Judith Hvedehave Weds In St. Stephen's, Hornby

Judith Florence Hvedehave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. Walter Hvedehave of R.R. 4, Georgetown, was married to Corey Ronald Freeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Freeman, R.R. 2, Brampton, at St. Stephen's Church, Hornby, on July 15.

Rev. J. E. Maxwell officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with Madonna Lilies and Pink Lythium. The church was decorated in tall standards of assorted varieties of blue Delphiniums and Madonna Lilies. White bows were tied on the pews.

Organist Mrs. F. A. Bye of R. R. 2, Norval, played "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" and "O Perfect Love".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an ivory slipper satin gown with short sleeves, low cut neckline with appliqued alencon lace.

The tight bodice was buttoned from the neckline to below the waist with tiny satin buttons and loops. The full gathered skirt fell to a chapel train with a panel front. Her below-shoulder length ivory tulle veil was caught to an ivory satin crown with appliqued alencon lace to match her gown.

Short lace gloves and shoes to match the gown completed the ensemble which was highlighted by a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of ivory and red roses.

Maid of honor Mary Kollar of R. R. 1, Inglewood and bridesmaid Clarelle Hughes of Islington, cousin of the bride, wore matching street length dresses of lilac silk organza over peau de soie with matching bows at waist and bell shaped skirts.

They wore bow hats of silk organza and peau de soie. Their cascade bouquets combined white and lilac shasta mums.

The best man was Douglas Copeland of Acton and the usher was Reginald Freeman of R. R. 2, Brampton. They wore charcoal grey suits with a boutonniere of a white carnation.

The mother of the bride received guests outside the church wearing an ensemble of lilac silk organza with floral cotton sateen with white and lilac accessories. She wore a corsage of pink rosebuds and carnations.

The bridegroom's mother assisted in a sheath dress of beige lace lined with matching silk. She wore lilac and beige accessories and a corsage of mauve roses.

Decorated with a candelabrum of mauve candles, bride's and bridesmaid's bouquets and sweet peas, the bride's table was the centre of attraction at the supper arranged in the church hall by St. Stephen's Guild.

A three-tiered wedding cake baked by the mother of the bride was the centrepiece.

Guests' tables were lit with mauve candles surrounded with sweet peas and snapdragons.

Honeymoon in North
Following the reception, the wedding party and guests returned to the home of the bride where the couple left for their honeymoon trip to the Muskoka and Lake of Bays district.

The bride travelled in a powder blue sheath and short jacket made of brocade silk with blue and white accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

On their return, the couple will live in Brampton.

Out of town guests were from New Liskeard, Chatham, Waubashene, Willowdale, Islington, Etobicoke, Mimico, Toronto, Brampton, Acton, Norval, Mount Forest, Balaclava, Terra Cotta and Georgetown.

Prior to the wedding, the bride was entertained at a miscellaneous shower at Terra Cotta Community Hall on June 22. It was given by the maid of honor and Mrs. Carmen Freeman.

Kitchen Shower

The girls on the office staff of American Sterilizer Company, Brampton, gave her a kitchen shower on July 4 at the home of Mrs. Harry Wilcox, Brampton. The same evening she was presented with an Heirloom bedspread, a wedding gift from the employees of the same firm at which she was a former employee.

After the rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Copeland of Acton entertained the bridal party, parents of the bride and bride-

River Pollution Forces Willow Park to Close

Willow Park picnic grounds at Norval was closed Sunday afternoon for the first time during the summer season in 20 years.

"I may never open it to the public again," said owner W. H. Louth. "I have fought a losing battle against river pollution for four years. A vast volume of untreated, raw sewage is flowing past my property constantly."

"Every government official I have spoken to has given me the run around or passed the buck.

"I had to turn away 40 carloads of people Sunday, so I decided this is the end."

Mr. Louth then painted a sign reading "Closed because of Georgetown sewage" and placed it at the entrance to Willow Park.
