

St. Stephen's Harvest Service Begins 125th Anniversary

By Mrs. Edward Robertson
Archdeacon S. A. Kirk of Guelph preached the sermon at the annual Harvest Service at St. Stephen's Anglican Church on Sunday morning with the Rev. J. E. Maxwell. The church had been decorated with fruit, grains, vegetables and flowers. The Junior Farmer Quartet sang two anthems.

This special Thanksgiving service was the beginning of a six week celebration of the 125th anniversary of St. Stephen's Anglican church.

Get well wishes are extended to Frank Chisholm who is a patient in the Milton District Hospital.

Champions
Congratulations to the Hornby Ball Club who won the cup, when they defeated Sheldon last Wednesday night at Hornby with a score of 4-0 in the Ontario Rural S.A. Intermediate "C" Championship.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Howden and family were at the plowing match on Saturday and spent the weekend at Owen Sound.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffman on the death of William Anderson in Georgetown on October 9.

Best wishes to Charles Brooks who celebrated his 84th birthday on October 15.

Anniversaries
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Hall on October 13, their wedding anniversary, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross on their wedding anniversary on October 20 and to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ella who will be married 21 years on October 22.

Douglas Newton went by plane to California for a two week visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newton Jr.

Warm Appreciation
The number of scrubbed and smiling faces in green uniforms selling Apple Day tags and giving apples in return on Saturday indicates the growth of this area. As well as the pack started first in Hornby, groups have now been added in Drumquin, which also has Guides and Brownies and Scouting has now been organized in Ashgrove. The warm reception and support given to these youngsters is very much appreciated.

P. R. Theme
Public Relations was the theme of the October meeting of the Hornby Women's Institute held at the home of the convener, Mrs. M. J. Brown. The roll call "A suggestion for better public relations" was answered by the 10 members and one visitor present. Two poems entitled "What to be Thankful For" and "How Fortunate We Are," were read by Mrs. Brown. She also gave a report of the directors' meeting. Mrs. A. Death gave a most interesting account of the CBC conference "The Real World of Women," which she had attended.

A contest entitled "A trip around Halton County," was won by Mrs. R. Wilson. Mrs. McCarron was in charge of the business part of the meeting. Some final arrangements were made for the November meeting to be held at the Centennial Manor.

The ladies accepted the offer to have the booth and lunches at the plowing match. Mrs. McCarron will be delegate to the area convention in Guelph.
