MR. AND MRS. ROBERT HAVELOCK LAWRENCE are pictured signing the register after their recent marriage in Rockwood United Church.

Lawrence-Carton Vows Given At Rockwood United Church

Rockwood United Church was the setting for the three o'clock double-ring ceremony uniting Charlotte May Carton and Havelock Lawrence in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Carton, R. R. 1, Rockwood and the groom is the son of Mrs. George Lawrence and the late George Lawrence, Main Street, Rockwood.

The Rev. R. Connors officiated at the ceremony and Dave Benham, Guelph, was the organist. Mrs. Charles Petty, Rockwood, sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "God Hath Not Promised."

Organza Over Taffeta

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza over taffeta with fitted lily-point sleeves and a bell-shaped skirt which flowed into a train. Appliques of sequin embroidered Chantilly lace enhanced the bodice and front panel of the skirt. A petalled headpiece held her bouffant veil of silk illusion. She carried red carnations with ivy on a prayer book.

Miss Donna Small, R. R. 2, Campbellville, was maid of honor and the bridesmaid was Miss Helen Carton, sister of the bride. Both attendants were dressed alike in mint green organza over taffeta sleeveless gowns with bell-shaped skirts and matching lace jackets. Their headpieces were matching organza roses with black veils. Kathy McMenemy was the junior bridesmaid. She wore a dress of mint green, styled similarly to the dress worn by the maid of honor. All three carried a cascade of pink carnations with bakus fern.

Sharon Carton, a cousin of the bride from Oakville, was the flower girl. She wore a white dress styled identically to the junior bridesmaid's with a mint green cummerbund and bow.

The groomsmen were Clarence Fatt of Guelph and the ushers were Roy Carton, brother of the bride from Saskatchewan, and William Oost, Grand Rapids, Michigan, brother-in-law of the groom.

Afternoon Reception

The afternoon reception was held in the United Church Hall, Rockwood, which was decorated with pink carnations. Sixty-two guests were present. The bride's mother received in a two-piece bone colored suit and a corsage of yellow carnations with green trim. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a blue silk dress with a lace top and a corsage of pink carnations and green trim.

For their honeymoon trip through northern Ontario, the bride chose a turquoise three-piece double knit suit with an orchid corsage. On their return, the bride and groom will live on Main Street, Rockwood.

Special Guest

A special guest at the wedding was the bride's grandfather, Mr. M. J. Carton of Milton. Other guests attended from Milton, Grand Rapids, Hornby, Toronto, Niagara Falls, Saskatchewan, Guelph, Campbellville, Oakville, Battle Creek, Acton, Norval, Oustic, Omagh and Rockwood.

Several Showers

Before her marriage, the bride was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by Lois Bachelor assisted by Mrs. Emily Norton, both of Rockwood, a linen shower at the home of the bride's parents with neighbors Mrs. R. Landoni and Mrs. Smeltzer assisting, a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Donna Small at the home of her parents, a miscellaneous shower given by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Marie Peacock.

Amazing Sisters From Vienna To Entertain at Hofbrauhaus

Music-lovers are in for a surprise when they visit the "Miltoner Hofbrauhaus" being staged at Milton Arena on Friday evening, September 4.

Among the entertainers will be the amazing Schmidt sisters — Susan, Christine and Elizabeth, aged 9, 8 and 5, from Vienna — who not only play Bach, Schubert and Mozart on the piano but yodel, play guitar, violin and accordion as well.

The trio recently amazed Hamiltonians with a demonstration of their musical versatility in a Hamilton music store. Visiting in Canada for the summer with their uncle Alfred Dreger, Hamilton, the girls have agreed to visit the "Hofbrauhaus" show and dance which will be part of the Old Fashioned Days celebration leading up to the Steam-Era reunion.

Musical Surprise

Susan and Christine both study at the Vienna Conservatory and the younger sister Elizabeth will start in the fall. A music store clerk claimed only Bach could play Bach at age eight — but Christine surprised him, even though she had to use two hands to span some of the piano cords. She has only been playing piano for a little over two years, yet was unable to play music from a Grade 8 book from the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

Other highlights of the "Hofbrauhaus" will be a replica of a German "biergarten", supplemented by music from a village polka band, dances by two ethnic dancing groups, a western style singer and vodeller, and the East York Precisionettes marching corps. Advance tickets for the show are

OBITUARY

Edna Gowland

Active in United Church and Women's Institute work for many years, Mrs. Edna Wilson Gowland of Georgetown died at Georgetown and District Hospital on August 15 after an illness of eight months. Mrs. Gowland, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, was born in Esqueving Township and lived at Zimmerman for over 20 years, before moving to Georgetown 18 years ago.

She had attended Ashgrove Public School and in October, 1922, she married Stanley Gowland who predeceased her. Mrs. Gowland had been very active in United Church work, being a Church Women (formerly the Women's Missionary Society and Women's Association) and she had done extensive work with the St. John's Mission Band, a group sponsored by the W.M.S. She was also an active member of the Georgetown Women's Institute.

Four Brothers

She is survived by four brothers, Clayton Wilson of R.R. 3, Georgetown, Guy Wilson of R.R. 1, Norval, Dr. A. H. Wilson of New Glasgow, Nova Scotia and Frank Wilson of Charles St. Georgetown.

A CLASSIC CAKE
A classic cake, such as this recipe for Pecan Chocolate Loaf Cake, keeps very well and can be served on many occasions when a more elaborate cake would prove too filling — after a hearty dinner, or as a between-meal snack. It can also be served as a finger food at teas and parties, thus eliminating the awkwardness of guests forced to balance a plate and fork in one hand, and a cup and saucer in the other.

The pairing of chocolate and pecans in this recipe proves an irresistible flavor combination to most people. The cake has a moist, close texture and a sugarcrisp top crust. Try serving it as an accompaniment to dress up a simple dessert of fruit and custard.

PECAN CHOCOLATE LOAF CAKE

Yield — One Loaf Cake
1-1/3 cups once sifted all-purpose flour OR
1 1/2 cups once sifted pastry flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
3/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup shortening
1-1/3 cups lightly packed brown sugar
1 egg
2 ounces unsweetened chocolate, melted
3/4 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup coarsley-chopped pecans
Grease a loaf pan (4 1/2 x 8 1/2 inches, top inside measure) and line with greased waxed paper

"PECAN CHOCOLATE LOAF CAKE"

Preheat oven to 350 deg. F. (moderate).

Sift together three times, the all-purpose or pastry flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Cream shortening; gradually blend in brown sugar. Add and beat in egg and then the melted chocolate. Combine milk and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients to creamed mixture alternately with milk, combining lightly after each addition; fold in pecans.

Turn batter into prepared pan and spread evenly. Bake in preheated oven about 1 hour. Stand cake in its pan on wire rack for 10 minutes, then turn out onto rack and peel off paper. Allow cake to cool completely.
