In Memoriam

DILLOW — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, George E. (Ted) Dillow, who passed away November 6, 1960. He is gone, but not forgotten. And as dawn another year, In our lonely hours of thinking, Thoughts of him are always near. Days of sadness still come o'er us Friends may think the wound is healed, But they little know the sorrow, That lies within the heart concealed.

Ever remembered by his wife, Florence and family. c-26-5760

FERRIER — In loving memory of a son and brother, Roy W. Ferrier, who passed away November 7, 1961.

Dear Roy, we still miss you. And the smile you always wore. Always so true, thoughtful and kind.

"We cannot, Lord, Thy purpose see. But all is well that's done by Thee."

Sadly missed but always remembered, mother and brother Joe. c-26-5770

KING — In loving memory of a dear brother and sister-in-law, Russell and Jean King, who passed away November 10, 1962.

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by sister Hilda. c-26-5711

MARTINOW — In loving memory of our dear brother, Tony.

The dearest brother, The kindest friend, One of the best, Whom God could lend. Loving, thoughtful, gentle and true, Always willing a kind act to do. Loved by your friends and all whom you knew. One in a million, Tony, that was you.

Lovingly remembered, sisters Georgette and Carol. c-26-5713

MARTINOW — In loving memory of our only beloved son, Tony, who died from injuries received in an auto accident, November 7, 1963, aged 16.

I'll lend you a little time, A boy of mine, He said, For you to love the while he lives And mourn for when he's dead. But will you, 'till I call him back, Take care of him for me, He'll bring his charms to gladden you, And should his stay be brief, You will have his lovely memories.

As solace for your grief, I cannot promise he will stay, Since all from earth return, But there are lessons taught down there, I want this child to learn. Now will you give him all your love, Not think the labor vain, Nor hate me when I come to call to take him back again. I fancied that I heard them say, "Dear Lord, Thy will be done." For all the joy Thy child will bring. The risk of grief we'll run, We'll shelter him with tenderness, We'll love him while we may, And for the happiness we have known, Forever grateful stay. But should the angels call him, Sooner than we've planned, We'll brave the bitter grief that comes And try to understand.

Sadly missed, Mom and Dad. c-26-5714

WALKER — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Will, who passed away October 9, 1961.

This month comes with deep regret, It brings back a day we will never forget, You fell asleep without goodbye, But memories of you will never die.

Always remembered by wife, daughters Erma and Ruby and their families. c-26-5712
