Mr. Sherwin spoke of his work as chaplain at the Ontario Reformatory for the past four years. In none of the hundreds of cases, he had interviewed, had the culprit attended church the Sunday before the crime was committed.

Evening Services

The evening sermon was based on II Kings 7: 3-11, "Good News for Bad Times." The four lepers did not keep the good news to themselves in spite of prejudice against them. If they had not shared their discovery, history might have been different. Mr Sherwin spoke of the hymn, "Onward. Christian Soldiers," He said if men in the army gave the excuses for not attending morning drill - "I was there last week, I'm expecting company," etc.

Plans were made for a fall bulb-selling campaign, a food booth at Milton Fair, and attendance of several members at the Fall Council meeting for the Kinsmen district. Roy Downs was named the club's representative on a town steering committee for the 1967 centennial, and Bill Doherty was delegated to the annual meeting of the C.N.-I.B. on the club's behalf. The Kinsmen are planning an intensive drive to increase membership this year. There are presently 21 members.

AN HISTORICAL PLAQUE commemorating the settlement of Puslinch Township and the old Ellis Chapel, was unveiled recently on the chapel grounds in that township in Wellington County. This plaque is one of a series being erected throughout the province by the Department of Travel and Publicity, acting on the advice of the Archaeological and Historic Sites Board of Ontario. Participants in the ceremony shown left of right include: L. S. Frank; Harold Worton; Miss Edith McAllister; Robert Reeve, Chairman, Ellis Chapel Trustee Board; the Rev. Leslie H. Nanson; Mrs. Stewart Hume, President of the Wellington County Historical Research Society; Leslie R. Gray of the province's Historic Sites Board; Mrs. Eleanor (Fife) Brazier; and Hugh Douglass, President, Guelph Historical Society.

A WORKING MODEL of the Kelso Conservation area constructed by Alan Ward of Hamilton, will be on display at the Milton Fair on the weekend. The model is made of plaster of paris and asbestos, and has taken about six weeks to construct. The 20 year old Mr. Ward is a first year student at McMaster University. Shown inspecting the model are conservation office secretaries Pat Hull and Gloria Perusello.
