(Intended for last week)
By Mrs. Cecil Patterson

Many ladies from this district have attended the Loblaw Cooking School held at the St. Paul's Christian Education Centre. Mrs. Elsie Rogers, the home economist, was a most interesting demonstrator and prepared many appetizing and eye-appealing dishes of food. Cakes, pies, cookies and luncheon dishes were made and these were later given out on lucky draws. Large bags of groceries were also given on draws and many from this district were very lucky to receive them.

Congratulations to Omagh Squirts and their coaches, Ted Stover and Don Few. The Squirts are in second place in Halton Minor Baseball and are about to start the playoffs. Good luck boys.

Mr. and Mrs. John Perry were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Don Leslie and family at Port Perry, Ontario.

Mountain Union Institute Presents Variety Program at Birthday Party

By Miss Muriel Thompson

Those gay summer flowers, the zinnias, had been used very effectively to provide three lovely bouquets for the head table on the occasion of the August birthday party on Wednesday afternoon, August 26. The party was held under the auspices of the Mountain Union Women's Institute. Mrs. M. Readhead, the president of the Institute was emcee. Mrs. J. Robertson was the program convener and Mrs. V. Norris the lunch convener.

Mrs. Readhead opened the proceedings by reading a very appropriate little poem "Smiles" after which the Institute ode was sung and the Mary Stewart Collect repeated in unison. Mrs. Readhead extended greetings to all the residents and then in particular to those having a birthday in August. Following these greetings a very entertaining and varied program was presented.

Costumed Dancing

The first two numbers on the program were dances performed very expertly by little girls. Suzanne Ricketts danced an Irish Jig and Karen Ricketts and Margo Clarkson danced the Tea for

Two Cha Cha. The costumes worn by these dancers were very striking, the first costume being green and the two in the second number rose and black.

Fourteen Institute ladies lined up at the front of the auditorium to sing a medley of old songs. They sang a very original parody of Old MacDonald Had a Farm. Mrs. K. Griffiths, wife of Rev. K. Griffiths who is the minister of Lowville United Church, sang a very amusing parody of In The Shade of The Old Apple Tree, with the title "In the Crust of the Old Apple Pie". The ladies sang by request "Put on Your Old Grey Bonnet" and the audience joined in. The accompanist was Mrs. S. Chisholm.

Several interesting readings were given. Mrs. G. McNab's reading was Wanted, A Minister's Wife, Mrs. Gastle's was Our Queen and Mrs. L. Dixon's was Caleb's Courtship.

A rhythm band entered the auditorium through the rear door and marched to the front of the room where they played a number of such old favorites as School Days on their toy and kitchen instruments. All these ladies in the band wore fancy hats which were definitely NOT of the 1964 season. Mrs. Readhead was the accompanist for these numbers.

Mrs. Griffith sang three sacred songs which included "How Great Thou Art". Her accompanist was Mrs. Readhead. Mrs. Griffith also led the audience in singing "He's Got The Whole World In His Hands."

Piano Duets

The young girls, Suzanne and Karen Ricketts and Margo Clarkson, dressed in white dresses and Scottish tartans, danced two Scottish dances. The lovely piano duets, one of which was "On The Race Course," were played by Mrs. R. Anderson and Mrs. D. Lawson.

Mrs. Robertson thanked all who had taken part in the program. The Institute choir lined up again to sing a few more songs and then the Queen and the Institute Grace.

The guests of honor were called to the head table and the Happy Birthday song was sung for them. Each guest was presented with a birthday card and a $1.00 bill. The Institute ladies then served a delicious lunch of sandwiches, pickles and birthday cake, which they had donated, and tea and coffee. Mrs. S. Allen was the hostess for the evening. Miss C. Moore thanked the visitors very warmly for the wonderful afternoon's entertainment and refreshments.

H. Gorter Holidays in Holland First Trip Home in 36 Years

By Mrs. William Watson

Henry Gorter returned home last week from a three-week holiday in Holland. This was his first trip back since coming to Canada 36 years ago, and naturally he found great changes in that time. His sister and husband from California were also spending the summer in Holland so that meant he visited with his two sisters and husbands, three elderly aunts and numerous other relatives. A highlight of his stay was his attendance at the wedding of his niece on August 14.

On Sunday afternoon, August 23, the Gorters entertained relatives and friends of Bruce McCann and his bride-to-be, Miss Isabel Chadwick. Those attending were happy to meet with the parents of the bride-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Chadwick from Campbellford.

