

HALTON CENTENNIAL MANOR

Conservatory Students City Choir Entertain

By Miss Muriel Thompson
 Rev. D. A. Powell conducted the church service on Sunday afternoon, April 23. He brought with him four welcome guests, Mrs. Bert Freeman and three girls who are members of the Girls' Auxiliary of Grace Anglican Church in Milton. These girls were Kathleen Wilson, Glenna Freeman and Betty Lou Freeman.

Mr. Powell read two passages from the Bible, Psalm 13 and part of Chapter 14 of St. Luke's Gospel. He chose his text, They Watched Him from verse one of the above chapter. Mr. Powell said that after the miracle at Cana, Jesus was always the centre of attraction and therefore always in the public eye. Every age since that time has also put a searchlight upon Jesus, yet He has lived on from century to century. The same is true of the Christian church and individual Christians who are watched to see if they display true Christian virtues.

Instrumental Program
 A group of young instrumentalists who gave a splendid program for the residents last Fall came again to the Manor after the church service on Sunday afternoon, April 23. The group was made up of 34 young boys and girls who are students of the Ontario Conservatory of Music at Oakville. They were accompanied by Mrs. Una Van Horne, the secretary at the Conservatory, and Mrs. Marcotte and Mr. Holubeshen, two of their teachers. A small Rock n' Roll group from Hamilton, who call themselves the Gents, also came to assist with the program.

As was the case at the concert last Fall, Mrs. Van Horne was the very pleasant and capable Mistress of Ceremonies and kept the 20 selections progressing so smoothly that the time passed very quickly. The teachers and pupils played a variety of instruments—accordions, guitars, electric guitars and drums. From the opening number, which was a lilting waltz to the closing number, a medley of modern songs played by The Gents, all the selections were played expertly and the teachers can be justifiably proud of their pupils.

The numbers chosen were varied in character and included folk songs such as Swanee River and Two Guitars, lilting waltzes such as The Bluebird and Merry Widow waltzes and the modern songs Sentimental Journey and I'm in the Mood for Love. Mrs. Marcotte and Mr. Holubeshen took part in the playing of some of these selections. Mrs. Van Horne, accompanist sang a solo. It is no secret, panned by Mrs. Marcotte on her with the audience singing along in the second chorus. The pupils displayed great talent and the entire program was delightful. Another program in the near future would be appreciated.

Hamilton Group
 An outstanding first in the line of entertainment took place in the auditorium on Thursday evening, April 27, when the first organization from the City of Hamilton ever to provide entertainment for the residents came from Hamilton to present a program. These thoughtful and generous visitors were about 30 members of the choir of Central Presbyterian Church in Hamilton. Their president, J. F. Reesor was one of those who came. Mrs. Murray Hall was the convener of the entire delightful evening. The choir master, Murray Hall announced the program, led the singing and played the piano accompaniments. Due to the fact that Mr. Hall possesses a very keen sense of humor, the program was not only a delightful one musically, but a merry one as well. The wonderful program of choral numbers and solos made a great impression on the audience.

The choir sang several hymns, beginning the program with, The Church's One Foundation, and ending it with, Love Divine. The choir also sang several anthems, among them, One World, Glorious Is Thy Name and I Am Alpha and Omega. Mr. Hall and the choir demonstrated how they practice an anthem for a church service and this proved very interesting. The anthem chosen for this purpose was, The Sun Shall Be No More Thy Light By Day.

Solos as Well
 The choir sang one secular number also, Bendemere's Stream. Two very fine solos were included in the program. In honor of her father, James Warry, who is a resident at the Manor, Mrs. Hall sang, Happiness. Edward Johnson sang, Mother O' Mine. Both solos were enjoyed very much. The visitors had provided many tasty and attractive confections for a social hour and at the close of the program, these were served with tea and coffee as a delicious lunch. By this means, the ladies and gentlemen of this first organization ever to come to the Manor from Hamilton had the opportunity to mingle with the residents and become acquainted with them. Many wishes were heard on all sides that the residents would be entertained again by the choir and by Mr. and Mrs. Hall in the near future.

Car Crashes Rock Embankment Hospitalize 2 Oakville Youths

Two Oakville youths were hospitalized and their 1950 car was completely wrecked early Saturday morning when the car crashed into an embankment on Highway 25 near Speyside, throwing out the driver and passenger.

Driver William Whitaker, 20, of 47 Wilson St., Oakville was taken to Milton District Hospital with a fractured neck, broken bone in the left foot, and lacerations and abrasions to the skull. He was transferred Tuesday evening to a Hamilton hospital. His passenger Murray Tuck, 21, of 50 Hawthorne Drive, Oakville, received a fractured left ankle, sprained right ankle and bruised back. He is still in Milton hospital.

Mother Molds Child Says Pediatrician

According to Dr. Murray McGovern, mother is about 80 per cent responsible in developing the characteristics of a child. She has more jurisdiction and more influence in making that child into an adult than father, social life, relations, school and church, the Oakville doctor told a gathering of 35 ladies at Holy Rosary Church on Sunday afternoon.

Constable Carmen Wright of North Halton O.P.P. investigated. Witnesses reported the car entered the west ditch as it rounded a curve just south of Speyside corner around 1:20 a.m. Saturday. It struck a rock bank and flipped over, landing on its wheels.

 The Young People's Union met at the home of Joanne McArthur Sunday evening, with the president Jeanette Peer presiding. The business period was held first. The Young People's Union is invited to Freelon Baptist Church this weekend for the opening of the new auditorium. The speaker is Dr. Jack Scott from Toronto and there will be various musical numbers. Next week the Young People's Union is going to Prudhomme's Garden Centre for a party. They will enjoy swimming and bowling.

Play Critique
 For the program, the young people put on the play that they are doing in the Drama Festival, so the rest of the young people could criticize it. The worship service was started by Jeanette Peer giving the Call to Worship and Marilyn Langton read the scripture. Jeanette Peer read a poem called Comrade Jesus. Marilyn Langton led in prayer. There were 18 young people present at the meeting. After the worship service the group enjoyed a delicious lunch. Meg Gudgeon thanked the hostess and her mother for the evening. The next meeting is at the home of Jeanette Peer where Bible Study will be held.

Scout Trips
 The local scouts are taking advantage of the spring weather to do some overnight camping trips. They are covering quite a few miles across country with their packs on their backs and their compasses in their hands. We welcome to our community Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Anderson and family. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are running the Lowville store, selling groceries, dry goods and sundries. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have four boys ranging in age from 5 to 17. They hail from Manitoba where they were farmers and most recently from Stoney Creek. They attend the local United Church. We also welcome Russ McCharles who has returned to our community with his wife and family. They are living in the 'old parsonage'. We are sorry to hear that Elva May Readman, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Readman, is a patient in Milton District Hospital.
