VIRGINIA HOWARD AND JIM PATTERSON are shown outside Grace Anglican Church following their marriage on May 29. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Howard and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Patterson.

Patterson-Howard

Grace Anglican Church, Milton was decorated with garden flowers for the May 29 marriage of Virginia Dale Howard and James Robert Patterson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Howard of Milton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Patterson of Milton.

Dr. T. M. Dustan officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. John Farrow, a cousin of the bride was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a full length cathedral gown of white satin peau de soie featuring an alencon lace yoke with the skirt and train banded in lace. Her crystal crown headpiece held an elbow length veil. She carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations and lily of the valley, and wore a ring which belonged to a great aunt.

Cousin Attends Bride
Lorna Howard, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a street length pink satin peau de soie featuring an alencon nylon tunic overskirt and matching headress. She carried pale pink carnations and lily of the valley.

Bill Findlay, a cousin of the groom, was best man and Danny Allan, a cousin of the bride and Don Patterson, a cousin of the groom were ushers.

Fifty guests attended the afternoon reception in the Grace Anglican Church parish hall. The bride's mother received for her daughter wearing a pale blue lace dress with white accessories and a yellow corsage. The groom's mother received for her son, wear-

Shower Bride

Prior to her May 15 marriage to Melvin Cragg, Marguerite Peacock was honored at several showers in the area.

On April 10 Mrs. Wilfred Lawrence held a miscellaneous shower in her home. A surprise pantry shower was hosted by Shirley Green and Marlene Curtis at the home of the bride-to-be, on April 14 Jacqueline Peacock, the maid of honor, and Diane Anuzis, a bridesmaid, held a surprise miscellaneous shower for Miss Peacock on April 20 at the home of Mrs. Wanda Anuzis.

The Omagh Presbyterian Church congregation held a miscellaneous in the Bowne Community Hall on April 27. A community miscellaneous shower was given on April 30 in the McCurdy school.

Open House
Mrs. Arthur Peacock held an open house for her daughter on May 8 from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. Decorations consisted of a table centre of white and pink snapdragons, carnations and baby chrysanthemums. The bride's mother chose a turquoise sheath for the occasion and her daughter wore an aqua sheath. They both wore corsages of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations.

Jacqueline Peacock, Shirley Green and Jean Ella showed the bride's gifts and Marlene Curtis and Carol Dick helped the other girls in the evening.

Cragg-Peacock Vows

Omagh Presbyterian Church was decorated with baskets of white and pink snapdragons, chrysanthemums and carnations for the May 15 marriage of Hattie Marguerite Peacock and Melvin Lyle Cragg. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peacock of R.R. 4, Milton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cragg of 422 Woodward St., Milton.

Rev. S. Smith officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Ernest Price accompanied Mrs. K. O. Foster who sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Wedding Hymn".

The bride wore a full length dress styled with a full skirt, fitted bodice and lily point sleeves. The skirt was made with a charmingly lace back with tiers of lace and ruffled net and a plain lace front. Her silk illusion veil was held by a double crown of seed pearls and crystals. She carried a heart shaped bouquet of red sweetheart roses, white carnations and stephanotis with trailing streamers of love knots intertwined with stephanotis.

Peacock Blue Dress

Jacqueline Peacock, R.R. 4, Milton, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a peacock blue peau de soie dress featuring a fitted bodice and a skirt of unpressed pleats. Her wedding ring headpiece with pink roses held a matching blue veil. She carried a cascade of varying pink, blue and white carnations with pink streamers.

Bridesmaids Shirley Green, R.R. 2, Milton, and Diane Anuzis, R.R. 4, Milton, both friends of the bride, wore rose peau de soie dresses similar to that of the maid of honor. Their headpieces were wedding ring hats with matching roses holding rose veils. They carried cascades of varying pink and white carnations with pink streamers. The three attendants wore two stranded pearl necklaces with matching earrings, gifts of the bride.

Lynn Cragg, of Richmond Hill, a niece of the groom acted as flower girl. She was dressed similarly to the bridesmaids and carried a nosegay made with one large red rose surrounded by white carnations and small pink roses. Her gold heart-shaped pendant was a gift of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Carries Ring on Pillow

Martin DeBrvn was best man and David Lawrence, a cousin of the bride, and Winston Cragg, a brother of the groom, were ushers. Donald Cragg, a nephew of the groom, was ring bearer. He carried a heart shaped white satin pillow with lily of the valley, bows and streamers trimmed with lace, attached. They all wore gold cufflinks, gifts of the groom.

For the afternoon reception, the Masonic Hall, Milton was decorated with pink and white wedding bells and streamers, white candles, bud roses and carnations. Mrs. Peacock received for her daughter wearing a pale blue linen sheath featuring a lace top, matching chiffon hat, white accessories and a pink sweetheart rose corsage.

Mrs. Cragg received for her son, wearing a rosewood crepe sheath featuring a nylon lace top, white accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage.

For the honeymoon trip to Saskatchewan the bride chose a two piece creamy white linen suit, turquoise blouse, matching hat and gloves, white shoes and handbag and a mauve orchid corsage. The couple will live at 138 Ontario St., Milton.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George Peacock and Ferris Lawrence of New Toronto, the eldest guest attending. Sisters of the groom, Mrs. Chris Kowalski and Mrs. Fred Bowler of Gravelburg, Sask., also attended. Other guests came from Toronto, London, Port Credit, Streetsville, Lake Wilcox, Brampton, Pickering, Shelbourne and the Milton area.

Students Enjoy Toronto Trips

The 1964-65 school year ends tomorrow (Thursday) at noon for students of Ontario School for the Deaf, Milton.

During the past few weeks several extra-curricular programs have been planned for the students, as they wind up the year. On June 2 the first-graders spent the day at Malton's International Airport and a field day was held for all classes on June 8. Wednesday of last week classes visited the museum and Riverdale Zoo in Toronto and a special graduation ceremony for 36 students leaving Junior School was held on Friday of last week.

The Prep Two classes held a picnic at Hornby Park on Tuesday of this week.
