Combines Practice in Earnest For Girls' Provincial Tourney

By Bob Watkins
Milton Comet-Meteor Combines began practising in earnest this week, in preparation for the Ontario Playdowns next month. Under the co-sponsorship of the Flora Shoppe and Bus Knight's Men's Wear, this minor All-Star team of girls thirteen years of age and under have been invited to participate in the provincial tournament held August 15. This is an annual affair under the jurisdiction of the Provincial Women's Softball Union of Ontario and will take place in either Welland or Oshawa this year.

Besides playing in the house league, the Comet-Meteors are playing exhibition games with teams from out of town. Tonight (Thursday) they visit Pickering for a game with a team from the Pickering Minor Girls' League and then engage in a return game here in Milton on Saturday, July 11. Game time is 2:00 p.m. at Rotary Park. Games are also being lined up with teams from Dundas, St. Catharines, Winona and St. Mary's.

House League
Last Thursday evening, Milton Pharmacy snared a five run, first inning lead, but the Comet-Meteor Combines roared back to take a 2-8 victory.

After a jittery start, the Combines settled away to back up the pitching of Susan Vandecan with fine fielding support. They also came through in the hitting department and Fimmy Nijholt and Leslie Watkins both had five hits in five trips to the plate. Frances Sanford went the distance on the mound for the Thunderbirds, but her teammates had occasional lapses in the field allowing several unearned runs.

Tri-County Athletic Supplies came back strongly in the last inning, but a close decision at third base snuffed out a prom-

Classy Pro Jockeys Show Ball Talents

Some of Ontario's leading professional jockeys put on an interesting show at Rotary Park on Sunday afternoon as they played a softball game against members of the Milton Lions Club and the Milton Midget ball team. Cy "The Guy" Bomhof and Jerry "The Fly" Harrison were the top performers for the jockeys as Cy kept up a running commentary throughout the contest and managed to skip a few bases after singling in the seventh inning. There was a difference of opinion on the final score of the game as the Milton teams claimed a 2-0 victory while the jockeys insisted it was really 5-4.

About 75 fans attended the game. The jockeys are coached by Pat Remillard, the oldest active jockey in North America. Players on the team Sunday included Jerry Harrison, George Gordon, Eric Walsh, George Gordon, Cliff Potts, Nick Shuck, Billy Parson, John Livingston, Cy Bomhof and Wayne Scott.

Sam Nadalin, Verne Warden, Bob Carr, Gus Mowbray, Chuck Gervais and Alan Parton saw action for the Lions. Roger Wildfong pitched for Milton.

A well adjusted person is one who can play golf and bridge as though they were games.

Leslie Watkins pitched the win for the Combines, with Susan Vandecan coming on in relief in the fifth. Jane Denboer hurled a good game for the Spartans being ably assisted by a two-run homer by Lorraine Robbins.

Milton Tykes Clobbered Brampton Leads League

Brampton Tykes invaded Milton on Saturday and quickly put an end to a local two game win streak, as they clobbered the shorthanded Milton crew 21-4. The local tykes, minus four regulars for the contest, used four pitchers. Wade Bekar started and was charged with the loss and Mark Chase, Hugh Marshall and Roger Rowley all served relief stints.

The loss for the locals, evened their record at three wins and three losses for the season. They are in second place in the three team Halton County Tyke League, behind Brampton and ahead of Oakville.

Billy Claridge was the lone bright spot in the Milton line-up, as he belted a single and a double. Ricky McTrash, Wade Bekar and Hugh Marshall each singled.

In two recent tyke games, the locals rung up impressive victories over Oakville and Brampton. On June 20 they hosted Oakville and won a close 10-8 decision as Mark Hyatt placed a perfect squeeze bunt in the final inning, to score the winning run. Wade Bekar picked up the win for Milton's 12 hit attack. Hugh Marshall singled and doubled, Robert Lawrence, Roger Rowley and Ricky McTrash each had two singles and Mark Hyatt singled once.

Effective Relief
On June 26 in Brampton, Billy Clarke pitched an inning and one-third of strong relief ball, to pace Milton to a 9-7 win. Clarke, in relief of Wade Bekar, pitched to four batters in the game and struck out three. The locals turned in a nifty defense effort as they engineered two double plays. Newcomer Mark Chase had two singles and a triple for Milton, Roger Rowley and Robert Lawrence each doubled and singled and John Arnold had a single and a triple. Wade Bekar contributed a single to the Milton cause.

