Have You Seen the Loudoun Homes?

bers and three visitors present. Mrs. Irma Coulson presided over the business. Mrs. Verna Peer and Mrs. Francis McCormack were in charge of the worship service and program. A very inspirational worship service was conducted on Psalm 23 and "The Basque Shepherds".

A film strip was shown on the theme "The Ecumenical Year". The ladies drew names for secret partners in prayer.

Mrs. Irma Coulson closed the meeting with the Mizpah Benediction. The group then sang grace and enjoyed refreshments. The next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Cy Stein on February 8.

Gordon Malmstrom spent the weekend in Detroit visiting his brother.

Deliver Clothing

Mrs. Nancy Ramshaw, Mrs. Elia Rocheforte, Mrs. Alma Colling and Mrs. Frances McCormack took 280 pounds of clothes to the United church distributing house, 100 Simcoe St. Toronto and spent the day sorting clothes.

The Distributing House serves from Halifax to Winnipeg as a gathering place for clothes for overseas missions. The clothes are first sorted for wear and soiled spots and then put into piles, men's, women's, etc. They are then stacked in a cart. When the cart is full, the stack is put in a press and pressed tightly. It is wrapped in cardboard and tied with three bands of wire. The bundle is then wrapped in heavy paper and then in burlap, ready to be shipped overseas.

Stockings to Korea

Nylon stockings are sorted out to be sent to Korea. Here 15 war widows earn their living by re-making these used nylons into useful products. They take the complete stocking and fashion rugs from them or else they bleach, dye, and unravell them and then reweave the tiny thread into curtains.

Out of town ladies are welcome to go to the United Church Distributing House on the first and third Fridays and the fourth Thursday of any month to help sort and pack. Take your lunch with you and they will give you a cup of tea. Your help will be appreciated.

Cubs Skate

The Lowville Cubs under the leadership of Mrs. Nancy Ramshaw, assisted by Mr. Bill Dixon and Mr. Raymond Flock enjoyed a skating party on McArthur's pond on Saturday afternoon.

It was a beautiful day and 25 youngsters enjoyed playing hockey and skating. Later in the afternoon around a campfire they all enjoyed hot dogs and hot chocolate provided by the Cub mothers.

Young People Meet

The Young People's Union held their regular weekly meeting at the home of Joyce and Raymond Flock. The executive in charge of the meeting, the theme of which was "The life of Paul". The worship was a scripture reading by Janet Coulson and a story of Paul and a prayer led by Jeannette Peer.

The program consisted of a Bible study on the life of Paul led by Joanne McArthur and Raymond Flock. The young people answered a test on this later.

The group enjoyed a sing song led by Joanne McArthur. After a very enjoyable lunch, Gail Coulson thanked the host and hostess.

Ponds Crowded

On the weekends the local ponds are crowded with "would-be" hockey players, from the ages of five to fifty. These young hopefuls are enjoying the fine skating weather.

Demonstration Night

The Limestone Farm Forum met on Monday evening last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry King. Sixteen members present enjoyed a very interesting Demonstration evening. The following ladies gave entertaining talks and demonstrations, Mrs. Mary Howard oil painting; Mrs. Clara Auckland, leather tooling; Mrs. Lorraine Swallow, clay modelling and Mrs. Lillian McArthur, copper tooling.

The group then enjoyed cards and lunch.

Congregational Meeting

The annual congregational meeting of the Lowville United church was held Friday evening. Reports were received from every organization of the church. Two elders Burdge Gunby and Eric Gudgeon were re-instated. George Coulson was reinstated as Sunday school superintendent. Stewards put in for three years were Garfield Colling, Norman Gunn, Bill Hayward, Mrs. Lillian Readhead, Mrs. Louise Gunby and Ar-

Kinsmen in Oakville Hear J. Howard Talk

Fourteen members of the Kinsmen Club of Milton were among 100 Kinsmen at a joint meeting in Oakville Monday evening.

Oakville Kinsmen hosted fellow clubbers from Milton, Georgetown and Burlington at the annual joint meeting, and Oakville Kin president Jack Dyson chaired the meeting. Barber-shop quartette singing and a speech by a representative of the John Howard Society on rehabilitation of convicts, were highlights of the evening.
