

"Spring Flaw"

Musical Spoof, Variety Show Presented by 30 Young People

"Spring Flaw," a musical spoof and variety show presented by the Young People's group of St. Paul's United Church, played to a crowd of 150 on Saturday night in the Christian Education Centre.

Show Business

The 18 girl members of the chorus, clad in long tailed shirts and dark jeans joined the black-faced boys to open the show with There's No Business Like Show Business, and Art Lawson extended a welcome on behalf of the group.

Other show songs included Moon River, If Ever I Would Leave You, Food Glorious Food, Hello Young Lovers, and I Could Have Danced All Night.

Louis Howitt starred in two skits and Leon Stickle did a capable impersonation of Al Johnson favorite backed by a Jolson record.

The girls of the chorus also developed some dance routine including a popular Charleston number with the girls decked out in sack dresses, long strings of beads and other finery typical of the Charleston era.

Members of the cast were Linda Coulson, Linda Downs, Cory Ford, Virginia Gilbert, Dot Holmes, Jane McEachern, Ann Ostler, Laurie Sinclair, Judy Smith, Andrea Cumella, Marianne Fay, Lynn Galloway, Janet Graham, Sue Manford, Mary Pickett, Jenny Riddell, Jane Skinner, Betty Thomson.

Boys in the cast were Warren Charlton, Larry Gardhouse, Barry Mahon, Rick Rowley, Tony Dewhurst, Louis Howitt, Doug McEachern, and Leon Stickle.

Set design and stage manager was taken care of by Paul Foster, with sound effects by Gordon Hadley.

Following the show the crowd enjoyed strawberry shortcake and coffee and the evening concluded with a dance.

LOWVILLE

80th Birthday Celebration Sunday for Arthur Colling

By Mrs. F. O. Colling

Arthur Colling of Burlington celebrated his 80th birthday with his daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Brock Harris, on Sunday. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Morley Sherwood and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ellington, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Colling, Mr. and Mrs. Burness Coulson and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jordan, Hamilton and his only surviving cousin Mrs. Alta Wilson from London.

Congratulations to David Griffiths on being accepted as a candidate for the ministry by the Guelph Presbytery. His many friends at Lowville wish him every success in his chosen and worthy profession.

Six ladies from the U.C.W. spent Tuesday of last week packing bales for overseas relief at 100 Simcoe St., Toronto.

A number of the ladies attended the antique display and the quilt display at Carlisle on Thursday.

We are sorry to report that Tom Miller and Jack Davey are both in hospital, but hope that they will soon be allowed to come home.

Mrs. W. Carter had the misfortune to fall on her steps and dislocate her shoulder.

Mrs. Ross Colling has returned to her home here after being a patient at the Burlington hospital.

59th Birthday Bazaar Success

Evening Star Rebekah Lodge No. 79, Milton, held a successful 59th birthday bazaar on Saturday, May 2. Mrs. Helen Jones, D.D.P., officially opened the bazaar.

A delightful display of home baking, aprons, candy and variety tables was well patronized. The tea tables were daintily decorated and a delightful lunch was served by convener Mrs. Merne Childs and her helpers.

The lucky quilt draw was won by Mrs. Moria Camm, Riverside Drive, Oakville.

HORNBY

Will Fence Off Park Ball Diamond Plan Other Improvements for Park

By Mrs. J. McCarron

Eden United Church U.C.W. met at the home of Mrs. Frank Hall on Tuesday evening, April 28. The president, Mrs. William Hill opened the meeting with prayer followed by the U.C.W. Theme song. Mrs. J. Nixon was in charge of the devotional.

The minutes of the previous meeting were given by Mrs. John Hamilton, and Mrs. Elmer May read the treasurer's report.

Mrs. May inquired about the Milton Janitor Service to clean the church and the purchase of new bread and butter plates for the church. The luncheon for May 13th was discussed and it was decided to cancel the bake and apron sale which was to be held after the program. The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. J. D. Cordingly.

The meeting was adjourned and lunch was served by the hostesses.

