Milton Stomp

It has often been said that the best things mature with age, and the Milton Stomp seems to be an example of that fact.

A crowd of well over 200 teens turned out to quick-step the night away last weekend as Little Caesar and the Consuls paid a return visit to our fair metropolis.

The music was fast and at times furious, particularly when the group sang off a number of Beatle selections. Things got so momentous at one point that one of the floodlamps on stage blew itself into orbit.

I must admit that I am still somewhat unbelieving over the vitality with which little Norm Sherratt sings. There have been a lot of singers at the Stomp, all of them good, but none as lively or fleet-footed as Norm. As for the group in general, I can only repeat what I've said before, "they're great."

There are only a few more dances left before the Stomp closes its first season run in Milton. With the approaching high school final exams, Stomp executives reported they will close early in May. Entertainment for the final dances of the season will remain on the high standard as in past weeks. Headlining this week's dance and also making their return visit will be The Ardels. Make it a date to join your friends this weekend at Milton's teen dance, the Stomp.

Platter Chatter

Since the rise of Liverpool's Beatles, there has been an endless string of British recordings popping up on the popular records charts on this side of the Atlantic.

This week we have another singing group from over home, in the nature of the Hollies. Recording for Capitol records (Well, who else?) their effort for success is an oldie called Just One Look. This is the same record Doloris Troy brought out a while back, and although it was quite successful under her name, I doubt very much that England's Hollies will get very far with it, over here at least.

"TEEN OF THE WEEK"

By Jim Gildea

It's teen of the week time again and this week our spotlight falls on a very pretty blue-eyed blonde named Elizabeth Vandecan.

Liz, as she is known by her friends, lives in the thriving Kingsleigh Court section of town.

A grade 10 student at Milton High, Liz, who will be 16 in July, looks forward to a career in Medicine as a Doctor of Surgery. Insofar as school is concerned, her favorite subjects include Science, Geography and Physical Education.

Among other sporting activities Liz enjoys skating, boys, swimming, boys, tennis, and of course, more boys.

200 Records

Like any normal red-blooded teenage girl (and believe me, she is), Liz is a record enthusiast and has a collection of over 200 records to prove it. While her records are a hobby, her main interest (hobby wise that is, next to boys, of course) is sports cars of which she has a wide assortment of pictures.

Whereas most bedroom walls of teenage girls today are covered by Beatle Bugs, Liz prefers cars. Besides, she has the Beatles crawling all over her door.

When asked about her pet peeve, Liz replied, "The thing that really makes me mad is anybody who knocks the Beatles." This, along with doing dishes, seem to be the only two great upsets in her life thus far.

Favorite Store

Another favorite pastime of Liz's is working from time to time in Milton's local record bar, but then, is there a teenage girl in Milton who wouldn't enjoy working there?

Like most everyone else, Liz has her own favorite dish when it comes to food. Her brand! Anything in the way of Chinese dishes complete with chop sticks, which she assures me she knows how to handle.

Off hand, I would say that Liz is just about as normal as any teenager, and if that statement doesn't get me into hot water, nothing will.

All in all, my interview with Liz was a very pleasant one, and if future interviews go over as

Ben Hur Shown By Christophers

The academy award-winning movie, Ben Hur, was shown in Milton at the Holy Rosary School auditorium. The movie was sponsored by the Milton Christopher Alumni. This was the second successful event undertaken by the Christopher group, the first one being a variety show.

Ben Hur was shown on the evenings of April 11 and 12 with an attendance of 300 people. Free coffee and donuts were enjoyed by the crowd during intermission. The variety show and movie were the first of a series of events planned by the Christopher Alumni.

A ten week Christopher Leadership course is also being planned for September. All adults are eligible to take this course.

well as this one, I could even get to like this job.

Thank You!

All kidding aside though, I want to thank Elizabeth for taking the time to give me a story.

The purpose of "Teen of the Week" is not to necessarily spotlight someone special, but more to reflect the interests, likes and dislikes of YOU the average teen.

That's it for this trip but keep your eyes and ears open, because YOU might very well be our next "Teen of the Week".

Miss M.C.C. Contest

As part of its program for the town's Carnival Week to be staged in May, the Milton Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a Miss Milton Chamber of Commerce competition. The contest is open to any single girl, 16 years of age or over, living within the immediate area.

Looking around town in recent weeks, I've seen many young ladies who I am sure would make a very pretty Miss M.C.C. How about some of you high school girls? There is only one requirement really necessary — if you happen to be under 18 and are interested in competing you must have the consent of your parents.

That $100 bond would go a long way towards paying your school tuition fee or even providing you with that extra vacation money.

If you're interested pick up an application form right away. Contest closes this weekend. I thought of entering the contest myself, but somehow most people don't think I'm the right type.

Look Who's Coming

Batten down the hatches, secure all quarters, close the doors, they're coming in the windows. Yes, the news is out, those wild and woolly Beatles are coming.

Britain's mop-haired Beatles are coming to Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens. The show, a one-night stand, will be presented on the Labour Day weekend. With tickets due to go on sale yesterday (Wednesday) young teenagers started lining up outside Maple Leaf Gardens' ticket offices last Sunday.

Youths Injured As Cars Collide

Two Georgetown youths were taken to hospital Saturday after their car was involved in a collision at the intersection of No. 7 Highway and No. 22 Sideroad. The driver, Douglas Vivian, 19, of 9 Victoria Street, suffered a broken collarbone and cuts to the arm. His brother, Keith Vivian, had lacerations and contusions. Both were admitted to the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital, where their condition was reported as good.

The driver of the other car, Niels Bomholt, 39, of R. R. 1, Georgetown, suffered cuts to the chin. Damage to his car was estimated at $300 and damage was $200 to the Vivian car.

Ontario Provincial Police Constable Joe Feldcamp of the Milton detachment investigated.
