Guide Company Enrolls New Members Sunday School Honors Former Teacher

By Mrs. William Watson
About 20 parents and friends attended the first Kilbride Girl Guide company enrolment and badge presentation ceremonies Monday evening in the Kilbride school auditorium.
Division Commissioner Mrs. Hurst and District Commissioner Mrs. Gibson attended this special occasion to present the following badges — Pioneer to Ann Odorico, Homemaker and needle woman to Lois Coulson, Homemaker, needle woman, little house emblem and hiker to Gail Ferrier, Georgina Hardsand received her rabbit keeper badge, the first one of its kind to be presented by Mrs. Gibson in the district.
The seven girls enrolled as guides were Bonnie Harbottle, Colleen Stein, Kathy Taylor, Sandra Coulson, Jo-Ann Brading, Margaret Systma and Judy Dalton, making a company of twenty-seven girls.

Enroll Mothers
Seven mothers were also enrolled as guide mothers. They are Mrs. Ross Harbottle, Mrs. C. A. Stein, Mrs. Gordon Taylor, Mrs. Russell Coulson, Mrs. Wally Brading, Mrs. Henry Systma and Mrs. Gordon Dalton.
The commissioners complimented the guide company on their appearance and on being one of the most active guide companies in the district.
After the presentations the four patrols each presented a short play which was enjoyed by all.
The evening was concluded with camp fire. Lunch was served by Linda Allison, Sheila Rousell, Lois Coulson, Peggy Ann Smith and Georgina Hardsand who are working for their hostess badges. Others assisting were Ann Odorico, Lorraine Willsher and Gail Ferrier.

Conveners for the evening were Mrs. Joseph Odorico and Mrs. Bill Allison, assisted by Mrs. Harold Jackson.

Honor S.S. Teacher
On Friday evening about 50 attended a Sunday school class reunion dinner with teacher Mrs. Annie Peer who taught Sunday school at Kilbride United church for several years.

Mrs. Elmer Heatherington presented a corsage to Mrs. Peer for her many years of service and also to Mrs. George Pegg and Mrs. Marion Cartwright for their years of service as temperance missionary secretaries.

Special guests at the head table were Mrs. Peer, Mrs. Pegg, Mrs. Cartwright, Mrs. Heatherington and Mrs. Eric McArthur. A toast to the church was proposed by Mrs. Cartwright. Mrs. McDonald of Mount Hope proposed a toast to Mrs. Peer, to which Mrs. Peer responded. Mrs. Peer then proposed a toast to the girls and Mrs. Laura Dickinson of Elora replied.

Mrs. McArthur read letters from classmates who sent greetings but were unable to attend. Mrs. Laura Dixon and Mrs. Anna Cairns of Milton entertained with several musical numbers.

Each classmate answered roll call by giving their maiden name, married name and how many of a family each one had. Mrs. Nancy Ramshaw and Mrs. Helen Malstrom of Lowville then sang a duet.

Mrs. Heatherington made a presentation speech and Mrs. McArthur presented Mrs. Peer with a lovely brooch from the girls. Old hymns were sung with Mrs. Zelma Coverdale at the piano. Guests were present from Toronto, Elora, Willowdale, Mount Hope, Hamilton, Milton, Grimsby, Campbellville, Aldershot, Waterdown, Burlington, Lowville, Carlisle, and Kilbride.

The dinner was catered to by the United Church Women.

Y.P.U. Plans
Kilbride Young People's Union met Wednesday evening in the Sunday School room with nine present. Ann Odorico presided and conducted the devotional assisted by Gloria Warner. Plans were made for the coming Christmas dance.

Kilbride home and school association will meet Tuesday evening, November 20. Guest speaker for the evening will be D. E. Kennedy, superintendent of the Ontario School for the Deaf, Milton.

A landmark has been removed from the corner of Kilbride Street and Cedar Springs Road.

The building was built in 1940 by the late William Mitchell and used as a service station and pool room until November 1962. A new service station has been erected to take its place.
