Old-Fashioned Days Antiques Displayed by Many Merchants

During the Old-Fashioned Days and Steam Reunion, The Champion compiled a list of antique exhibits displayed by various merchants around town. The staff intended to publish a complete list in last week's issue, but space limitations and the difficulty describing each and every one of the thousands of items on display, made it impossible.

The Champion would like to congratulate the businessmen, however, who did make an effort to participate in Old-Fashioned Days with window displays of general antiques or tools of their trade in the earlier days. They were:

SPOTLIGHT . . . ON TEENS . . .

onizing albums I have ever heard. Dion, whom I have always regarded as one of the best singers in popular music today, has in my estimation never sounded worse.

The album is entitled "Ruby Baby." The title tune, "Ruby Baby" is about the only recognizable number in the whole album. All I can say is that the gentlemen responsible for the production of this album have turned a top notch recording vocalist into a crooner who sounds as though he should have been retired some 20 years ago.

Another worth mentioning is The Shirelles' latest for Scepter Records called "What does a Girl Do?" The record has a lyric and is a ballad type of tune. Though not strong enough for No. 1, it could make the Top 10.

Pick-Hit of the Week
"Blue Bayou" by Roy Orbison.

Who's Bragging?
I have always considered myself as somewhat of a good judge of popular music. As an example of what I mean, a month or so ago, I had the opportunity of hearing Bobby Vinton's present big hit recording for the first time. I only had to hear the record once to know it would be No. 1. I featured it first in my record review and the following week as my pick-hit.

As you well know, the record is No. 1 on all the local stations, but to me, this is no surprise. What does it all lead up to? Well, I figure I have another big one. This time, it's Little Peggy March who has the future No. 1 tune. The record is "Hello Heartache, Goodbye Love" and to show how sure I am of my ability to pick hit records, I will make the following statement — "If this record does not make the No. 1 position on the charts, I will EAT MY HAT." Naturally, I don't wear a hat, but should this record fail to make it, I will buy a hat and as I have already said, I will eat it.

Well, I guess it's up to Peggy now, so let's just sit back a week or two and wait.

Guest Appearance
Little Caesar and the Consuls, whose hit recording of "If" is presently on the popular charts, will be making a special guest appearance this weekend in Oakville. Miss L. Stevenson, owner of the Music Hall record store in Milton, opened her second store last weekend in Oakville. Miss Stevenson reported that she has engaged the group as part of her grand opening ceremonies, and that they will perform at her Oakville store this Saturday afternoon.

Miss Stevenson also reported that she is trying to line up some cars which would enable some of Milton's teens to attend the show.

Elected President
Miss Margaret O'Neill of Milton, a student of Notre Dame Academy in Waterdown, was elected president of the Student Council this past week. Margaret, a grade 12 student, has been attending Notre Dame for three years. She was one of three girls nominated for president and succeeds Miss E. White, last year's president.

Miss Wilberdene Van Grunsven, also of Milton, acted as Margaret's campaign manager during the pre-election period. Margaret, who works at Loblaw's supermarket here in town, was vice-president of the Catholic Youth Organization during the past season.
