A CROWD LISTENS as Canada's Minister of Agriculture, the Hon. Harry Hays, speaks on the need for productivity and promotion of Canadian farm products. Other M.P.'s in the audience included Halton M.P. Dr. Harry Harley and South Wellington M.P. Alf Hales, and both were called on for a few words. Among other speakers were Reford Gardhouse of Milton, president of the Canadian Shorthorn Association; R. Graham, Ontario's Livestock Commissioner; Bill Elliott, secretary of the Ontario Shorthorn Association; Ken Foster, new promotion manager for the Canadian Association; Bill Humphries, representing the Dual-Purpose Shorthorn Association; and Bill Sutherland, manager of Massey-Ferguson Farms.

MR. AND MRS. GRANT CAMPBELL played host to the Royal Shorthorn Club, the Polled Shorthorn Club of Ontario, and the Ontario Shorthorn Lassies on Saturday, when Shorthorn breeders from all over Ontario gathered at their lovely farm north of Moffat for a picnic, conference and field day. Federal Minister of Agriculture the Hon. Harry Hays of Calgary spent a couple of hours there, and gave a speech to over 300 attending. He is shown, left, with the Campbells.

NASSAGAWEYA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ladies faced long lineups of hungry picnickers on Saturday, when they catered with both hot and cold lunches at the Shorthorn picnic and conference at Moffat. Above, crowds flock to where members are selling hot beef sandwiches. It was a hot day, and the girls in charge of soft drinks were kept busy filling the cooler as the supply dwindled rapidly.
