

Residents Enjoy Strawberries Gift By United Church Women

By Miss Muriel Thompson
During the strawberry season, the residents enjoyed a treat of fresh strawberries donated to them by the United Church Women of St. Paul's United Church in Milton. These delicious berries and the friendly note that accompanied them were very much appreciated. The note was written by Mrs. K. O. Foster, the president of the U.C.W.

July Party

A group of new friends joined forces with the members of the Halton Manor Auxiliary to conduct the July birthday party on Thursday afternoon, July 8. These new friends were a number of ladies who belong to the U.C.W. of Palermo Group. Mrs. B. McGill and the president of the Auxiliary, Mrs. S. Allen, were both present. The conveners for the Palermo group were Mrs. J. Van-sickle, Mrs. E. Wood and Mrs. F. Ball.

The decoration of the auditorium centred around the rose. Three lovely bouquets of garden roses and a very attractive birthday cake with white icing, miniature pink icing roses and small colored candles were used to decorate the head table. The small tables had their individual vases filled with roses also.

There were eight guests of honor whose health permitted them to attend the party. These were: Mrs. C. Elder, Mrs. Ada Hill, Mrs. T. Mercoff, Mrs. F. Henry, Miss T. Baird, Miss B. Richardson, J. Kozak and J. Vipond.

Mrs. Art Wilson was the gracious mistress of ceremonies. She greeted the large assemblage of visitors and residents and extended a special greeting to the guests of honor. She also announced the various numbers of the very enjoyable program.

With the exception of a humorous reading presented by Mrs. Wilson, the program was a musical one. Mrs. Wilson's reading which evoked many chuckles was a Recipe for Banana Cream Pie.

Musical Treat

Miss Bonnie McNab played a number of accordion solos. These were a medley of waltzes which included the Waves of the Danube Waltz, a medley of polkas and a medley of old-time ballads such as The Band Played On. Mrs. G. Newell played two groups of piano solos, which included In a Monastery Garden and I'll See You Again.

Accompanied by Mrs. Newell, Norman Viggers played Anchors A-Weigh on the bones. At the conclusion of this entertaining program, the guests of honor were invited to take their places at the head table. The candles on the birthday cake were lighted and the Happy Birthday song was sung. The gift of a $1 bill enclosed in a birthday card was presented to every guest of honor. Delicious refreshments, birthday cake donated by the Palermo ladies, ice cream provided by the Manor Auxiliary, and cold drinks were served. Miss Bella Richardson blew out the candles on the cake and gave the speech of thanks.

During the refreshment hour, the residents had an opportunity to talk with these new friends from the Palermo United Church and to thank them and the Manor Auxiliary ladies for the delightful afternoon.

Girls Sing Hymns

Part II of a two-part series of sermons with the title The Christian Goes Right On was delivered by Mr. Clayton Coles, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Milton on Sunday afternoon, July 11.

Before beginning his sermon, Mr. Coles introduced three young girls, members of his congregation who had come to sing for the residents. The three girls were Marnie Hare, Susan Meikle and Jean Fuyarchuk. They sang two hymns in lovely fashion, My Jesus, I Love Thee and The Old Rugged Cross. The organ accompaniments were played in lovely fashion also by Miss Ellen Quick.

Mr. Coles read verses 1-10 of Chapter 5 of Second Corinthians and then spoke on the topic The Glory that God Gives to the Believer on Earth.

Mr. Coles began his sermon by asking the question: What will the Christian find in Heaven? He gave several answers to this question. He said that we shall find rapture through our spiritual condition and through our wonderful reunion with our loved ones who have gone before. There will be unclouded rejoicing, and tears and sorrow will be forgotten. Rewards will be awarded to us for good deeds performed on earth. We shall see Jesus, before whom every knee shall bow.

103 Relatives Attend Snow Family Reunion

A beautiful, sunny day contributed greatly toward the success of the third annual Snow reunion, which was held on Sunday, July 11, at Kelso Conservation Area. One hundred and three descendants of a possible 203 of the late Thomas Snow and Mary Luxton gathered for a day of visiting, reminiscing and family enjoyment.

Draw Up Family Tree
Delbert Snow, of Oakville, 1965 President of the group, welcomed the family members and Lydia Snow, secretary-treasurer was in charge of registration. Stella Snow, Ethel Dodds, Earl Snow and Lloyd Marshall were other committee members who assisted with the details that resulted in the event which was enjoyed by all present.

A central point of interest was the drawing-up of the Snow Family Tree, which is near completion.

Smorgasbord style dinner was enjoyed by everyone.

Oldest, Youngest Present

Corsages were pinned on the three eldest ladies present: Mrs. Wreatha Huggins, Erin; Mrs. Emma Barry, Markdale and Mrs. Mary McDowell, London; and a boutonniere for the eldest gentleman, Abbig Anderson, Milton. Mrs. Huggins and Mr. Anderson were also presented with gifts for being the oldest lady present. Anthony William VanDam was the youngest child present and Mr. and Mrs. Massey Moffat of Ottawa, came the farthest for the reunion.

An election of officers for the next year resulted as follows: president, Ellwood Snow, Georgetown; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Delbert Snow, Oakville and Committee, Lloyd Marshall, Earl Snow, Ethel Dodds and Stella Snow.

Next year's re-union will be held at the same location on the second day of July.
Games and races rounded out a very pleasant outing.

Four Halton Junior Farmers Capture Firsts at Field Day

Charles McFeeters, Jeff Nurse and the horseshoe pitching team of Ernie Alexander and John Wilson qualified for the Provincial Junior Farmer Field Day Champions when they earned first prizes at the Zone competition held in Guelph recently.

Jeff Nurse finished first in the 880 yard dash against competitors from eight counties to earn his spot in the Provincial Championships. Charles McFeeters was first in the 100 yard dash and Ernie Alexander and John Wilson gained first prize in the horseshoe pitching contest. Nearly 75 Halton Junior Farmers travelled to the University of Guelph for the annual Zone competitions and in track and field events Halton County placed third.

Halton's boys' basketball team reached the semi-finals before being eliminated. Members of the team include Jeff Nurse, Art Lawson, John Walowina, Bob Newell and Danny Heatherington. The County's girls' basketball team with Marlene McCartney, Karen Campbell, Margie King, Lynn Warner, Jill Taylor and Verna Thompson was also eliminated in the semi-finals.

The girls' relay team from the County, Lynn Warner, Jill Taylor, Karen Campbell and Verna Thompson, earned a third and the boys' ball team of Dennis Sinclair, Wayne Heslop, Butch Richardson, Doug Coverdale, Charles Van Sickle, Frank Bertasson, Harold Thompson, Keith Dawson and Larry Campbell reached the semi-finals before being eliminated.

The County's sharp-shooting rifle team of Alan Brownridge, Fred Barnes, Jack Barnes and Bruce Van Fliet earned a second place ribbon.

The first prize finishers are now eligible to compete in the Ontario Junior Farmer Field Day Championships, to be at the University of Guelph in August.
