

Spotlight on Teens

recording of "Blue Velvet" recorded on Epic Records. The record made its first appearance nine weeks ago and at present is in its fifth week in the number one position on the charts. Well over one million copies of this record have been sold, thus making it the biggest hit sound thus far in 1963.

You may recall that exactly one year ago, in fact the first week of October, The Four Seasons had their first big hit "Sherry" in the number one position. It too, sold a million, was number one for five weeks and was 1962's biggest record.

Look Who's Worried

A few weeks ago, I predicted the rise to fame of a record entitled, "Hello Heartaches, Good-bye Love" by Little Peggy Marsh. As much as it pains me to say, it would appear that this time I've fallen flat on my face. Upon viewing this week's record charts the record has come to a sudden standstill.

Someone in recordland doesn't like me because unless this record makes the number one position (and it's beginning to look like it won't even come close) I am in trouble.

Already some of my friends (or at least they were) are asking what size hat I wear. If you don't think I am beginning to worry a little, just take a close look.

Those grey hairs you see aren't from sun bleaching. However you haven't got me yet. The record hasn't died (yet) so have a little patience and you'll soon find out I was right all the time.

Service No Longer Required

While viewing television one recent Saturday evening, I was taken somewhat by surprise by the guest appearance on Hi Time of former Toronto disc jockey Dave Mickie. This young announcer, formerly with radio CKEY. Of Toronto is permanently finished insofar as this particular radio station is concerned.

This statement was officially confirmed early last week when I again talked with a CKEY official. For the second time however, they refused to give any specific or detailed report as to why Mr. Mickie was released by the station.

Although never at any time a Dave Mickie fan, and despite any personal views of my own concerning this young man, it is my opinion that he got a pretty remorseless deal from this Toronto station. In view of the lack of adequate reason for Dave Mickie's dismissal, it can only be concluded that CKEY hired him, not because of his unusual broadcasting capabilities, but because they felt the need of a new advertising angle, something or someone who would draw the attention of the public to the station. At this time, it would seem quite apparent that Dave Mickie was just the kind of advertising they needed.

In the few months he was with them, Dave Mickie put CKEY back into radio's number one listening spotlight. Being rated as Toronto's top radio station again, they felt they no longer required Mr. Mickie's services, hence the pay-off.

As far as I am concerned, any company in any field of business who uses an individual solely for the benefit of its own success without any regard whatsoever for the individual involved, has to be unprincipled.

You must realize however, that the views I give here are my own. Perhaps I am wrong in what I say, but until someone gives me a good legitimate reason for Dave Mickie's dismissal, that's how I look at the whole rotten affair, and I know for a fact there are some 14,000 Mickie fans who feel the same way.

Without Provocation

I'm not usually in the habit of running down teen-agers. However, due to recent actions of our teen-agers in the Kingsleigh Court area, it's plain to see that some of these young people leave something to be desired.

During the early summer months, as part of this area's beautification campaign, the ratepayers put up fences on the north and south sections of the Court's play area. A little over a week ago, one of these fences was maliciously damaged by teen-agers, playing (of all things) seesaw.

True, there have been small children playing on the same fence, but I know for a fact that the teen-agers are responsible. These same teens were requested to stop, not too long ago, by a ratepayer passing in his car. He was told, very nicely, where he could go.

Another immature action witnessed just last Sunday afternoon was a Kingsleigh Court teen-ager taking a shot with a pellet gun at a 10-year-old passing by on a bicycle.

Is, by chance, this level-headed teen-ager reading this column, then I have a message for you. If I should ever again witness a repeat performance of this incident, I will see to it personally that the local police are called and the youth charged.

Here is one teen-ager who has about as much sense in his head as I have in my big toe.

If this is any indication of the maturity of our teen-agers, then heaven help the future of development of the Kingsleigh Court area.

Teens in Parade

The International Square Dancing championships were held in Oakville last weekend and as part of the activities, a parade was staged. Members of Campbellville's Hidden Spring Ranch riders took part and along with them were some Milton teens.

Those from Milton were Jean Beattie, Janet Graham, Evelyn McTear, Bobby Thompson and Ben Nyholt. The parade, one of the largest ever in Oakville, was televised Sunday evening.

In the year ended March 31, 1963, revenues of Canada's unemployment insurance fund were $348 million while payments were $403 million.
