THE KINGSWAY FARM JERSEY SALE

Owned by D. Jeffrey & Sons, North Bruce, Ont.

NOVEMBER 10th, 1964
At 1.30 p.m.

Fully accredited * 3 clean tests for TB and Brucellosis * Vaccinated * Pregnancies guaranteed *

From a 175 head herd comes 60 head of really top quality Jerseys, with no classification or any R.O.P. work ever having been done — but seldom, if ever, was there a more "milkier" Jersey herd ever developed.

Big, strong quality dairy cows were used in the founding of this herd, and these characteristics have carried down through the years. 30 first calf heifers, 15 springing cows, and some 18 fresh since September 15th to date all good young cows developed on the farm. Such sires as: Don Head Beacon Aim Standard, Alben Lodge Belmont Radar, Brampton Naomir Acme, Brampton Posing Acme, are well represented. Classifier due before sale — many of these cows should qualify for high ratings.

Sale held at the GEORGETOWN SALES ARENA (1/2 mile south of No. 7 Hwy., 8 miles north of No. 40 Hwy. (Interchange 40) on the 7th Line). Heated buildings. Lunch available. For catalogue or information, contact

Legion Notes

Com. W. G. Riddell

Sports: Well that United Shuffle Board League is all set up and rolling. Dermott Gildea is presently drawing up the schedules. Play-offs were held and an eight-man team has emerged, apparently consisting of Don Murdoff, Tony Zalesko, Dermott Gildea, Bev Hepburn, Alex Mishak, Jim Smith, Cliff Taylor. We won't give the team a name yet, as there is some question of sponsorship still to be settled. More news anon.

We hear that Harry Watts is having The Champion sent to him in Ireland, so we will have to learn to read the Darts Score Board and understand those figures. At the moment, Trafalgar Motors seems to be in front with 42, followed by Flights with 36, and Odds and Ends trailing with 8. By now, most of us are aware that Harry Watts has been transferred to Ireland for two years, and has already left our midst. Stan Elvidge filled the gap as Darts Chairman and we understand that a new Chairman will be elected.

Ladies Auxiliary: Vice-President Dorothy Ellwood has accepted the Presidency. However, Primrose Watts is delaying her departure in order to attend the Armistice Day celebrations. Armistice Day: It's here! The highlight of the Legion Year, which epitomizes all for which the Royal Canadian Legion stands and the reason for which it was formed. As November 11 falls on Wednesday this year, formalities are divided: Armistice Day parade: this Sunday, November 8, will fall in at the Legion Hall on Charles Street at 1.30 p.m. Both the Lorne Scots Military Band and the Pipes and Drums will be on hand. EVERY VETERAN in Milton district is cordially invited to take part, and EVERY LEGION MEMBER from Milnor Branch 136 should consider it a solemn obligation to attend this parade.

Armistice Day Banquet: in the Main Floor Ballroom, Saturday evening, November 14. Come and enjoy a bang-up Banquet and Dance and renew your Legion fellowship. Couples Club: did not meet last Saturday evening due to the Hal-loween Dance; besides they are remodelling the Third Floor Salon to give us a more congenial atmosphere for the record attendees of recent weeks. Bruce Dingman has taken hold of things with a strong hand and is getting strong support from the Branch. Their second Invitation Dance (October 10) was a huge success.

One more big date: Xmas Stag Nite and Turkey Roll Saturday, November 27. Yes, Christmas is just around the corner, and the traditional stag nite has been an outstanding event for years. You will meet old friends there who had dropped from the ken of mortal men for years. Come and bring your folding money.

Membership seems to be no problem at present, with renewals and new members streaming in. A very healthy condition. Be ready to assist your Poppy Chairman and Santa Claus Committee as may appear necessary.

Showers Honor Popular Bride-to-Be 4-H Club Girls Learn About Muffins

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
Miss Hertha Brucker, popular young bride-to-be of November 21, has been guest of honor at many showers. Mrs. Vida Bull of Applewood Acres entertained about 30 ladies, aunts and cousins of the groom, at a miscellaneous shower on October 26. Many beautiful gifts were received. A delightful buffet luncheon was served.

