MEN AND MACHINERY have moved into town to work on the Canadian National Railways' new by-pass route around the west and north sides of Milton, and huge earth-scrappers and bulldozers are daily moving hundreds of tons of earth in preparation for the construction of the high embankment. Telephone, hydro and gas crews are also re-routing lines to make way for the railway line. Above, machines tear up the ground at the proposed overpass at Highway 25.

New Democrats Approve Convention Resolutions

Milton Area New Democratic Party held their annual membership meeting at the Union Hall on Tuesday, May 14.

Murray Kernighan, president, outlined progress made in Halton with the formation of a Women's Group in Georgetown and Burlington, and plans for similar groups in Milton, Acton and Oakville. Plans for a Halton New Democratic picnic have also been made and final details will be completed next week.

Guest speaker for the evening was William (Bill) Gillies, New Democratic candidate in the provincial election. Mr. Gillies referred briefly to the recent federal election and pointed out the party had gained in popular vote, and that it was more of an achievement to make gains when swimming upstream, than when sailing downstream with all odds in favor.

Several resolutions were forwarded by the local group for consideration at the Federal convention which will be held on August 5 - 10 at Regina, Saskatchewan.

OVER 70 CAUSES

When you see a backward child — one who is decidedly mentally retarded — do you wonder how it happened. There are more than 70 causes of mental retardation — an accident of nature, birth injury, or a fever in infancy can damage the brain. And the mentally retarded child can be born to any family, rich or poor, regardless of race or class. These families and these children need help. Help your local association for retarded children to provide it. Support the work of the North Halton Association for Retarded Children.

C. W. Tapley of Clarkson was also aided by a member of the Coachmen Car Club, Stephen French. He writes, "my car ran out of gas on the highway and Stephen drove me to a service station for gas and also took me back to my car and stayed with me until I had my car running. Please extend my gratitude to which the Legion branches give to small towns and villages in providing parks, swimming pools, sport fields, playgrounds, and homes for the aged, as well as assisting their own distressed members.

In a thousand and one different ways branches of the Royal Canadian Legion of Ontario, are exemplifying the Golden Rule in their day to day operations as an integral part of their own community.

They are showing greater interest in the future well-being of youth, that younger generation who will be tomorrow's adults. It is surely a healthful trend in the right direction and in keeping with the Legion's motto of service — Service not for self but Service for others.