Leaves Hospital

Mrs. George Hamilton returned from the Milton District Hospital on Tuesday, April 28 and will stay with her daughter Mrs. Arthur Plant for a while. We hope she will soon be well.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ellis hosted a party on Saturday evening at their home in honor of the 46th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ellis of Brampton. There was a lovely dinner with the centrepiece being a beautifully decorated cake with "Happy 46th Anniversary" on it.

The four sons, Eddie from Milton, Lionel and Randall of Brantford, and Cecil of Hornby were all present with their wives and there were eight grandchildren. A lovely corsage was presented to Mrs. Ellis and a happy evening was enjoyed by all.

Park Tenders

Members of the Hornby Park Board met on Tuesday night, April 21, at the home of the chairman, Cliff Wrighlesworth. A discussion on a fence to be built around the ball diamond for the safety of the children and fans was one of the main topics. The tender for the fence was given to W. Louth of Norval. The tender for cutting the grass was given to Fred Arnold, of R.R. 5, Milton. Following the business period lunch was served and the remainder of the hockey game enjoyed.

The new minister for the Ashgrove, Hornby and Bethel charge of the United Church has been accepted and is Rev. Halstead of Port Perry.

Million Dollars?

Eden United Church Y.P.S. met on Sunday night at the home of Paul May. The meeting opened with hymn 315 followed by the Lord's Prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The roll call. "What would be the first thing you would do with a million dollars?" was answered by the 14 members present. The treasurer's report was read and adopted and the collection taken.

The party which was cancelled on April 24, will be held on May 8 at 8 p.m. It was decided the boys would clean the woodshed and cut the grass at the church while the girls cleaned the flower beds.

The meeting was conducted by Marg Hamilton and was taken from "The Word and the Way". Rev. Johnston assisted with the discussion. The meeting closed with the benediction and lunch was served.

Planning Skit

The eighth meeting of the Hornby Nifty Needlers was held at the home of Mrs. J. McKay on Saturday, May 2, at 2:00 p.m.

A number of finished articles were shown in answer to the roll call. The girls judged three charts on choosing the best blouse material to suit a certain skirt material. Activities for the coming Achievement Day were discussed.

The girls practiced their skit for Achievement Day entitled "Lines to Suit the Figure". Each member continued working on her uncompleted articles. A delicious lunch of cheese cake and squares with coffee was served by the hostess.

Shower Bride

The congregation of Hornby United Church gathered in the basement of the Church on Friday evening, May 1 to hold a miscellaneous shower for Carol Howden, a bride-to-be of May 9. There was a good attendance and Mrs. Snow and Mrs. Grexton were in charge of the program.

Opening with a sing-song, games and contests were enjoyed for the early part of the evening.

Carol was assisted by Linda Learmont and Diane Wrighlesworth in opening her gifts. Appropriate thanks were expressed for the many beautiful and practical gifts received and lunch was served by the ladies.

Tour Centres

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hamilton were among those who toured the Recreation Centres on Sunday, May 3. Starting at the Oakville Lions Club Swimming Pool, they proceeded to Palermo, Pine Ridge, Omagh, Boyne, Hornby Park and McCurdy's North Trafalgar Community Centre. At Club 9 in Oakville they were served coffee and cookies by four teenagers. Jim Hamilton is the recreation representative for this district.

Many happy returns of the day to Mrs. Floyd Downs, celebrating a birthday May 8, Tommy O'Neill May 9, and Sonny Hall May 11.

Bolton Community Choir Visits Milton Saturday

The Bolton Community Choir, which will visit Milton District High School on Saturday under sponsorship of the J. M. Denves Home and School Association, is primarily a singing group of over 40 people from all walks of life.

Under the able direction of Mrs. Dorothy Addison, graduate of Royal Conservatory, Toronto, they have presented a continuous round of performances in various towns in Ontario and on television, for the past 11 years. The program for the "family variety night" to be staged here this Saturday evening promises to be highly entertaining. It includes comedy sketches in addition to over a dozen singing acts.

The staging and production are of a professional standard, since

Mrs. Addison is also a drama graduate and has studied at the "Play Workshop". The stage manager of the Bolton Community Choir, Don Smith, has worked with the group for its entire career, and promises to bring Milton a thoroughly enjoyable performance.
