and family.
