$995 in Damage

Milton Police investigated five accidents this week with total property damage estimated at $995.

An accident at the corner of Main and Ontario Streets early Monday morning, caused $300 damage to a car driven by William John Alan Hall of 355 Mountainview Drive and $50 damage to guard rails, when his vehicle failed to negotiate the turn. His vehicle was proceeding east on Main St. at the time of the accident.

A car driven by a Toronto woman, Vivian Werth, received $300 damage on Monday afternoon when the vehicle's power brakes failed and it crashed into a light standard on Main St.

A two car collision in the Brewer's Retail parking lot, caused $50 damage on Friday and a two car collision on Main St. Saturday afternoon caused a total of $150 damage to cars driven by Grace McKinnon of R.R. 5, Milton and Fay Vickerey of Main St.

A two car accident on Queen St. on Monday caused $80 damage to a car driven by May Johnson of Queen St. and $15 damage to a car driven by Josephine Gards of Queen St.

APPLE MATURITY
