M. Denyes Public School which opened that year. In 1957 he was appointed principal of the J. M. Denyes school in addition to his other duties. He has also served as secretary of the Milton Public School Board since January 1, 1959.

As well as having a Bachelor of Arts degree from McMaster University, Mr. Foster holds a permanent standard 4 Certificate, a Supervisor's Certificate in Physical Education and an Intermediate Certificate in Agricultural Science.

W. J. CLOW

Wesley J. Clow, vice-principal of the J. M. Denyes Public School for the past five years, has been appointed principal of that school. Mr. Clow, born near Durham in Elgin County, attended London Normal School and had five years' experience in rural schools and four years as principal of Lucan Public School before coming to Milton. Mr. Clow holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Western Ontario and a Bachelor of Education certificate from the Ontario College of Education.

J. BELL

John Bell, B.A., recently appointed principal of the new Senior Public School, was born in Durham, Ontario and taught in rural schools in Grey County for two and one half years before coming to Milton seven years ago. He taught at the J. M. Denyes School for two years, one as vice-principal, before becoming principal of the Bruce St. School five years ago.

Mr. Bell holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Western Ontario and is a graduate of Stratford Normal School and Durham High School. He looks forward to his duties as principal of the Senior Public School as a "challenge".

R. MORRISON

Raymond Morrison, born and raised near Durham, will take over his new duties as principal of the Bruce St. School in September. He attended elementary school in Egremont Township and high school in Durham. He is a graduate of Stratford Teachers' College and is presently working on a Bachelor of Arts degree from Waterloo University. He also holds an Industrial Arts Supervisor's certificate.

Mr. Morrison taught two years at a rural school near Hanover before coming to Milton six years ago.

R. LONG

Raymond R. Long, A.B., has been principal of W. I. Dick school for seven years. He attended elementary and secondary school in Hamilton and is a graduate of Hamilton Teachers' College. He has a supervisor's certificate in Health and Physical Education and a Bachelor of Arts degree from McMaster University.

34th Annual

Crowd Packs Auditorium At Halton Music Festival Finals

Acton Robert Little public school auditorium was packed to capacity Wednesday evening of last week with a large crowd of parents and friends, to hear finalists wind up the 34th annual Halton Music Festival.

Adjudicator Edwin Ferguson, director of music for Waterloo-Oxford high school, praised the young singers competing both Tuesday and Wednesday and handed verbal bouquets to school music supervisors.

President J. M. Bell welcomed the crowd and chairman William Benson of the Acton public school board extended his greetings on behalf of the board. Introduction of the adjudicator was made by inspector O. W. McDowell.

New Competitions

As well as three new classes being judged, some of the winners from the previous day participated with winning songs. In the triple duet, competition for schools with six rooms and under, Campbellville placed first, to win the Miss Ruth Evans trophy, which was presented by principal Eric Balkind of Limehouse school.

Limehouse school won second place and received the Ebenezer Church choir shield, which was presented by Mrs. M. Hayward, church organist and choir leader.

Competition in the triple trio class for schools with seven rooms and over was keen, with Milton J. M. Denyes school winning the Milton Kinsmen Club trophy, presented by Mr. Bell, and Glen William school took second spot, to win the Halton Music Festival Association shield, presented by secretary-treasurer Mrs. D. E. Martin.

Last competition of the evening was the boys' changed voices choir, with the Milton public school board trophy presented by vice-chairman H. P. Johnson to the Acton M. Z. Bennett public school. The Acton W.I. shield, presented by Mrs. Roy Lindsay, went to Milton Bruce St. school.

Hear Winners

Also on the program was the winner of the junior choir class the previous day, the Milton J. M. Denyes school, which sang "The Shepherd's Song". The Acton Robert Little school boys' unchanged voices choir, which won Tuesday, sang "The Mermaid". Pineview school senior choir, previous winners, delighted the audience with their song, "Vesper Hymn", and Brookville senior choir sang their winning selection, "An Easter Carol". Special appreciation for helping to make the festival a success was expressed to all who participated by Mr. Bell and K. F. Trowbridge, principal of Brookville school. The evening concluded with the singing of The Queen.

