Mr. and Mrs. Peter Forbes of Van Kleef Hill, Ont, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McFadden.

Our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Don Foster, on the arrival of their son recently, another grandson for Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Campbell.

HALTON MANOR

Movie Night Starts Winter Season
See Films on Railroads, Ireland

The first "movie" night in the new fall and winter season of entertainment at the Manor was held in the auditorium on Friday evening, October 20th. Using the Manor's own projector, Mr. S. Allen, the Superintendent, showed three motion picture films, two of which were in colour and one in black and white.

The first film, "Railroaders", was in black and white and was an interesting description of the work done by the dispatchers and maintenance crews on the Canadian Pacific railway in the heart of the mountains in western Canada. The stretch of track chosen for this film was that on which the town of Revelstoke is situated.

See Ireland
The second film, "Ireland, Land of Welcome", showed, in colour, the beauty spots of the Emerald Isle as seen from the windows of a motor coach on a tour arranged by Ireland's Transport Company. Starting at Dublin the coach made a complete circuit of Ireland, stopping at such famous beauty spots as Blarney Castle, where a tourist was shown kissing the Blarney Stone, Killarney, Galway Bay, the Hills of Donegal and several

14 Meet to Study Philemon

By Mrs. Ishbel Coulson

Lowville United Church has started the midweek Bible study group. The purpose of this well-known group is to know what is between the two covers, namely the names of the books, the authors, and what it holds for people. The first meeting was held Thursday evening in the church with 14 people present. They studied the book of Philemon.

Lowville Young People's Union attended a coaching school at

Summer Homework; Girl Reads
40 Books in 10 Week Holiday

By Mrs. A. Ball
The North Trafalgar Community Club, held a successful euchre in the Percy W. Merry School on Tuesday evening last week. Seventeen tables were in play.

The prize winners were, ladies: first, Mrs. A. Ball; second, Mrs. G. Past; third, Mrs. M. Williamson; men's: first, Will Leslie; second, Mel Dalby; third, Allan Ross. A lunch of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served by the group in charge. Another euchre will be held November 28.

98% Attendance
Open house was held at the Percy Merry School Monday of last week. Ninety-eight per cent of the parents turned out to pick up the children's progress reports and had a short discussion with the teachers.

Belated birthday greetings to Ross Fuller, Tommy Sweetman, Maureen Sweetman and Danica Wood, who had birthdays this past week. Among these celebrating this week are, Louise Pickett and Marlene Ball.

School Auditorium
The Grade 8 students of Percy Merry school, presented their assembly in the school auditorium on Friday morning. Grant Williamson was M.C. for the program which opened with the singing of O'Canada.

Several of the boys presented a tumbling act, the girls presented a Hallowe'en skit and six girls ranced the Charleston. Piano solos were presented by Wilma Mason and Susan Cramp.

Reading awards were given out by the Home and School Association with Mrs. J. Williamson making the presentations. These were given to students who had read over 10 or 15 books according to grades. Ellen Van de Pal was the only one who had read over 40 books during the summer.

Several from the community attended the Fun Fair at Snider's Public school on Saturday and reported a very successful afternoon.

Recent U.S. visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Williamson were the latter's sister, Mrs. Gladys Colby and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lenhart.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leslie, who will celebrate their wedding anniversary November 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fuller have

Business Men Conduct
Sunday, October 29th being the fifth Sunday in the month, the service in the Chapel was conducted under the auspices of the Christian Business men's Committee of Oakville. Garfield Browne led the singing and Mrs. Browne played the organ. Mrs. Olson, also of Oakville, sang and played her violin in two fine solos, O What Love and We Shall See His Lovely Face. George McAllister offered prayer and Stan Wright read the scripture lesson which was St. Luke, Chapter 2, verses 41 - 48.

Mr. Sheridan of Oakville, who is a very fluent speaker, delivered a very inspiring sermon based on the incident of Christ's meeting with the doctors in the Temple when he was twelve years of age. Mr. Sheridan developed some very striking comparisons between the events recorded in this portion of scripture and the actions of our own lives.

Vocal Recital
After the church service on Sunday afternoon, October 29th, the residents enjoyed a vocal recital in the auditorium, a recital that displayed the musical talents of three gentlemen, Leslie K. Withell, who is the organist at St. Luke's Anglican Church in Burlington, D. Barrington and Bert Buckenham. Mr. Withell announced the program and played the piano accompaniments for the songs sung by Mr. Barrington and Mr. Buckenham.

The program was presented in two parts and in each part each soloist sang a group of three songs. Mr. Barrington, who is a tenor, sang, among others, Linden Lea and three songs from Shakespeare's plays, Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind, It Was a Lover and His Lass and Where the Bee Sucks. Mr. Buckenham, whose voice is a true bass voice, chose, among others, a prayer from Mozart's opera The Magic Flute, which he sang in German, Tom of Devon, Glorious Devon and Bless This House. The two vocalists also sang two duets, Come to the Fair, It's Quiet Down Here.

Breaks Back
While picking apples on the farm of his daughter-in-law Bernice Coulson fell from a ladder. He is now in Milton District Hospital with a broken back.

Mrs. George Coulson has been a patient in the Joseph Brant Memorial Hospital. Keith Coulson Jr. is a patient in Milton District Hospital. Dale Coulson is a patient in Milton District Hospital also.

Gives Readings
Between the two parts of the program Mr. Withell read Wordsworth's poem Daffodils with beautiful expression and at the end of the program he read a very reverent prayer.

The entire program was a very enjoyable one and the talents of the three gentlemen who presented it were greatly admired.
