Sam Portch, Dorothy May August Vows in Quebec

Christ United Church, City of Two Mountains, Quebec, was decorated with coral and white gladioli for the August 22 wedding of Dorothy Elaine May of City of Two Mountains and Stanley (Sam) Portch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Portch of R.R. 2, Milton. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frank May of City of Two Mountains.

Rev. Corbitt officiated at the ceremony and Mrs. Betty Finley was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor length gown of organza over satin with lace applique decorating the neckline and skirt. Her head-dress was of white organza with a rose fastened to layers of tulle, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations arranged on a spray of green ivy.

Twin Sisters Attend The bride was attended by her twin sisters Marilyn and Margaret May, and they wore coral pink organza over taffeta and carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums.

Will Stainton of Oakville was groomsman and Bud Christenson and Robin Dunbar of Oakville were ushers. All are former school chums of the groom.

The bride's mother received for her daughter at the reception at the Two Mountains Grotto Club, wearing a dress of turquoise lace over satin, matching shoes and a hat of black chiffon.

Pink Peau de Soie Mrs. Stanley Portch received for her son, wearing a dress of pink peau de soie with matching accessories. For the wedding trip to the New York's World's Fair, the bride chose a turquoise and black print silk suit, a bone wool coat, a large black velvet hat and matching accessories. On their return the couple took up residence at Fayetteville, Arkansas. The groom is a student at the University of Arkansas.

Judy Charlton, Wayne Thring

St. Paul's United Church, Milton, was decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums and gladioli for the wedding of Judy Ann Charlton and Wayne Thring on August 29. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Charlton of Miles St. and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Thring of Anne Blvd., Milton. Rev. J. L. Graham officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta with lace inserts, long organza sleeves and a lace bodice. Her head-dress, a crown of seed pearls, held a shoulder length veil and she carried a bouquet of red roses and fern. She also wore a pearl droplet necklace, a gift from the groom.

Friend is Attendant Dianne Gullis, a friend of the bride, wore a lime green dress of nylon over taffeta. The bridesmaids, Susan Charlton, a sister of the bride and Betty Hassel-feldt, a friend of the bride, wore gowns similar to that of the maid of honor. All the attendants wore floral whimsy headpieces and matching dresses and carried shasta daisies in a cascade.

Wendy Thring, a niece of the groom from Kitchener, was flower girl and wore a yellow nylon dress with a Peter Pan collar and carried a basket of white baby chrysanthemums.

Jim Thring, a brother of the groom was best man and Brian McDuffe and George Bickers were ushers. Larry Charlton, a brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

For the reception at St. Paul's Christian Education Centre, the bride's mother received in a beige dress with a three-quarter length matching coat, brown accessories and a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

Before leaving on their honeymoon the bride and groom went to Hamilton to visit the groom's mother who was in hospital. The bride gave her mother-in-law her bouquet.

For the honeymoon trip through northern Ontario and Quebec the bride chose a deep red, three piece suit of wool boucle, black accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Telegrams of congratulations were received from relatives of the bride from New Westminster B.C., Powell River B.C. and Nanaimo B.C. Also a telegram was received from a friend in Brockville, Ontario.

Guests attended the wedding from Burlington, Brockville, Guelph, Kitchener, Georgetown, Campbellville, Milton, Hamilton, Toronto and Fergus.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at several special events including a miscellaneous shower given by Betty Hassel-feldt and a miscellaneous shower hosted by Marg Woods, Nancy Pearson and Betty Furlan.

CHILDREN'S PICNIC Milton Fire Department held their annual children's picnic at Rattlesnake Point park on Sunday afternoon with most of the firefighters, their wives and children present. Races and games were enjoyed, followed by a supper of hot dogs and trimmings. Six men from Georgetown Fire Department were stationed at Milton Fire Hall in case of a fire call during the picnic. However, there were no calls.

Bride's Aunt Soloist At Smith-Gates Vows

White mums and green ferns decorated the altar of St. George's Anglican Church in Hamilton on Saturday, July 18, for the marriage of Donna Marie Gates, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gates of 9 Chatham St., Hamilton and Lee Franklin Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Smith, 81 Harmony Ave., Hamilton.

The Rev. Donald MacLennan, who married the bride's parents 20 years ago, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Peter Gates of Lowville, aunt of the bride, sang The Wedding Prayer and O Promise Me. She was accompanied by the church organist, Mr. Saxe.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a full-length gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta. The full skirt fell into a cathedral train and was emphasized by a semi-circle of silk roses at the hip-line. The bodice was adorned with seed pearls and sequins, boat neckline and long lily-point sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of nylon tulle was held by a pillbox head-dress, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red and white sweet-heart roses.

Attendants Miss Yvonne Court, a friend of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Marcel Smith, sister-in-law of the groom, and the Misses Linda and Carol Mummery, friends of the bride. The bridal attendants were dressed alike in yellow Bomber organza over taffeta. The dresses were street length sheaths with matching full length over-skirts fastened at the waist by matching bows. They had boat necklines and cap sleeves. Their short veils of yellow tulle were held by a white rose head-dress and their accessories were white. They carried cascade bouquets of pink and white roses.

Marcel Smith of Hamilton, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Leonard and James Smith of Hamilton, also brothers of the groom, and Phyllip Berry of Brantford. They wore white jackets and black trousers.

For the reception at the Hillcrest Restaurant, the bride's mother received wearing a pink lace over taffeta sheath dress with matching hat and white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother received wearing a mink brown silk crepe two-piece suit with matching accessories and a corsage of bronze carnations.

For a honeymoon trip to Northern Ontario, the bride chose a navy linen three-piece suit with matching hat and white accessories. The couple will live at 640 Mohawk Road, Hamilton.

Previous to the bride's marriage, miscellaneous showers were held by Mrs. Albert Mummery, Mrs. Leonard Smith and Miss Yvonne Court. Following the wedding rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mummery entertained the bridal party at a buffet lunch.
