

VISIT CALIFORNIA
The J. A. McNivers of Chatham, formerly of Milton, have returned from a trip to Hawthorne, California, where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Charles and Anne Whit and baby Michael. They are at their new home at 96 Coverdale St. Chatham.

—March went again the usual proverb this year. It came in and went out like a lamb, although the middle of the month was lion-like.
—Personal items and stories of visits, visitors, parties, anniversaries and birthdays is always news for the columns of The Champion. Call TR 8-2341.

LEARN TO SWIM
There is still plenty of time before summer holidays to take those swimming lessons, so that in emergency an adult or child can take care of himself in the water. Depending upon the child's health, most youngsters love splashing in the water and can quickly learn to swim. It is better to have them taught by a qualified instructor rather than learning the art by being pushed in by other children.

—Town residents are reminded they can purchase decorative trees through the town office at half price. They will be planted by the town workmen on your property, as part of the town's beautification program.

EMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH Sunday School, Milton, won a Sunday School attendance competition involving churches of the Credit Valley Association, Fellowship of Evangelical Baptist Churches in Canada, during the month of March. They recorded a 126 per cent attendance over the previous month to win the contest. C. M. DeGaris of Oakville, left, presented the trophy to S.S. Superintendent Ralph Morton on Sunday, while Pastor Clayton Coles, left, looked on.

Downs . . .

meal consisting of meat and potatoes.

Bathroom: where children figure the Lord lives, because every morning Daddy hollers "Lord, are you still in there?"

Tree: A thing of beauty that graces your yard and sets your house off from all the rest on the street.

Neighbor's Tree: That dirty thing that drips sap on your car and drops leaves on your lawn and houses birds that mess up your patio.

Basement: Large storage area sometimes referred to as laundry, furnace room and recreation room.

Recreation Room: Where you spend $3,000 on lumber, bar furnishings, hi-fi setup, acoustic ceiling and wall panelling so you can entertain company upstairs in your kitchen.

Subdivision: A row of houses where the wives, cars, monthly payments, lawns and children are all the same, and only the number on the door is different.

Coffee Club: Where the subdivision wives get together mornings to talk about the wives who couldn't attend.

Commuter: A man who lives in a small rural town because he likes the easy living, and works in a big city because he likes the easy income.

School: A form of penal servitude where boys kick the toes out of costly dress shoes playing football, and girls participate in a continuous fashion show destined to ruin father's pocketbook.

Pocket Money: A weekly pittance husbands are allowed to carry in their pockets so wives and children will always have a ready source of cash.

Budget: A totally unworkable financial system that ensures a weekly pay-day battle between husband and wife, and helps the husband figure out how much the wife has overspent each week.

S.S. Teachers Attend Conference Children Win Attendance Contest

Emmanuel Baptist Church Sunday School staff, who attended the Christian Education Conference held in Calvary Baptist Church, Oakville, on March 6, were greatly challenged by the intense one-day program presented in lesson preparation, visitation, workshops, special instruction for primaries and juniors. Books for D.V.B.S. and other Christian Education materials were on display.

The following personnel were greatly appreciated for their instruction and co-operation in this program: Miss W. Walworth, Christian Education Extension, Dept. of Scripture Press; Rev. W. Klassen, People's Church, Peterborough; Rev. R. Lawson, Central Baptist Church, London; Mr. E. Swanson, vice-president and managing director of Scripture Press Foundation of Canada; Miss E. Boycott, secretary-treasurer for the conference.

Awards were made to churches having the highest percentage of their Sunday School staff present that day, which was a joint effort of the Credit Valley Association of the Fellowship of Evangelical Baptist Churches in Canada and Scripture Press Foundation of Canada.

Emmanuel Baptist Church in Milton was greatly honored in receiving the award for highest percentage at the close of the conference.

A contest was arranged, sparked off by this conference, encouraging the churches of the Credit Valley Association to win an award given to the Sunday School having the highest percentage for the month of March. At the morning service last Lord's Day, April 4, the trophy was presented to Emmanuel Baptist Church Sunday School by C. M. DeGaris, for highest percentage in the contest period, and will remain with this Sunday School until next contest, March, 1966.

—Only 19 days to the opening of Mohawk Raceway at Campbellville. The Spring Meet starts April 26.

—It's Chamber of Commerce Week. Hats off to the Milton Chamber for its year-round activity for the betterment of Milton.
