Rebekah Lodge caught the Junior Firefighters still asleep in the 7:00 o'clock early bird game, and draped a 3-0 blanket over them. Richard Murray netted a brace with the help of Don Leslie, Bob Bradbury, and Phillip Colten. Craig Smith set up Jim McDonald for the other score. The highlight of the game was the way Raymond May turned aside all the Firemen sorties, gaining his fourth consecutive shutout.

Spotting Little Pontiacs a first period goal by John Hopkin at the 35 second mark, Crest Hardware roared back to a 3-1 victory. A Stefan Deslaurier, Jim Robertson to Ross Alcock combination tied the score, followed by two nifty goals off the stick of hardworking John Sproat, assisted by Glenn Surbey and David Heipel.

Ray Tonelli potted two late game pucks with the help of Bob Henry, Alf Volpe, and Ross McGee as Fay Plumbing subdued McCuaig Insurance 3-2. Bob Coulter and Don Fay made the play for Volpe's first frame score. Jack Durante passed to Alan Lewis for one McCuaig marker, and John Crisci banged in a rebound from Pete McCuaig for the other.

Perry converted a Paul Hutchinson relay for the other. R. Holmes rapped in a Neil Robertson rebound for the Fueler's tally.

Dick Clement spearheaded the Industrial Catering attack, setting up Dave French for the opening marker, and then firing the next three to give Caterers a close 4-3 decision over Canadian Tire Corporation. In the last period, the Tiremen fought back twice to deadlock the issue, as a Duncan, Gardhouse to Wells relay plus a Ford to Lawrence combination produced a 2-2 tie, and a Jerry Duncan shot at 19:28 knotted the count at 3-2. However Clement's bomb at 19:45 climaxed the thrilling finish.

Sport and Cycle made it two in a row, as they decimated Knight's Men's Wear 5-4. Goals by Jim Bates and Bob Newell from Rupert Coffin knotted the first period score, but the Rebels took command as Terry Barber and Maurice Miljour combined for a tally apiece and Bob Mairs set up Coffin for a counter.
