KILBRIDE
Character of Youth is Topic Of Young People's Discussion

By Mrs. William Watson
The first meeting of Kilbride young people's union was held on Wednesday night at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Wilkinson at Carlisle. The meeting opened by singing "Lord I want to be a Christian" and Bless This House. John Hepburn conducted the devotional and Art Robertson led in prayer. Following the prayer, What a Friend We have in Jesus was sung.

A discussion was held on why you come to young people's. Following the discussion Mrs. Wilkinson led in a sing song. Each member answered the roll call by saying how they could improve the meetings. The next meeting will be held in the Sunday school in two weeks. Pat Sumstrom and Bill Jackson are in charge of the devotional, Lois Robertson in charge of games, Ann Odorico and Brenda Twiss are in charge of the lunch. Movie pictures will be shown at the next meeting. Anyone 14 or over is eligible to join.

Mrs. Wilkinson led in a discussion of characteristics of good people. Meeting closed with the Mizpah. Games were played and a lovely lunch was served by the hostess.

W.M.S. Study Book
The W.M.S. held their September meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hollingsworth with eight members present on Thursday afternoon. The president Mrs. Joseph Henry was in charge. Mrs. Matt Howard conducted the devotional and led in prayer. Hymn, Bless Be the Tie that Binds, was sung. Mrs. H. R. McDonald read out of the study book. Mrs. Leslie Willsher gave a reading.

The next committee is Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Kelly Sharp. Each person read a verse of the hymn, Oh Save to the Rock that is Higher than I. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Howard.

See Plastics
A plastic demonstration was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert McMullen, Cedar Springs Road with nine ladies present.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marton on the birth of their daughter, September 17 at the Milton District Hospital.

Roy and Joan were presented with a studio couch and two table lamps and many lovely gifts. They expressed their sincere thanks to everyone, then lunch was served and music for dancing was supplied by the Currie Orchestra.

Anna, Chosen Woman of Bible For Knox Evening Auxiliary

Knox Church Evening Auxiliary held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. G. Carruthers with the president Mrs. G. M. Robinson in charge. Mrs. Robinson greeted all as the fall work commences and read as an opening thought an appropriate Harvest poem. All joined in singing Hymn 692 "Sing to the Lord of Harvest", after which the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. The roll call was answered by a Harvest verse.

The secretary's report was given by Mrs. George Newell. The correspondence on hand was discussed and it was decided that the auxiliary would again handle the sale of church calendars. Mrs. D. P. Gildea presented the treasurer's report and Miss G. Holmes gave the expense fund report.

Stand Up Under Stress
The devotional part of the meeting was taken by Mrs. K. Marshall and opened with the singing of the Hymn, "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind". The devotions were based on the 91st psalm and followed by a fine commentary on "How to Stand Up Under Stress". Mrs. Marshall concluded with prayer, and all joined in singing, "Saviour, Breathe an Evening Blessing".

The study book was in charge of Mrs. H. Magee and program three was the topic — "Together We Minister to Human Need". This portion covered, "Ministry to Refugees". One poignant thought left was — "Some have described" "World Refugee year" as the "year of the Last Hope" for 2,000,000 uprooted, homeless people who are still refugees, 14 years after World War II.

Student work was discussed in many lands and how the church can help.

Mrs. Magee chose as her woman of the Bible "Anna" and used the scripture from Luke 2 verses 36 to 38 to bring the image of Anna before the members.

Mrs. Magee presented a very fine picture of the devoted Anna. The meeting closed by all singing the lovely harvest hymn "Come 'Ye Thankful People Come" and the Mizpah benediction.

During the social time that followed in charge of Mrs. G. Carruthers and Mrs. D. P. Gildea, a presentation was made to member Miss G. Holmes, who is being married in the near future.

Knox Presbyterian Church held its annual rally day service Sept. 17. Rev. J. K. L. McGown addressed a joint assembly of the congregation and the Church School. A similar rally day is held at most Presbyterian churches across Canada one Sunday of this month.

Rev. McGown's address followed scripture readings by M. S. Kernighan and R. Mackay, the offering and offertory prayer, led by C. S. Lockie, and several hymns. Rev. McGown used visual aids to hold the interest of the children and to explain certain points. He emphasized the need for proper usage of the Bible as a guide throughout life. This year is the 350th anniversary of the King James version of the Bible.
