

HALTON PLOWMEN'S ASSOCIATION held their annual banquet, ladies' night, and election Monday at Hornby United Church. Standing at the left is retiring president Stan May. Seated are the new president Lloyd May, O.P.A. Director Jack Taylor, and secretary-treasurer J. A. Francis. Standing behind them are second vice-president George Swann and first vice-president James C. Cunningham. The meeting also named five directors from each township in the county, plus 11 honorary directors. The 1964 match will be held October 31.

JOHN WILSON of Norval, top junior plowman in the Halton Plowing Match last fall, won the Robin Hood Flour Mills engraved silver tray and received the award from company representative George Swann, left, at the plowmen's annual banquet Monday. John, a perennial winner in the junior class, will have to move up into senior competition for next year's match.
