Brookville-Campbellville Combine 125 at Graduation Banquet Tuesday

By Mrs. George Inglis
About 125 grade eight students, parents and staff of Brookville and Campbellville public schools attended a graduation banquet on Tuesday evening at Brookville. The program folder was headed, "We learn today, serve tomorrow."

Toastmistress was Wendy Bryan who presided over the following program; grace, John Traas; introduction of head table guests, Reid Frank; choir numbers, grade eight students; introduction of guest speaker, Ralph Nellis; guest speaker, O. G. McDowell, B.A., inspector of public schools, Halton Inspectorate No. 1.

Mr. McDowell stated pupils need ability, willingness and education to be successful in life. School trains you to think, he said, and spelling and writing are the tools to work with. Roderick MacLean expressed the group's appreciation.

First Time
Campbellville public school joined with Brookville for the first time, presented a safety dialogue with Susan Commons, Lucyanne Jeffares, and William Dennis taking part. John Croft entertained with musical numbers. Lynn Johnson gave the toast to the parents, with response by A. Frank. Joan O'Gorman gave a toast to the teachers, replied by L. Duffield, who advised, be quick to listen, be slow to think, and slow to anger. Toast to the school board was by Lucyanne Jeffares, and response by J. R. McPhail, chairman of the board. Appreciation to Nassagaweya Presbyterian Ladies Aid, the caterers, was given by Heather Baker.

James Watson, principal of the Campbellville school, remarked "we are living in a world of changing ways." He gave the favorite sayings of the grade eight pupils. Kenneth Trowbridge, principal of Brookville, remarked our human rights in life are valuable — how do we use them? "Let us put our best personal manner into our future," he suggested.

Mrs. Tom Manes was pianist and the historical evening came to a close with Auld Lang Syne.

In Hospital
Friends of Elmer Dredge will be sorry to hear he is in Guelph General Hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Conrad Toletzka, R.R. 2, Campbellville, who passed away at Milton District Hospital this week.

June Meeting
The June meeting of the Campbellville Women's Auxiliary Baseball Club was held at the home of Mrs. John Wheelihan. Mrs. Lennard Andrews opened the meeting. Mrs. Douglas Agnew gave the secretary's report and Mrs. Wheelihan gave the financial report.

The president commented on the work accomplished on the booth since the May meeting, and it was noted there was now a light switch and two additional outlets, new eavestroughs and downspouts, a new door had

Honor Minister, Wife At Farewell Gathering

By Mrs. G. Pelletier
The congregations of Zimmerman and Lowville United churches held a presentation at Lowville on Monday night in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Holmes. They were presented with a purse and wallet containing money. Mr. Cornell was master of ceremonies for the evening and S. Porch made the presentation.

Visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Patterson were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davies and family of Guelph, Mrs. William Davies and Megan of Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cripps and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Patterson.

Dedicate Chancel Screens
A dedication service was held on Sunday at St. Luke's Anglican church. The chancel screens were dedicated in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rivaz, placed in the church by their family. Two burials and veils, used at Holy Communion, and a book marker, were dedicated in memory of Mr. William Davis and his son Leonard and were given by their family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tansley Barnes and Bruce attended the Pickett reunion at Hornby Park on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitley and sons of Burlington were dinner guests on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. Oates and family. Miss Sharon Howard of Harpers Corners spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McFadden.

Visitors on the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. S. McFadden were Dr. and Mrs. Doug Ford and family of King City and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott of Oshawa spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McFadden and accompanied them to the anniversary service at Boston church. Mrs. Scott's father was a former minister of Boston church many years ago.

The U.C.W. of Zimmerman church anniversary service was held on Sunday of last week. Mrs. Ross of Stoney Creek was the guest speaker and the junior choir of Kilbride United church supplied special music for the occasion.

Visitors Inspect Hornby Area Farm

The Spencer Wilson farm located near Hornby, has welcomed Junior Farmer Delegate Geoff Edgerton from Australia, and kindergarten pupils of the Howard Wrigglesworth school, Georgetown, recently.

Mr. Edgerton visited the Wilson farm for a week as part of his three month stay in Ontario. Previously he had visited at the farm of Ed Segsworth in Burlington.

Fifty-six kindergarten students were fascinated by the workings of the farm and especially enjoyed watching Mr. Wilson milk two Holsteins, with electric milkers.

ST. GEORGE'S Hold Annual Picnic Good Attendance

By Mrs. H. Richardson
On Friday evening, June 21 St. George's Church, Lowville, held their annual picnic in Lowville park. There was a good attendance and after the races were run all enjoyed a bountiful picnic supper, topped off with milk and ice cream.

On Sunday, June 23, Rt. Rev. C. R. H. Wilkinson, D.D., assistant Bishop of Niagara was the celebrant and preacher at St. George's Church. The choir rendered an anthem and there was a large congregation.

MR. NOT MRS.
In a list of Fallingbrook residents' association officers in last week's Champion, it should have read — MR. — L. Gould-Corney, not Mrs. Gould-Corney.

Christen Son

James, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Powell, was christened at Zimmerman church on Sunday.

Mrs. G. Sinclair, Mrs. L. Shepherd, Mrs. H. Dawson and Mrs. A. Patterson accompanied the ladies of Nelson church on a bus trip last Tuesday. They visited spots of interest in Kitchener, Waterloo and Guelph, the Burns meat plant and Pioneer Village.

