

SPOTLIGHT ON TEENS

By JIM GILDEA

Who and What

Who am I? What am I? Two simple questions, yet each is difficult to answer. Does it all sound bewildering? It shouldn't. Have you never asked yourself these questions. Have you never given thoughts to who, what and why you are? If not, this might be a good time to do so. Being a teenager, you have reached the stage where you are no longer a child. Now, while you're not yet a fully matured adult, you have reached a point in life where you should know who you are and what you are.

Let's take a minute and examine each. First, who are you? You have a name, you have parents, you're flesh and blood, but does that really tell you who you are? Who are you to your friends? Do they see the real you or do they see an invitation you, a cover-up? Are you one of the countless many who regard themselves as being a little better than others? Do you feel and act superior to a friend because you're a little smarter in school or because your family lives a little better than his? If so, then that's not the real you. If that's how you see yourself, then you don't really know who you are.

Secondly, what are you? It's as simple as 1, 2, 3. Either you are what you should be (namely yourself) or you are nothing. Putting on airs and building yourself up in the eyes of others as something you really aren't and never can be, is sheer foolishness. If you see things in this light then you aren't really what you should be, are you? You know the old saying, "You can fool some of the people some of the time but - - -"

Who are you? What are you? Two interesting questions, wouldn't you say?

The Watchful Eye

The latest RCA Victor released by Little Peggy Marsh called, "Hello, Heartaches, Goodbye Love," is number 27 on the charts this week and is moving steadily. Will it be a hit or a miss?

Guess What?

Yours truly did it again. Yes, as you may have noticed, I fluffed it again.

It seems that last week while deeply engrossed in apologizing for an error two weeks back, I did the same thing again. I must honestly admit it just slipped my mind. I refer to the latest recording by Nedd Miller. What is the title of his latest release. I don't know, somehow I seem to have misplaced my bulletin and now, I can't give you the title.

Oh well, it didn't look to be too interesting a title anyway.

Time Change

Last week I gave you some information in regards to Saturday afternoon television viewing. It seems that as of last Saturday, (Sept. 21) Canadian Bandstand, seen on CKCO-TV Kitchener, has changed time slots. It may now be seen at 4:00 p.m. each Saturday afternoon and not 1:00 p.m. as was previously announced.

45 Record Review

Miss Brenda Lee is back on the turntables again with her latest release for Decca Records called, "Sweet Impossible You." The record has a good sound and is a strong contender for the top 10.

Marie Blane is back with another good one for London Records called, "You Gave My Number To Bill." Not as strong a hit sound as her previous hits, it could catch on.

A new Ray Stevens type tune has just been released by London Records. Recorded by Joe Parkins, this catchy little number is called, "Little Effin Annie." Keep your eyes and ears on this one.

Bobby Rydell has just come back with what could be his biggest in some time. Called, "Forget Him," this record is already going strong in the Toronto area. A few more worth watching are "Cindy's Going to Cry," "Sugar Shack," "Washington Square" and oh yes, "Hello Heartaches, Goodbye Love."

Tips for Teens

When should a teenage girl use make up and how much?

I don't claim to be an expert when it comes to female beauty aids, however I like to see a young lady pretty herself up, no matter what the occasion. There's a difference between looking pretty and looking like a walking Max Factor beauty kit. A Little makeup and a Little lipstick looks fine when it's properly applied. There's no need to go over board. When it comes to eyebrow pencil, eye shadow, half a box of mascara and lips painted half an inch thick, I would just as soon sit at home all night and twiddle my thumbs. On some it may look good, but a great majority of the male species like that plain female look, and not something that looks like it's part of Barnum and Baileys clown corps.

How often should a teenage boy have a hair-cut?

This depends largely on the individual. When you were 10 or 11 you were quite satisfied to make your trips to the barber every four or five weeks. Now however, you have reached a point in life where your personal appearance should mean a great deal to you. Personal appearance is the first impression you make in others.

Unfortunately many teenage boys today feel that $1.25 is just a little too much to have to shell out every two weeks. If this is the case with you, ask this question of yourself does the money mean that much more to you then your personal appearance and the impression you make on others? The girls will appreciate more the young man who takes care of his appearance by keeping himself clean and trim. Besides, that $1.25 will make you look a lot sharper than any $10 sweater.

Youth in Action

North Milton Youth Association held a special meeting on Thursday evening of last week to elect the club's officers for the coming season. Those elected were: Wayne Casson, president; Carlo Marcantonio, vice-president; Jenny Riddell, secretary.

Elected as social committee members were Linda Clarke, Miranda Ferguson, Brian Senicar, Steve Jarvis.

The group held a corn roast on Saturday evening of last week and some 25 members attended. The group enjoyed the evening and danced until midnight. On behalf of the club executives, I pass along their apologies for some apples which somehow found their way into some neighboring back yards. It is hoped that the group's apology will be accepted.

HEAD COACH DARBY tests the stance of his linemen, as Milton High Mustangs get ready for a busy season of football. This year the team will employ two basic offences, the full house and the double winged T. Both offences will be new. Despite a near complete turnover in players, Mr. Darby expects a successful season and noted the club has shown great enthusiasm so far.

Next Week...

Next week I will have some interesting facts and information on one of Canada's presently top vocal groups, Little Caesar and The Consuls, whom I had both the honor and pleasure of interviewing last Saturday.

FOOTBALL KICK-OFF

I shot a pass into the air. It fell to earth, I know not where, And that is why I sit and dream, Upon the bench of the junior team.

High School Highlights

by MARIE McNEIL

Milton Mustangs lost their first game of the season 8-0 to the Oakville - Trafalgar High School squad Thursday. Oakville scored one touchdown and two safeties. Heavy rain and a slippery field kept the game to slip-and-slide ground play. Mustangs, with only four old-timers on the team, may click better in the future when the newcomers settle into their positions.

Although Mustangs lost, Milton's cheering section, fewer in number than Oakville, out-noised the opposition.

Pick Shouters

The mighty Milton Mustangs may have missed the inspiration of the cheerleaders who were not chosen in time for the game. After two weeks of tryouts by 25 girls, eight were chosen: Karen Dredge, captain, Andrea Cumella, Helen Hume, Paula Jacobs, Lois Bird, Doreen Carney, Marg Prince, Lita Austen and Sharon Newell.

Judges in the selection of cheerleaders were Mrs. Stabins Mrs. Brigstocke, Mr. Claremont and Mr. Tom.

Other activities at Milton High centred around athletic organization for the coming year.

Girls' Council

Incoming executives elected for the Girls' Council were Marg Craig, vice-president; Marg Hume, secretary; Virginia Gilbert, treasurer.

Elected for Boys' Council were Neil Devlin, secretary and Eric Phillips, treasurer. Boys' Council president John Switzer said he would like to see an active program of intramural sports with all students participating.

The Council, making preliminary plans for an intramural program, decided to hold a Flag Football tournament for the next two weeks, followed by a two week soccer tournament.

Cross Country Run Fifteen boys began intensive training in cross country running for CWOSSA.

New members were welcomed to the first meeting of the Student Council, September 17, and representatives were informed that the teachers were looking for an active program. A student dance is scheduled for October 4.

HOLY ROSARY NEWS

Three Sisters of the Order of St. Joseph who left for Guatemala this week, visited with the students of the Holy Rosary School, Milton, on Friday. Sister Francis Xavier, Sister Bertille and Sister Marie Garnier, will be the first members of their order to organize a mission in that country.

During their visit at the school the Sisters spoke to the children and explained some of the hardships that the people of Guatemala must face.