Begin School

Registration was held at Boyve Centre on Saturday afternoon for Omagh Boys minor Softball League. Mel Dolby was in charge and despite the wintry weather outside a large number of young fellows signed up to be a member of one of the four teams to be sponsored. Registration is still open for any interested, especially girls and bantams.

Miss Angelina Curtis of Gracie was an Easter visitor with the Stafford Curtis family.

The euchre held at Boyve Centre on April 15 was quite successful with a good attendance. Winners were Mrs. Heer and Mrs. Gillies, Harry Riebot and Clare Ford. Conveners of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Clare Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Winch.

Teen dance will be held in Boyve Centre with music supplied by Mr. Maxted of Omagh store. Chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Winch and other parents.

CAMPBELLVILLE

Miss McPhedran Host to W. A.

By Mrs. George Inglis
Miss Katharine McPhedran was hostess to the April meeting of the Women's Association on Tuesday evening when Mrs. A. T. Moore presided and opened with a reading "Radiance of Easter". After the singing of "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross", the hostess had charge of the devotional period, assisted by Mrs. James Robertson.

Mrs. Wallace King gave the secretary's report, Mrs. Kenneth Moore the financial report, and Mrs. Howson Lush the cheer report. Invitations were accepted from Lowville United, April 21 and St. George's Anglican, April 22.

It was decided to ask all friends of members to save Canada Packer labels for a coffee percolator.

Plans were made for an Opportunity Auction Sale to be held in the Masonic Hall at Campbellville on May 15, with Mrs. A. T. Moore, Mrs. George Inglis, Mrs. Wallace King, Mrs. Murray Mahon, Mrs. James Robertson, Mrs. Vera Cockram and Miss Katharine McPhedran in charge.

The president thanked the hostess and closed with prayer, and a social half hour followed.

Becomes Stewardess
Miss Lois Inglis graduated as an Air Canada stewardess at Montreal, Quebec, on Thursday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Inglis, and will be stationed at Toronto International Airport.

On Friday evening, a presentation was held at Brookville Hall to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson who have sold their farm and moved to Milton. Music for dancing was supplied by Currie's orchestra and Calvin McIntyre was floor manager.

Russell Elliot read the address and Walter Freeman, John Simpson and Melvin Storey assisted in the presentation of a table and four chairs, for which the happy couple thanked one and all.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William French (formerly Anne Parker), who were married in St. David's Presbyterian church on April 15.

Ken Moore, Stan Henderson, Bill Coulter and Murray Mahon won the Milton Motor Sales trophy after winning the curling competitive championship in Milton by a score of 11-7 on Thursday evening. Congratulations to all.

Mrs. David Mahon and Jamie of Windsor and Mrs. Crawford Mahon of Ottawa visited relatives in the village over the weekend.

Edward Evans became a member of St. David's Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles King were hosts to an Easter supper on Friday evening. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. W. King, Mr. and Mrs. B. Ella, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Collins and family. An evening of euchre was enjoyed by all.

Brownies Fly Up
On Thursday evening, a Brownie fly-up was held. Those who became Brownies were Ellen Gadd, Kimberley Henderson, Hilda Kusenick and Valerie Coulter. Mrs. H. Dennis, Brown Owl, and Mrs. J. Baynton, District Guider, presented them with badges.

Congratulations to Campbellville public school, who placed first in the grade 5 and 6 choir on Tuesday, and first in the triple duet on Wednesday evening. They are under the leadership of Mrs. D. Vickery and J. Zehr.

The First Campbellville Boy Scouts, under the leadership of Scouter D. Katji, hiked to Milestone Camp, R. R. 3, Campbellville. The purpose of this hike was to learn the compass and how to follow it.

Misses Mary Helen and Margaret Wheelihan spent Easter weekend in New York.

Plan Dance
Shirley Ella presided over the Young People's meeting on Sunday evening. This was entirely a business meeting, due to the small attendance. Final preparation was made for the dance to be held on Thursday, April 22, at Brookville Hall. The opening deviations were taken by Bonnie Inglis, Bonnie Mullen and Doreen Inglis.

Mrs. M. Currie and Mary from Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. G. Darby and family from Rockwood were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. G. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Inglis and family visited relatives in London on Sunday.
