Kinsmen Begin Fall Activities Name Committees at First Meet

The Kinsmen Club of Milton started off its fall and winter season on Monday, with its first general meeting held at the Milton Inn. The previous week, officers were installed at a special ladies' night at the Legion Hall. The 1964-65 president Bill Doherty conducted the meeting and welcomed 16, including two guests, Bill Siegner of Milton and Kin Ivan Beasley of the Bracebridge Club. During the business session:

- * A membership drive was launched, and the $5 initiation fee was temporarily dropped to encourage more new members to join.

Bingo Profits
* Kin Mel Phelps reported the summer bingos, jointly sponsored by the Legion, were successful and profits were about equal with last year's bingo.

* The following committees were named: expansion and membership, Dan Pegg; Kin education and World Council, Mel Phelps; ways and means, Gord Biggar; Bruce Ervin and George Fletcher; entertainment, Keith Durnan; publicity and historian, Roy Downs; by-laws, Dan Pegg; sick and visitation, Bob Clement; Kin supplies, Vern Robinson.

Fall Council
* Plans were made for several members to attend the Fall District Council meeting at Niagara Falls at the end of October.

* The date of November 28 was tentatively set for the annual $10 dinner.
* Three members announced they would attend the Rotary golf tournament this week.
* Roy Downs was granted an honorary membership for the year.

* Past president Keith Durnan acted as sergeant-at-arms.

NEW POLICEMAN
William Joyce of Scarborough this week joined the Milton O.P.P. detachment which covers the North Halton area, replacing Const. Dave Richardson who resigned from the force earlier this month. Const. Joyce is new to police work, and has moved to live in Milton.
