Harvest Festival Services Sunday

By Mrs. J. McCarron

St. Stephen's Anglican Church W.A. met at the home of Mrs. F. Weller on Tuesday evening, September 24 with five members present. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Weller, with the usual service, followed by prayer. Mrs. T. Robertson read the Psalm.

The secretary, Mrs. E. Price, read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved. The year's report was given and this will be read at the Halton Deamery meeting. Mrs. Bradley read a letter received from the Indian school at Moose Fort Factory, where a new bale is sent each year. A discussion on how to promote the sale of church calendars, along with other items took place. After the closing service, lunch was served by the hostesses.

Belated birthday greetings are extended to Mrs. Asseltine, who celebrated a birthday on Friday, September 27.

Centre last Thursday for a presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Plant who were married recently. Cards were played for the first part of the evening with the ladies' prize going to Pat Jepson of Georgetown and Ray Mason of Acton winning the men's. After the cards, a delicious lunch was served by the ladies.

The young couple were then led to the front of the hall and were presented with a beautiful swivel rocking chair, carried in by Pat Flippance and Bill Marshall. Paul May read the address and welcomed Joyce into the community.

At Graduation

Attending the graduation of Donald Shea on Friday, September 27 were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shea and Margaret, Mrs. George Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Plant, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hamilton and Mrs. Lena Sanford.

The graduation exercises were held in the beautiful auditorium of Michael Power High School, Islington. Brian A. O'Connor was Valedictorian and the guest speaker was Rev. Hugh V. Mallon, C.S.B., Ph.D., Registrar of University of St. Michael's College, Toronto. The 71 graduates, dressed in dark trousers, white jackets and cummerbunds, made a striking appearance as they received their diplomas.

After the ceremonies, they gathered on the lawn with their friends and relatives to receive congratulations and enjoy the delicious refreshments served.

Rev. Jas. Maxwell of St. Stephen's Anglican Church attended the Anglican Provincial Rural Conference at Long Sault on September 23 to 25 inclusive.

Harvest Time

The Harvest Festival Service at St. Stephen's Anglican church was taken by Rev. Jas. Maxwell on Sunday, September 29. There was an excellent attendance on hand to hear a very inspiring sermon by Rev. Stanley Gilbey, of St. James' Church, Humber Bay.

The choir provided music throughout the service and five children received the Sacrament of Baptism. They were Jeffrey Chas. Feenstra, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Feenstra; Janice Ann Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

William Bradley; Lisa Ann Schell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schell; Sheila Lynn Royce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Royce and Sherrie Lyn Clayton.

Many happy returns of the day and best wishes go to Chris Bradley, celebrating a birthday on October 4, George Leslie, October 9 and Karen Bradley on October 10.

Shower for Bride

North Trafalgar Community Centre was the scene of a pleasant evening when a group of friends consisting of Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Saliba Sr., Mrs. Baxter and Mrs. Falbo convened a linen shower for Dorothy Course, whose marriage to Capt. Jas. Wallace takes place shortly. There were 35 friends and neighbors present and the first part of the evening was spent in games and contests.

Dorothy was then led to the seat of honor and showered with many lovely gifts. Mrs. Evelyn Stever assisted in opening the gifts and reading the greeting cards. Many thanks were expressed by Dorothy for a delightful evening and the gifts, and an invitation was extended to all to visit at Ottawa where their future home will be.

Fred McCarron and Freddy and Betty of Sutton, spent the weekend visiting at the home of Fred Workman and attending the Milton Fair.

Guest Speaker

Eden United Church held its Harvest Homer services on Sunday, September 29. There was a good attendance at both afternoon and evening services. The Rev. Harold Bailey, secretary of the Board of Home Missions of the United Church House, Toronto, was guest speaker on both occasions.

The Eden Choir sang and the Eden Quartette also favored with a couple of selections.
