Statistics, anyone? Television has made inroads on the available time for recreational reading. No-body argues with this fact, but television has also opened up new avenues of interest for everyone.

This, plus the modern new books available and the shorter work week have resulted in 1965 being the greatest reading year in history. Book sales in the U.S. have increased to an all time high of $600,000,000 showing an increase of 10 per cent each year since 1960.

We've had some long awaited new books arrive from the publishers this week:

FICTION AND BIOGRAPHY Hotel, by Arthur Hailey — As usual, Hailey produces an exciting story; this time set against the background of a big hotel, the scene is New Orleans, the time 1964, the action, a five day glimpse into the inner machinery and secrets of modern hotel life.

Kennedy, by Theodore C. Sorenson — Biographer Sorenson was Special Counsel of the late president, recounts failures as well as successes of the man he worked with on a personal basis for eleven years.

Those who love, by Irving Stone — A biographical novel of Abigail and John Adams. A love story of the woman behind the man who became the second president of the UNITED STATES.

HARLEY...to HALTON

By DR. HARRY HARLEY, M.P. The Throne Speech debate is over. As expected no vote was taken on the Throne Speech itself, all the votes being taken on non-confidence amendments proposed by the Opposition.

The Government, survived these votes with the Social Credit Party and having done so, the Opposition did not force a vote on the Throne Speech. They had tried unsuccessfully to bring down the Government, been defeated and accepted it gracefully.

The atmosphere of the House of Commons is quite different than when we last sat there. In the 26th Parliament the Green Chamber was often filled with bitterness and rancor, and the air tense with frustration and anger. In this new 27th Parliament this bitterness is not there, at least not as yet.

Even during the votes, and during the speeches of the Opposition, some of which were very political and partisan, this unpleasant background has been noticeably absent.

Consider Estimates before the House now. This is a 48 hour debate, on any topic, and is another opportunity for the Opposition to move a vote of non-confidence. They have agreed not to do so, in advance — however, and the House of Commons will in the days ahead move into the consideration of the various Government Departments for the 1965/1966 budget year.

It is difficult to say how long this will take but it is expected to be completed before any legislation is brought before the House of Commons. In the near future "Interim Supply" must also be granted to allow the Government to pay its day-to-day bills. This is Not Council's Fault Teen Dance Stopped Milton Council had nothing to do with stopping teen dances in the Agricultural Hall in Milton, Mayor S. G. Childs assured Councilor G. Krantz during Monday's council meeting.

Councillor Krantz reported he had been approached by citizens wondering why the town had discontinued the dances.

The mayor reported the Agricultural Society owned the building and had discontinued renting it for teen-age dances. Heating and damage were cited as reasons for the action. The town hall, with one washroom, was not suitable for the dances, the mayor said, and renovations precluded the use of the hall.

Councillor Krantz also wondered about the establishment of a YM-YWCA. It was noted that in Acton a citizen left a bequest for a Y building which is not subsidized by the town.

Local Ladies Injured In Two-Car Accident

By Mrs. George Pelletier A fire of undetermined origin destroyed the barn on a farm on the Walker's line, owned by Brock Harris, Wednesday morning. Eleven head of cattle and a large quantity of hay and grain were lost in the fire.

Mrs. Clarence Bridgeman and Mrs. John Bridgeman were involved in a car accident with Mrs. William Hayward on Saturday morning. Mrs. John Bridgeman returned home following emergency treatment at the hospital, but Mrs. Clarence Bridgeman and Mrs. Hayward are still hospitalized.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cripps were guests at the wedding on Saturday of their cousin Joy Chappell and Brian Doyle, at West Hamilton Anglican Church. The reception was held at the Colling Hotel at Dundas. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Patterson, Beverley Patterson and Harold Sanderson attended the dance following the reception.

Home From Hospital Mrs. James Van Sickle has returned to her home from Oakville Hospital where she was a patient last week. (Intended for Last Week)

The annual Vestry meeting of St. Luke's Anglican Church, Halton, was held in the Parish Hall on Monday night, Jan. 24, with Rev. E. Mills as chairman. Mrs. Ross Cowan was appointed as Vestry Clerk, George Pelletier as Rector's Wardens.

Slides of Trip The Palermeo Junior Farmers and Junior Institute met at the home of Murray Harris Friday night. Following the business meeting, Ken Klunders, a native of Holland, showed slides taken on his visit to Holland last summer. He also showed several slides of his trip to Western Canada.

Many Students missed their classes on Monday and Tuesday as some schools were closed, and school buses were unable to get through the snow-blocked roads.

Sunday Guests Visitors on Sunday with the Merediths were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Reichert and girls of Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bacon and Mr. and Mrs. Don Rivers of Oakville. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brittain of St. John, New Brunswick, visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alexander and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hill, David and Bonnie of Milton, visited Saturday with the Pelletiers. Sherry Blakelock of Five Side-road and Shirley Hall, Bell School Line, were guests at a CHUM theatre party at Lowes Downtown Theatre, receiving a sneak preview of the new movie "Made In Paris".
