12 U.S. Girl Scouts To Visit on Weekend

Milton Rangers are anxiously looking forward to Easter weekend, when they hope to boost U.S.-Canadian public relations by hosting a group of 12 girl scouts from Troop 618, Meadsville, Pa., for a weekend of fun. The American girls, accompanied by three leaders, expect to arrive in Milton Saturday afternoon and stay over until Monday. They will be entertained and fed by their Milton Ranger Company hosts, and leader Mrs. Don Graham predicts an exciting time.

It all started last year as Ranger leader Mrs. Joyce Henry was touring her Rangers around Casa Loma in Toronto, and they bumped into the Meadsville girl scouts. Since the chance meeting the girls have been corresponding, and a group from Milton visited in Meadsville on Thanksgiving weekend. This weekend sees a return