Monday, November 2, friends and neighbors of the Sixth Line district gathered in the McCurdy's Centre to honor Miss Brucker and her fiancée, Mr. Kerry Montgomery of Toronto, with a miscellaneous shower. Euchre was the entertainment and prizes went to Mrs. Carlyle Featherston, Mrs. Harry Price, Ernest Price and Jack Trichler. The young couple expressed their sincere appreciation for all the good wishes and lovely gifts. Lunch was served by those planning the party, Mrs. A. Marchant, Mrs. Elmer Bailey and Mrs. A. Peacock. Miss Brucker, R.N., is a recent graduate of Toronto General Hospital and the groom-to-be attends university.

Make Muffins

The third meeting of the Hornby South 4-H Club was held on Saturday in the club workroom. The president, Ann Ruhl was in charge for a brief business meeting. Seventeen girls answered the roll call "List cereals made from wheat, oats and corn."

The leaders led a discussion on "flours" and displayed various types and their uses. The girls learned that all purpose flour must be used for bread and rolls, while for pies and cakes, pastry flour (which has less gluten) is better. Other types of flour and their uses were given — graham, all wheat, corn meal and several forms of bran.

The demonstration by the leaders was making bran muffins. The members were divided into two teams for group work. Led by Beverly Hove, one team made graham muffins, and with Gwen Rutledge, the girls prepared whole wheat muffins.

The finished products, which turned out very well, were scored for general appearance, texture and flavor, and were later served for lunch with warm applesauce and a beverage. Kitchen helpers were Nancy Hagvard and Anne Ruhl.

The next meeting will be held November 7 at 9 a.m. in the club workroom, at which time macaroni casseroles and other dishes will be prepared.

In Hospital

Friends will be sorry to learn that Mrs. George Douglas of the Second Line is a patient in Burlington hospital. We wish her a speedy return to health.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruhl returned recently from a pleasant motor vacation trip to Virginia and other points below the border.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Sadie Douglas is a patient in Hamilton hospital with a broken hip. Mrs. Douglas has resided in Halton Manor for the past year and had the misfortune to fall on Thursday, October 29. Her many friends wish her well.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thurston of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson and daughter Janice of Toronto were Sunday visitors with Mrs. George Peacock and family.

Birthday Wishes

Happy birthday to our young friends, Louise Pickett on Nov. 6; Sonny Hagvard, 11 on Nov. 6; Cheryl Bradley, 14 on Nov. 7; Douglas Peacock, 6 on Nov. 4; T. F. Leslie on Oct. 29; Mrs. John Pickett Sr. on Nov. 9; and Mrs. Lillie Campbell on Nov. 2.

Mrs. George Peacock was agreeably surprised on Friday evening when about 25 neighbors, friends and members of her family gathered to wish her many happy returns on her birthday and spend a few hours with her.

Cards were enjoyed, also a sing song and dance with Joe Price of Hamilton playing his accordion. A delicious lunch was served, after which Mrs. Peacock opened her gifts and lovely cards. Friends join in wishing her many more birthdays. Among the guests were her great grandchildren, Tommy and Teresa Jackson of Beeton, Ont.

MOFFAT

Luncheon, Bake Sale Held by Ladies' Aid

The Ladies' Aid of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church held a successful luncheon and bake sale on Friday, October 23, in the Sunday School room.

A self-service lunch of jellied chicken and potato salad, fruit salad, rolls, cookies and tarts, was enjoyed by a number of women from Boston, Omagh, Guelph, Acton, Eden Mills, Arkell, Ebenezer, Campbellville, as well as the local bodies.

Mrs. Allen Blythe of Guelph was the guest speaker and gave an interesting talk on her tour of the world. She also showed pictures that were a delight to all present. Mrs. Wilfrid Kennedy led in the devotions.

The bake table was sold out and a good sum of money was added to the treasury.

Some of the ladies of Nassagaweya congregation attended the tea and bazaar at Ebenezer last week and a couple of carloads of ladies were at the noon luncheon of the Boston W.M.S. 75th anniversary on October 20. The Rev. Ross Cameron of Toronto was the guest speaker there. All reported a wonderful meeting.
