Forum Hears Conservation Speaker
Students Enjoy Regular Hot Dog Day

By Mrs. William Watson
Dave Murray, representative of the 12 Mile Creek Conservation Authority addressed the May meeting of the Upper Burlington Citizens' Forum Wednesday evening in Kilbride school. He spoke of the Authority's tree planting project and the 4-H forestry club they sponsor for children from 12 to 17 years of age. Mr. Murray also outlined the many projects, plans and problems they have in our area. The members left the meeting well informed on conservation.

The children at Kilbride School enjoyed a hot dog day on Thursday. It was convoked by Mrs. Robert Reid assisted by Mrs. Fred Grant, Mrs. Harold Jackson, Mrs. Allie Sunstrum, Mrs. Bert Tricker and Mrs. Walter Wilson.

U.C.W. Gives Life Membership
Honoring Mrs. Hunt's Service

By Mrs. Roy Coulter
A presentation was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Spring-er by the two communities of the Lowville United and the St. George's Anglican Churches in the Sunday School room of St. George's Church. After a social time together, a lovely davenport was presented to the newlyweds. Mrs. Vernon McArthur read the address which was replied to by the young couple. The ladies served a delicious lunch.
Mrs. Ishbel Coulson spent the past week in New York City visiting Rev. and Mrs. George Almack, former minister of Carlisle.

May 16-17, and from Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church on June 7th. A letter of thanks was received from the Fred Victor Mission in Toronto expressing their thanks for goods received and giving information on the work done by that institution. Mrs. Holmes announced that the special U.C.W. Sunday Services would be held on May 27, with Miss A. Harrison, Dean of Residence at the United Church Training School as guest speaker.

Forum Members Hear About Conservation

Dave Murray, Conservation Officer for the 12-Mile, 16-Mile and Spencer Creeks, was guest speaker at the April meeting of the Upper Burlington Citizens' Forum Wednesday of last week. Mr. Murray told the Forum of various conservation projects on the three creeks.
Ross Robinson, vice-president, presided in the absence of president Craig Reid. Close to 50 members attended the meeting and following refreshments.

Life Membership
The highlight of the program was the presentation of a life member's pin and certificate to Mrs. Hunt in appreciation for faithful service in the women's groups of the church. Mrs. Hunt very graciously voiced her thanks and appreciation. Mrs. Melford Colling had charge of the worship program, assisted by Mrs. N. Gunn and Mrs. Roy Coulter. Mrs. George Colling gave the study book. Mrs. S. T. Coulson acted as courtesy convener.
L. W. Coulson and A. R. Coulter attended the annual meeting of the Canadian Red Poll Cattle Association at Hotel Kitchener in Regina, Sask. over the weekend.

G. A. Dills,
Milton, Ontario.

Dear Sir:
Enclosed find money order to renew my subscription to The Champion. I would not want to be without it. Although very few old familiar names appear now in its columns, I still read it with interest, and it is always first to be opened, when the mail comes. The pictures of Milton and the surrounding country give one an idea (and a small one at that) of the changes that have occurred in the last 50 years. It is over 50 years since I saw Milton and needless to say I would not know it now.

Our spring is cold and wet — very few warm days yet. We had a bad storm of heavy rain and a high wind last Friday which did considerable damage. There was a fall of snow on the mountains last week, also snow in some places in the Fraser Valley. The wind is still cold today after an all day "Downpour" yesterday, day.

Eight local boating enthusiasts have successfully passed the Milton Safety Council's first safe boating course. Classes were conducted four evenings at the Martin St. high school, by Safety Council lecturers. Another course is contemplated, and the executive is hoping for more registrations.

Now I will close with best wishes for continued success to The Champion.

I remain yours sincerely,