Sunday Visits
Visitors on Sunday with the Pelletier family were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pelletier and family of Applewood Heights, and Deane Gerrard and Keith De Moie of Etobicoke.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pelletier and family were dinner guests on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Brock Harris and family. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Doug Morden on the arrival of their baby daughter on Tuesday evening.

Percy Merry Graduates Honored 85 Attend Graduation Banquet

By Mrs. A. Ball
The fifth annual grade eight graduation banquet was held in the Percy W. Merry School on Friday evening. The 85 attending included members of the staff, guests, pupils and parents.

Allan Kiernan, class president, was chairman for the evening. A toast to the Queen was proposed by Larry Rutledge. Grace was said by Brenda Bradley. Following the dinner, which was served by Bethel Church ladies, community singing was led by Shirley Marshall, Myrna Campbell, David Reid and Grant Lee.

Allan Few introduced the head table which included: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. D. Lawrence, T. Hunter, Mrs. P. W. Merry, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bailey, Mrs. Kiernan and Allan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. D. Hancock.

Propose Toasts
A toast to Mr. and Mrs. Merry was proposed by Velma Ball. Teddy Gowland proposed a toast to the parents and Mrs. J. Bradley replied. A toast to the Grade eight class was proposed by T. Hunter and replied to by David Turner. Gail Gowland proposed a toast to the staff and F. Hayward replied.

Denzil Lawrence spoke on behalf of the Board of Education for the Town of Oakville. Mrs. Hancock, the incoming president of the Home and School Association, extended best wishes to the graduating class on behalf of the Home and School.

Appreciations were given by Cheryl Bradley.

Guest Speaker
Diane Johnson introduced the guest speaker Mr. Armstrong, inspector for the Oakville Public Schools. Mr. Armstrong gave a very inspiring talk to the graduating class, taking as his topic "Around the Corner." He explained to the class the four corners of life: Surprise, Disappointment, Work and Success. Kathy Dolby thanked the speaker for his most interesting talk.

Mrs. J. Williamson, retiring president of the Home and School Association, presented Library Crests to Velma Ball and Cheryl Bradley for reading at least 20 books during the year. Mrs. Williamson also presented Perfect Attendance Crests to Ann Hilson, Cheryl Bradley and Velma Ball.

Mrs. Bailey presented the Academic Award for the highest standing to Cheryl Bradley. Mrs. Merry presented the Citizenship Award to David Turner and Allan Few.

Sports Awards were presented by Fred Hayward and Ian Foster to Faye Shapcott, Anita Allan, Ann Hilson, Bruce Allan, Allan Few, Wayne McCullum, Grant Lee and David Turner.

Mr. Robinson, principal, spoke to the class and wished them success in their future years. He also announced that Shirley Marshall was chosen to be recipient of the I.O.D.E. Award given for the greatest improvement during the year.

The very enjoyable and memorable evening was brought to a close with the singing of "O Canada."

Work at Lodge
Misses Lynda Williamson and Jo-Ann Leslie are leaving the end of this week for Puck's Lodge on Fairy Lake near Huntsville where they will be working for the summer.

Mrs. Mover and her five children of Allentown, Pennsylvania are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. Bernardini and family.

Bethel Sunday School and congregational picnic will be held at Hornby Park on Saturday.

After this Sunday there will be no Sunday school at Bethel until September 1.

A number of Drumquin Guides and Brownies attended the rally held at the farm of Mrs. Southcott near Milton on Saturday. The Guides, dressed in cowboy outfits and Brownies, in Indian costumes, paraded in Milton before leaving by bus for the Southcott farm.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tony Saliba on the recent arrival of a baby daughter, a sister for Marilyn, Jimmy and Diane.

Combined Choir
The combined Mother's Day and Father's Day choir sang at the church service at Bethel on Sunday.

PASSENGER HURT
Brian Parson of Toronto, a passenger in a car driven by John D. Gower of Toronto, received an injured back Friday afternoon in a single-car accident on Highway 25 south of Speyside. The car received $1,200 damage, North Halton O.P.P. reported.

—Prepare to give your blood donation at the Legion Hall clinic on June 27. It only takes a few minutes of your time, and the process is harmless.

The devotional was given by Mary Chamberlain. The Scripture reading was the 103 Psalm with the theme being "Bless the Lord O My Soul."

A chapter of the Study Book was given by Doreen Ralph. At the close of the meeting lunch was served by Margaret Fuller and a social time enjoyed.

been installed on the booth, and also a refrigerator was now in use. It was agreed the fireworks display had been an all-round success.

The booth committees for June 14 to 30 will be Mrs. Jack Roberts, Mrs. Walter Hamby, and Mrs. Stanley Henderson, July 1 to 13 committee is Mrs. Brian Essery, Mrs. A. Claremont, and Mrs. Calvin Evans. The sum of $5 was donated to the Red Cross for the school children cleaning up the ball park after the fireworks display. Mrs. Kenneth Moore held a Tupperware party for the benefit of the auxiliary.

It was decided to try to enlarge the membership of the club to include associate members, as the working force is quite small. The auxiliary will welcome the offers of any of the wives and mothers of any player who will be willing to help with the work done for the benefit of the players, on all teams. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Stanley Henderson, July 11 at 8.30 p.m. The president closed the meeting and a social half hour followed.
