Drive to Burlington For Institute Meet With Former Member

The September meeting of the Mountain Union Women's Institute was made unusually interesting by the members driving to Burlington to meet at the home of Mrs. Glen Hume, formerly a member of the Institute before Glen, Mrs. Hume and family left the farm in the Mountain Union neighborhood. It proved a happy reunion in most pleasant surroundings.

The president, Mrs. F. Harbottle was in charge of the short business session. Conveners gave assurance that preparations were made for the Institute booth at Milton Fair, Sept 24 and 25, also plans were well in hand for the anticipated Lucky Luncheon and quilt draw to be held at the Union Hall in October.

The roll call for the meeting was, "An example my grandmother set for me". It met with a good and oftentimes humorous response from the members. The motto for the day was a splendid talk by Mrs. J. Kennedy on the theme "Each time you help someone up the ladder, you scale the top yourself."

An auction sale of various wrapped parcels indicated a mystery sale, which Mrs. F. Hadley conducted in aid of the treasury. Eighteen members were present and Miss Charlotte McKenzie of Woodstock was guest. Following a social time and a lunch, Mrs. Hume kindly invited her Institute guests to explore her lovely home and garden.

—Enumerators have completed their rounds for the Nov. 8 election.

CORRECTION

The Champion erred in a news report last week on a theft of merchandise from an Ontario St. apartment building. The theft occurred at Maple Glen Apartments, not Milton Court Apartments as the story indicated.

WEEK FOR SAFETY

Next week is Fire Prevention Week in Milton. Support your Milton Fire Department in its open house program, Friday and Saturday October 8 and 9. And remember, fire safety is everyone's business — think about fire, wherever you are.
