Mission Society Studies Outreach of Evangelism

By Mrs. George Inglis
Mrs. Roy Parker was hostess to the June meeting of St. David's Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society on Thursday afternoon when Miss Ethel Simpson presided and opened with a call to worship "Consider The Lilies of the Field", followed by prayer.

Mrs. Wilfred Greenless had charge of the devotional period assisted by Mrs. John Schriell. Mrs. Edgar Cairns gave the secretary's report, and the $25.00 bequeathed to the society from the late Mrs. Robert Kenzies was discussed.

Plans were made for a picnic with St. David's Women's Association at the lake of Mrs. A. J. Peterson in July. The roll call was answered by naming the women of the Bible.

Mrs. A. T. Moore gave the study on "The Outreach of Evangelism", and Miss Ethel Simpson closed with prayer. A social half hour followed.

Carlisle Cubs Visit
1st Carlisle Cub Pack were guests of the 1st Campbellville Pack on Saturday afternoon at Douglas Agnew's Camp, when Akela Bayley was in charge of the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. David McPhail and Larry of New Toronto and friends spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson and family to honor the occasion of Mrs. William McPhail's 81st birthday on Saturday.

Honor Grade Eight Students 95 Attend Kilbride Banquet

About 95 attended the dinner given in honor of the Grade 8 students at Kilbride school Thursday. Students were Linda Allison, Kenneth Brown, Bonnie Coulson, Karen Crewson, Ann Fraser, Georgina Hardsand, Burke Harrison, Earnest Holmes, Glenna Hume, Benica Jones, Laurence Jones, Christian Klickermann, Judy Kozak, Allison Laurie, Ruth Le Page, John Logan, Margaret MacNabb, Mary Lou McLaughlin, Doris Robertson, Peggy Smith, Diane Svtmsa, Steven Tanner, Katherine Taylor and Marsha Zuest.

Special Toasts
Chairman for the occasion was Mary Lou McLaughlin. The dinner opened with a toast to the Queen followed by the National Anthem. Grace was said by Mrs. V. Gilmore. Mr. Pelletier brought greetings from the board of education. A toast to the parents was proposed by Peggy Smith and was replied to by George Logan. A toast to the grade 8 class was proposed by Mrs. C. Fraser and replied to by Christian Klickermann.

Marsha Zuest proposed a toast to the staff which was replied to by Robert Wright. An expression of thanks to the Home and School Association and the grade 7 mothers was given by Georgina Hardsand.

Miss Florence Mears introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Judge George E. Elliott. An appreciation was extended by James Walmsley.

Past President Mrs. George Newell and president Mr. C. Stein presented gifts on behalf of the Home and School Association to Peggy Smith and Christian Klickermann for their academic standing.

The grade 7 and 8 choir under the direction of Mrs. I. Coulson sang two songs, "The Grade Eight Song" and "Sleepy Time" which were enjoyed by all.

Home economics and industrial art work done by grades 7 and 8 was on display under the direction of Miss B. McAdam and J. Pettit.

A fashion show was presented by the grade 8 girls after which a gift of appreciation from the class was given to Miss Meares by Marsha Zuest.

Twenty four Cubs from the First and Second Carlisle pack took part in the Torch Carrying Ceremonies Saturday, June 13, from New Street, Burlington, to Camp Manitow, 14 1/2 miles away.

The theme of this year's Cubaree was "Physical Fitness". At the camp nearly 800 Cubs took part in a program of track and field events.

Allan Eaton, Laurie Gartley, John Harrison, Denny Wilson, Charlie Taylor, David Warner, John Wasser and Gordon Hawkins had earned their badges at this time.

After eating a supper of wieners, beans, pie and orange drink, the Cubs gathered at council rock for a big closing campfire, with different packs participating in various songs and dances.

Attend Annual Dinner
Mrs. Henry Garter, Mrs. Jack Inglis, Mrs. John Nykoruk and Mrs. Norman Smith attended the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Carlisle Cubs and Scouts annual dinner, Tuesday evening, at the Colony Restaurant, Hamilton.

A miscellaneous shower was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Powell (nee Linda Brown) at St. George's Anglican Church Saturday evening. The couple received many lovely and useful gifts for which they expressed their sincere thanks.

Kilbride United Church held their Sunday School picnic at Coral Park, McGiven Road, Sunday afternoon. Due to the rain the group was not able to hold their sports events, they will be held in September when Sunday school resumes.
