

HALTON COUNCIL BRIEFS

At their September meeting at the County Administration and Court House Building in Milton on Tuesday, Halton County councillors:

- Delegated Nassagaweya Township Reeve William Coulter to attend the official opening of the Ontario County Court House and Administration Building.
- Referred a suggestion by Waterloo Lutheran University, regarding the possibility of the County sponsoring an annual bursary for the University, to the finance committee.

Compliment Deputy
 Heard Milton Deputy Dr. C. A. Martin, Oakville Deputy-Reeve Lester Whiting and Warden Gordon Gallagher of Burlington commend Deputy Clerk Jim Andrews on his excellent work since County administrator Garfield Brown has been absent because of illness. The representatives noted that Mr. Andrews has been doing double duty during Mr. Brown's absence.

Learned the Halton County Children's Aid Society had received 47 requests for service during the month of July and that the Society had 106 children in care as of July 31.

Road Signs
 Approved a recommendation by the Ontario Department of Transport to remove the yield sign and present stop sign at the corner of Mount Nemo and Number 2 Sideroad and to erect a stop sign to control North bound traffic on the Guelph line.

They also approved; the suggestion to erect an advisory speed sign of 30 m.p.h. on the north approach to the curve at the top of the north Lowville Hill on the Guelph Line; and a suggestion to erect a flashing beacon at the intersection of 10 Sideroad and the Guelph Line.

- Agreed to hire Consulting Engineers Damas and Smith Ltd. to conduct a road Needs Study for the County. The firm stated the cost of the study would not exceed $9,500.

- Approved a resolution from the Agriculture and Reforestation Committee that Council apply to the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario requesting that narrow leaf golden rod and burdock be branded as noxious weeds within the County.

Weed Contest
 Approved an expenditure in the neighborhood of $500 for printed leaflets and for a bus tour for Public School contestants in the Weed Control Contest.

- Agreed to give a cabinet and a prisoner's box from the Old County House to the Halton County Museum.

- Decided to hold the Warden's Dinner at the Brant Inn in Burlington on November 12. The Warden was requested to present his guest list and other pertinent information to the Legislature and By-law committee as soon as possible. It was also agreed to arrange a dance following the dinner and speeches.
- Encouraged and authorized the Emergency Measures Organization to participate in Milton Fall Fair and other fairs in the area.

Sponsor Luncheon
 Approved sponsorship of the District No. 12 Assessor's luncheon at Mohawk Raceway on November 18, at a total cost of $300. Warden Gallagher and Acton Reeve H. Hinton were authorized to attend the meeting.

- Noted weed control problems on the John Coulson estate reforestation farm near Hornby, were being studied by the Department of Lands and Forests. It was suggested inmates of jails might be able to work part time on the farm, pulling and mowing the weeds.

TWO-CAR FAMILIES

The Ontario Safety League says there were 1,927,000 passenger cars registered in Ontario in 1963, which is 40.2% of the Canadian total. Production of passenger cars in 1963 was the highest ever; registrations in Canada have increased by 19% in the past 10 years. Canadian households owning two or more cars climbed to 479,000, which is 9.7% of all households. Figures are from the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers

Milton Fair on Weekend

The 1964 fair opens in the Junior section, from 4-H clubs and Junior Farmer groups. All Canadian Shows of Toronto are in charge of the midway, and besides the usual games of chance and kiddies' rides, there will be rides to thrill the adults, and plenty of refreshment stands.

Reeve Gordon Gallagher of Burlington, the 1964 Warden of Halton County, will officiate at the official opening ceremony at 2 p.m. Saturday, in front of the grandstand.

Hot meals are available beneath the grandstand throughout the fair. The Milton Girls' Pipe Band will be present to entertain, and there's a dance in the Junior Farmer Hall on Saturday night to close the fair.

The 1964 fair is J. Lloyd Chisholm, with Gordon Rayner vice-president and Mrs. G. E. Readhead secretary-treasurer.

Standard equipment: a bank loan

It has become almost standard practice today for people to go to their bank to finance the purchase of cars and other family items. You, too, may have found a good idea to borrow where you save — at your local bank. It is often simpler, because the bank already knows you as a savings customer. And it also may save you money because bank loans are low-cost loans. For borrowing and saving, and for any other bank service you may need, just visit your local chartered bank. It's the one place where you can get all your banking done, under one roof.
