MILTON'S SEWAGE PLANT is undergoing a face-lifting these days as workmen rush the $306,000 addition which will increase the plant's capacity from the present 7,000 population limit, to serve a future population of 11,000 residents. Council ordered a go-ahead on the work this fall to be ready if the Ontario Municipal Board grants an extension of the town's boundaries. Workmen are presently gouging great holes in the ground and pouring concrete footings for the addition.

HALTON MANOR

25 Barbershoppers Entertain At September Birthday Party

By Miss Muriel Thompson

Rev. J. K. L. McGown came to the chapel of the Manor on Sunday afternoon, September 12 to conduct the second church service in the regular schedule that will prevail until the spring of 1966. Mrs. John Mowat came also to play the organ. Mr. McGown is the minister and Mrs. Mowat is a member of Knox Presbyterian Church in Milton.

Young Lee, whose home is in Seoul, Korea, came also to play his violin during the service. Mr. Lee is a member of a Presbyterian Church in Seoul and also a violinist in the Seoul Symphony Orchestra. He is attending university in Canada. He played two lovely violin solos, the well-known hymn Blessed Assurance and Home, Sweet Home, with variations.

Love and Charity

Mr. McGown took the material for his sermon from Chapters 12, 13 and 14 of First Corinthians. These chapters speak of "charity" which Mr. McGown explained as meaning "love". He spoke particularly on the subject: Love Is Invincible.

Mr. McGown said that invincible Christian love should be found in every Christian and the situations in which he finds himself today. All the Christian virtues mentioned in these chapters of Corinthians are meaningless until they are associated with Christian love. These verses that describe this kind of love are really a description of Christ himself. To possess Christian love, a person must be possessed by Christ.

Birthday Party

An evening of rousing vocal music, sung by 25 men who belong to the Georgetown chapter of Barbershoppers, was provided for the residents through the kindness of Verdun Rebekah Lodge of Georgetown at the September birthday party held on Tuesday evening, September 14.

The Rebekah Lodge mentioned was represented by a group of very friendly members, among them the Noble Grand, Mrs. E. Eason and the Vice-Grand, Mrs. J. Barton. Mrs. Eileen Johnson was the convener.

Mrs. Barton called the Barbershoppers to the stage and introduced them to the audience. The Barbershoppers then presented a very fine program. Jim Turnbull announced the selections and David Morgan was the talented director.

For their first song, You're a Welcome as the Flowers in May, to the last one, Keep America Singing, their choice of songs and the manner in which they sang them delighted the audience. Among the songs sung by the Barbershoppers as a group were Give My Regards to Broadway, After Dark and Mary O' Mine. They also sang My Gal Sal which will be the test piece at a competition to be held in Hamilton this fall.

Describes Growth

A brief talk describing the growth of Barbershop music in the last 30 years was given by "Steamer" Emmerson. Mr. Emmerson then called on three other Barbershoppers, Jim Turnbull, D. Morgan and G. McKnight to join him in a quartette selection, Kentucky Babe. A special version of Let Me Call You Sweetheart, with the audience joining in was directed by Charley Kelly.

At the conclusion of the program, the guests of honor, those residents having birthdays in the month of September, were invited by Mrs. Barton to take their places at the head table. These were Mrs. E. Hills, Mrs. E. Hoare, Mrs. M. Shaw, Mrs. J. Mason, Mrs. A. Boss, Mrs. P. Green, Mrs. M. Forbes, M. Hargreaves and J. Golden.

Each guest of honor received a birthday card and a $1 bill. The Happy Birthday song was sung for them by the Barbershoppers.

Donate Lunch

The head table looked lovely with its centre bouquet of dark red roses, flanked by two other bouquets of other summer flowers. The refreshments were delicious — sandwiches, a wide variety of fancy small cakes, ice cream and birthday cake, all donated by the Rebekahs, and tea and coffee.

The Rebekahs of Georgetown have entertained the residents of the Manor on several occasions and each occasion has been a very enjoyable one. The residents hope that there will be many more in the future.

HUNTING

Do you enjoy taking the gun out for ducks, deer and moose? Many of our farmers and their city cousins take great pride in their shooting prowess. Unfortunately, some of our hunters are careless, and shoot at anything that moves. To prevent you being a target, wear a fluorescent orange hat and vest. Since most animals are colour blind, it won't scare them off, but it should give warning to the trigger-happy hunter.

SAVE A WALK

340 Worship on Anniversary

About 340 friends and members of Westover Baptist Church gathered for special worship services at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. on September 19 to celebrate its 120th anniversary. The Rev. Dr. James R. C. Perkin, newly appointed professor of New Testament at McMaster Divinity College, Hamilton, spoke on "New Lives For Old" and "The Holy War." Special music was provided by William Stone (violin), of Simcoe, the choir of Kirkwall Presbyterian Church, and the local Brownie Choir.

About 240 people enjoyed a delicious luncheon, which was served by the ladies of the church at the Women's Institute Hall at Westover. The outdoor afternoon program included the cutting of the anniversary cake, a roll call of former members of the church, a play by the Young People, and the presentation of a lovely corsage of white carnations to Miss Eba B. Haines, of Freelon, for her devoted service. Miss Haines is the daughter of the Rev. E. J. Haines who served Westover Baptist Church.

History Available
Miss Haines has written an illustrated history of the church. A copy of the history and a group picture of the worshippers last Sunday may be obtained by writing to the minister, Mr. George Rath, R.R. 2, Campbellville.

Westover Baptist Church was organized by 26 constituent members in 1845 and is located about three miles north of Westfield Pioneer Village. John Westover, whose family gave the name to the community of Westover, gave the lot on which the present church building was erected 115 years ago. About 37 pastors have served the church through the years. The roll carries the names of well over 500 members, many of whom were baptized in the old mill pond.

Present membership stands at 35, but in addition, the church

The Canada Pension Plan and its benefits

Here is what the Canada Pension Plan will do for people like Robert Martin, a 55-year-old skilled tradesman who earns $100 a week ($5,200 a year).

If Robert works full time until age 65 he can look forward to a monthly retirement income of $104.17 from the Canada Pension Plan and $75 from Old Age Security—a total of $179.17 a month. When his wife, who is two years younger than Robert, receives her Old Age Security pension, the Martins' monthly income will rise to $254.17.

If Robert becomes disabled at age 60, having contributed for five years, he will get a disability pension of $103.13 a month until he reaches 65 when his retirement and Old Age Security pensions begin.

If Robert dies after contributing for three years, his wife will receive a widow's pension of $64.06 a month until age 65. From then on her widow's pension will become $62.50 and she will also receive the $75 Old Age Security pension—a total of $137.50 a month. At the time of Robert's death, Mrs. Martin will also be paid a lump sum of $500.

All benefits under the Plan will maintain their value. The actual benefits payable will probably be higher than those given here since benefits will be adjusted to meet changes in living costs and in wage levels before they are paid and changes in living costs after they become payable.

What will the Plan cost you?

If you, like Robert, are employed and have earnings of $5,200 spread evenly over the year, you will, commencing in January, pay at the rate of $1.59 a week until your contributions for the year amount to $79.20. Your employer will pay the same amount.

This advertisement is one of a series which relates some of the important benefits of the Canada Pension Plan to individual circumstances.

Issued by authority of the Minister of National Health and Welfare, Canada, The Honourable Judy LaMarsh.
