

FIRE PREVENTION BUREAU, a group of firefighters who meet monthly to plan fire prevention programs on a county-wide scale, staged its annual church parade in Milton Sunday morning. About 50 firefighters, led by the Lorne Scots Military Band, marched from the Curling Club on Millside Drive to St.

Paul's United Church for the 11 a.m. service. The parade is held annually just before Fire Prevention Week, to draw attention to the week-long campaign for fire safety. Firefighters in the group represented the Milton, Georgetown, Burlington, Oakville and Acton fire brigades.

Resolutions Subject Of Nassagaweya W.I.

Mrs. John Robertson, Milton, was the hostess for the September meeting of the Nassagaweya Women's Institute, with the president Mrs. Fred Edwards presiding. The Ode and Mary Stewart were read and followed by roll call answered by a current event. Mrs. John Henry read the minutes of the last meeting which were adopted. Mrs. Jean Pyatt reported on finances.

The 4-H Club funds are to be presented with funds to assist in their projects. Mrs. David DeBlair was appointed a delegate to the Women's Institute Convention to be held in Guelph. Mrs. T. Amos, Mrs. A. Frank and Mrs. F. Edwards will form the committee to attend to details of the annual dinner in November, to be followed by a conference at the home of Mrs. Hattie Price.

University of Guelph. Mrs. Walter Freeman read an article on The Quiet Countryside.

Mrs. B. D. Young introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Murray Mahon who emphasized the importance of a properly worded and signed resolution, the subject of which has been chosen wisely. We can't expect to enjoy the contributions of others if we don't supply some of our own. Now would be the ideal time to draw up resolutions, Mrs. Mahon pointed out, as she read some autumn poems describing the most beautiful season of the year.

Queen and Grace closed the meeting. Mrs. T. Amos and Mrs. F. Edwards assisted the hostess in serving refreshments during the social hour following.

Conference Business

The meeting was then turned over to the Resolutions convenor, Mrs. B. D. Young who read the officers' conference held in the COASTING?

Agricultural economists estimate that U.S. farmers could produce at least 25 per cent more than they now produce, if that much more was needed.
