

High School Highlights

By Marie McNeil

Mrs. A. MacArthur and the Drama Club are making last minute preparations for their drama nights tonight (Thursday) and tomorrow. Students were treated to weird and wonderful taped previews of "The Mousetrap" each morning this week.

While the Drama Club is practicing their macabre murder mystery, others are preparing for the field day to be held tomorrow. Every student is expected to enter at least one track and field event. Points will be given for placings in the various events and in addition a point will be given to each student who enters an event. The class with the greatest number of points will be the winner. The top athletes of the day will go to the CWOSA competitions.

A highly successful "Careers Night" was held last Wednesday night. Students who attended gained a new insight into their possible future occupations.

Bars Presented

At the assembly last week, football, hockey and attendance bars were distributed by Mr. Sullivan. Student president Sue Brown presented the Miss and Mr. MHS trophies to Carol Forbes and Leon Stickle.

The badminton tournaments continue. The top five boys at present are Vic Cairns, Brian Stover, Gary Thomas, Rick Smith and John Zoppas.

"This is your MDHS radio station announcing another contest" barked the P.A. Monday morning. It was the yearbook committee reporting that each student who buys their yearbook now will receive a booster badge to wear. One of the lucky ones will win a certificate for a free record at the local record bar. Yearbooks are selling for $1.25.

Grade 12's hope there are a good number dirty cars in Milton this week—they are holding their car-wash this Saturday.

Milton High

PORTRAIT OF THE WEEK

by Marie McNeil

People who think that the youth of today are worse than those of a other generations says Mrs. Powys, are her pet peeve. Some people, she believes, judge the young by an example set by a few delinquents in today's society.

Mrs. Powys says that students should work hard and take an interest in as many fields as possible, thereby creating a well-rounded personality.

Mrs. Powys was born in Milton and attended the Milton High School on Martin Street. A well-known man in Milton, Mr. Fred Little, taught Mrs. Powys. She says he was a "witty, interesting history teacher."

At University of Toronto she majored in English and attained her B.A. and B.E. degrees. She is presently working on her Masters of Education. Mrs. Powys worked in offices to pay for her university education.

Her interest in teaching stems from the influence of her grandmother, one of the few qualified teachers before confederation.

Mrs. Powys' teaching career began in New Dundee, a little town 12 miles from Kitchener. She then taught for four years at the Mountain Rehabilitation Sanatorium in Hamilton. She was principal of the Toronto Hospital School for six years and then taught seven years at Western Technical and Commercial School. She has been teaching at Milton High for two years. Besides teaching 12C Special Commercial and grade 11 typing, she is a guidance teacher and staff supervisor of the Red Cross Club.

In her spare time Mrs. Powys enjoys reading, playing the piano and doing handwork. Most of her spare time during the summer is spent studying.