No league games have been scheduled for the next two weeks but club coach Murray Whistler is hoping to arrange exhibition games with Long Branch.

Local Greens Active With Trebles, Jitney

The Annual Mixed Trebles Milton Bowling Tournament on Dominion Day was quite a success, fine weather and good greens brought out 14 rinks from Oakville, Port Credit, Streetsville, Islington, Georgetown, Burlington and Milton.

The results were as follows. Jack Miller of Streetsville had three wins and a score of 53. G. Sinclair of Milton (with Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. C. Johnson) had three wins and 38 points. Ed Taylor of Burlington had two wins and 48 points. A visiting bowler from New Zealand also played and complimented the Milton club on the excellent condition of the greens.

Thursday night the mixed jitney of the clubs of Port Credit, Streetsville, Oakville and Milton was held on the Milton Greens with 32 players participating. Winners were Mrs. Cairns, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Dundas and Mr. Turney. Spectators are warmly welcome at any time.

WRONG NAMES

Legion Notes

Com. W. G. Riddell

SPORTS: As I took my customary seat in the Clubrooms, I was joined by Anthony 'Big Tex' Zelasko. He waved his copy of a recent Champion under my nose and proceeded to take my column apart. "Loudmouth," he snorted. "Me, that never raised my voice above that level which might be deemed proper in a gentlemen's club, except maybe a few times when I was playing shuffleboard."

Taking a deep breath, he went on, "And what's all this about Local 232 United Rubber Workers? They had nothing to do with this tournament, which was sponsored by the National Shuffleboard Association, except that we happened to rent their hall."

As he warmed to his favorite subject, the granite features softened and his blue eyes shone with kindness and sincerity. "This shuffleboard is getting to be a big thing. It started in a small way some time ago in British Columbia and soon the boys in Vancouver were looking around for some competition. Meanwhile, every club and hotel in the country is putting in a shuffleboard and the thing is spreading like wildfire. It is a game of skill and science, equally enjoyed by gentlemen and ladies of all ages, and the management likes it because it is another source of revenue."

Well, on the 20th, our boys went in cold against 10 teams in the Ontario Zone and finished in eighth place. Then Saturday, June 27, we put up two teams for the doubles, Alex Mishak and Tony Zelasko, and Dermot Gildea and Dave Lewis. We took fourth place and I was really happy.

Don Murdoff and I have been touring the Legion branches in this area, organizing them for shuffleboard (Niagara area). We expect another big tournament soon and hope to hold it here in Milton Branch 136!

BRANCH: Legion funeral service was Tuesday, June 30 for Pat Urcel, Boer War veteran. Funeral was July 1. Pat, reputedly 83 years of age, would be 19 in 1900, as a drummer boy in South Africa.

SICK BOARD: We are sorry to hear that Reg Marshall is back in Milton District Hospital, where he will lose another toe. However, this news is mitigated by word that Ken Dick is much better and making satisfactory progress.

The Legion is indebted to Mr. M. J. Carton for the information provided which led to the presentation to Mrs. A. M. Moore on Saturday, June 29 at the Campbellville 50th anniversary.

The benefits a bald-headed man gets at a barber shop are mostly fringe.

Bantams Lash 14 Hits Trounce Oakville 18-4

Milton Bantams unleashed a powerful 14 hit attack on Saturday afternoon and buried the number two Oakville team 18-4, as the locals scored five times in the second, seven times in the third and six times in the fourth. Hard-hitting Lorin Faggion was the top slugger in the game as he banged out four safeties including two doubles, a triple and a single.

Ken Parton, Dave Smith and Wayne Casson each reached base three times as Parton walked twice and singled, Smith singled twice and was hit by the pitcher and Casson singled twice and walked once. Mike McGrath belted three singles, Ted Hood singled once and Gary Nayler tripled once.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY
W. J. Allan of R.R. 3, Milton celebrated his 86th birthday on June 24. Friends and relatives gathered at his home on June 21 and honored him. Guests were present from Toronto, Willowdale, Long Branch, Milton Ingersoll, Dundalk, Rockwood, and Campbellville.
