TOE TAPPING MUSIC played by pianist Mrs. Beryl Landry, set the stage Thursday, June 18 for an interesting night of entertainment as the students of the Brenda Busby school of Dancing presented their annual recital in the Martin St. high school. An audience of over 100 parents and friends watched the students perform 24 different numbers, ranging from a high-land scene to some jazz dances. Lynne Oates, Margie Pellerterio and Barbara LeRiche are shown before the start of the performance.

"WHATCHA GOT COOKING?" smiles pert little Beverley Watters, as she poses with Tanis Wildfong, Sharon Watson and Sandy Watters before the start of the recent big dance recital at the Martin St. high school. Many of the Milton students have just completed their first year of dancing instruction under the leadership of Miss Mary Reid.

COLORFULLY COSTUMED DANCERS performing many dance step variations were the order of the evening as more than 50 Brenda Busby School of Dancing students displayed their talents at the Martin St. high school. Getting set to go on stage are George Cescon, Melina Cescon, Kelly Vickery, Beth Godfrey, Debbie Leggo and Gregory Wood.
