In Memoriam

CURRIE — In loving memory of our dear grandmother, Lydia Currie, who passed away November 23, 1964.

Dear God, please give this mes-To Grandma in heaven above, Tell her how much we miss her, And give her all our love.

Sadly missed by Dianne, Ken c-29-8980 and Linda. CURRIE—In loving memory of a dear mother, Lydia Currie, who passed away November 23, 1964. As we stood by your bedside,

One year ago today, No words between us spoken, All we could do was pray, Dear mother, how I miss you, Life has not been the same, That I heard you call my name.

They say that memories start to Royce (nee Sammit) of R.R. 1, But still my pillow is wet with Robert Wheelband 878-6386.

Sadly missed, Alice and Ike.

FETTER - In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Minnie Catherine, who passed away November 26, 1963. You often said we'd miss you, Those words were oh, so true,

We lost our best and dearest pal Dear Mother, when we lost you. Always remembered by Harry, Olive, Helen and grandchildren. c-29-3952

SIMPSON — In loving memory of dad, Ezwill Simpson, who passed away November 30, 1957. Within our hearts we'll always special place for you, And try to do our best to live,

As you would want us to. Always missed by daughter and son-in-law, Frances and c-29-8957 John Bauman.

SIMPSON — In loving memory of grandpa, Ezwill Simpson, who passed away November 30, 1957.

Though his smile is gone forever, And his hand we cannot touch Still we have so many memories • Upholstering Of the grandpa we love so much. With which we'll never part.