Rose Mary Hilson and Sandra

The six guests of honor were Mrs. William McMillan, Mrs. E. Moore, Miss C. Moore and Messrs. J. McKinney, Dick Kemp and William Thompson.

Coats of Milton Heights spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMullen and family of Pantou Street.

Kathy Lynn Watson is home after being a patient at the Joseph Brant Memorial Hospital for a week.

Birthday greetings and best wishes go to Robert Sault Jr., September 3, Mel Brown September 4 and Bobby Inglis celebrating his seventh birthday September 7.

21 or 22 Students To Enter Sunshine

Sunshine School at Hornby should have either 21 or 22 students when school opens for the fall term next week, principal Mrs. R. P. Jeffares reports. There were 21 students when school closed last June, 15 of them senior (all day) students and the rest juniors (attending half a day classes).

Two students, John Ambrose and Diane Rusk, graduated from the school for retarded children last June, and at least two new students are ready to take their place.

Staff List

Mrs. Jeffares returns as principal, assisted by teachers Mrs. Tom Mitchel and a new teacher, Mrs. Bert Wood of Acton. Mrs. Wood has 16 years' experience teaching in public schools, and her work will be with the junior class where she replaces Mrs. John Hill who has moved from this district.

Mary Anne Ford returns as teachers' helper, Rev. M. Christensen will handle transportation, Mrs. George Elliott will conduct music lessons, and William Roberts will teach art.

Gary Ellis was named snooker pool champion of Milton, Wednesday evening of last week, following a pool tournament involving 70 players at Ross's Billiards, Main St. He won a transistor radio donated by billiard parlor owner Ross Cescon.

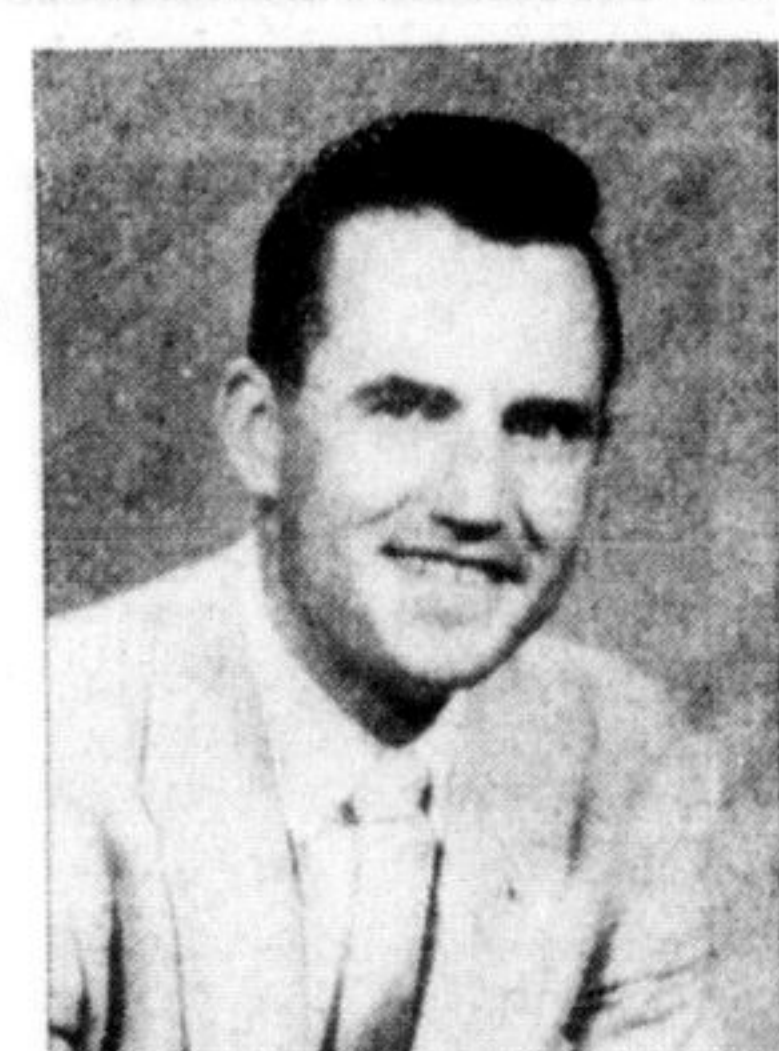

Runner-up was Stu Hannant, who won a pipe. A consolation round followed on Thursday, with Pete McCutcheon emerging the victor and winner of a butane lighter.

In the main tournament Wednesday, all but four players were eliminated. Semi finalists Len St. John and Reg Zanatta lost to Ellis and Hanant, then Ellis won the championship.
